

ARBOR DAY

The Exercises at the Cedar Street School Yesterday.

The program as published in The Astorian yesterday morning, was carried out in full. A large audience of parents and friends of the pupils were present, and all went away delighted with the manner in which the pupils acquitted themselves.

THE ABSTRACTS WILL BE FORTHCOMING.

A number of property owners are having their subsidy abstracts prepared, so as to be in readiness to receive the gentlemen who are now on the way to Astoria to make the final arrangements for the road.

The subsidy committee have earned the everlasting gratitude of the people of Astoria by their noble efforts to make a success of it this time, and it is a source of great satisfaction that the right kind of men were induced to serve on this committee.

CIRCUIT COURT NOTES.

The circuit court convened yesterday morning at 10 o'clock.

By the courtesy of Clerk Trenchard, we have the following abstract of business transacted:

COURT STREET SCHOOL.

All the rooms were beautifully decorated in behalf of "Arbor Day" at the Court street school. Rooms 3 to 8 had combined exercises, consisting of dialogues, declamations, songs and recitations.

Not only were the scholars interested, but so were the numerous visitors, among whom were Mesdames Fulton, Harmon, Greene, Hawes, Curtis, Hobson, Kronquist, Nelson, Gilbert, Turner and Airth, and others equally prominent.

The following program was rendered by the Ciceronian Society: Reading, Charles Gray; recitation, Bessie Rutter; essay, Bertha Welch; reading, Nellie Utzinger; recitation, Annie Olsen; reading, Sigfried Young; recitation, Mattie Shively; instrumental solo, May Morgan; recitation, George Barker; vocal duet, Gentle Lewis and Laura Fox; essay, Miss Powell; song, "America," by the school; essay, Ed. Hobson.

Remarks were made by Mr. J. W. Conn, Prof. Wright and Miss Gilbert. The music was furnished by the High School band.

AN INVITATION TO ALL.

The Rev. J. W. Dorrance extends a special and cordial invitation to all the young people, as well as the old, of the city not otherwise engaged, to attend the services Sunday evening, at 7:30 o'clock, in the First Presbyterian church, on Main street, between Jefferson and Astor. Subject: "The Glory of Youth and the Beauty of Age."

GOOD WORK.

For the benefit of the public, the Ladies' Guild of Grace (Episcopal) church desire to state that the receipts from their supper amounted to $87.45, and the expenses of same, such as rent of hall, help, printing and sundries, $14.45, leaving the sum of $73 for the benefit of the library. Quite an amount of provisions were left, which were distributed among the poor.

LET THE GOOD WORK GO ON.

The railroad meeting yesterday was well attended, and it is hoped will result in much good in the way of hurrying up the completion of the details necessary to the conference with the New York people next week.

SHE CAME BACK.

The steamer South Coast went down as far as the bar, but came back with the report that it was too rough to go out.

NO MONEY.

City Treasurer Conn says that while the city is collecting its taxes, he has hardly seen a cent of money, as the taxes are nearly all being paid in warrants.

UP AGAIN.

Only two cases were before his honor, Judge Osburn, yesterday, and they were two brothers, whose breath smelled like the back door of a moonshiner's cave when they were first

"fished in." They have been arrested by every officer on the force, and always seem to have money enough to put up for bail, which they forfeit. Can't some one reform "Jack Doe" and his twin, "Richard?"

CLATSOP CATTLE.

The steamer Eclipse took over to Christenson & Bergman's ranch, on Gray's River, a bunch of about 20 head of cattle. These, with the cattle now on the ranch, will make a herd of 50.

A FATAL KICK.

Thomas Wherry, who was kicked in the face by a horse out at Mishawka, died this morning at 7 o'clock from concussion of the brain.

A DANGEROUS HOLE.

There is a very dangerous hole in the street nearly opposite Jeff's restaurant, which should have the attention of the superintendent of streets.
