

AROUND TOWN.

Listen to the church bells and heed their call this morning.

The "Junior Order" is a new fraternity, lately organized in Astoria.

Straw hats and strawberries made their first appearance in the city yesterday.

Four passengers purchased tickets for Portland from here on the Columbia yesterday.

The ship Hawksdale passed out yesterday afternoon, laden with wheat, bound for Limerick.

The newly organized double quartet choir will render the music at the Methodist Episcopal church today.

Dr. Bushong, by request, addressed an assembly of the Norwegian Methodists last night at their hall in Uppertown.

Among the handsome bridal presents to Miss Bell was one from the officers and teachers of the M. E. Sunday school.

The whistlers of Coxe's army, when boarding trains, take their airs from "Carmen." This pleases the train hands and they ride free.

Over ninety cabin passengers arrived up on the Columbia from San Francisco yesterday, this being one of the largest passenger lists of the season.

The Washington Star says the United States has 800 lights upon its coast. Thirty of them are displayed from light ships, the others shine from light-houses.

An $50 lot for $2. If you want some extra fine photos taken, Moe's is the place to get them.

Lovers of a good cigar can always find mild, fresh Belmonts at Chas. Olsen's.

It is said that a man came to town on horseback the other day leading a steer by a rope that was tied to the horse's tail. The horse didn't seem to mind it, and the steer wasn't consulted.

Mayor Mayson, of Portland, en route from San Francisco to his home, spent an hour in our city yesterday morning. He expressed surprise at the activity of our streets. He was accompanied by Mrs. Mason.

Fresh fish and poultry at Welcome's Market, next to Ford & Stokes'. Menny is the leading tailor and pays the highest cash price for fur skins.

For $2, a lot is delivered every week to the buyer in Hill's First addition.

When two women meet and are friends they kiss, but when men meet, no matter how friendly they are, they do not. This is because the men can find something better to kiss and the women can't.

The best we have heard yet is that Mr. A. G. Spexarth sells a fine American-made mandolin for $25, with a contract to furnish 15 lessons by a first-class teacher, and also guarantees the pupil to read and play music correctly.

Hill's First addition is located in the center of the city. Lots are now selling in it for $2.

Teething babies and feverish children need St.-e-d-man's Soothing Powders. Try them.

Astoria is a "more or less" musical community, and fosters the "arts," but the kind of music thrown in with some of its beer, about 1 o'clock in the morning, can be dispensed with. Drinking to slow fiddling is acceptable only in the highest development of the art.

They have an ordinance at Salem which provides for the publication of a person's name as a common drunkard, and making it an offense for any one to furnish him liquor thereafter. The other day one such unfortunate and the companion who gave him to drink were each arrested and sentenced to ten days in jail.

Only a few more days left to secure a fine, $10, Crayon Portrait by ordering one dozen cabinets, at Crow's Gallery. A six-horse power upright engine and boiler, almost new, for sale cheap. For particulars apply at this office.

H. Ekstrom has fixed his prices for jewelry to suit the times, and the latest novelties can be secured at the cost of material used in the manufacture.

Some one suggests that the churches of Astoria hang a slate in the vestibule, so that young ladies may register before they enter. The young men, who come round just before closing time, could then consult the slate, instead of being obliged to peek in at the doors and windows to ascertain if their girls are inside.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McMullen have been early bereaved in the death of their infant daughter, whose remains were interred in the Hill cemetery during the past week.

"The sun is but a spark of fire, A transient meteor in the sky, The soul, immortal, as its sire Shall never die." -Montgomery.

When you feel that you want a good smoke, go to Charles Olsen's, 527 Third street. He keeps the Belmont, Ideal, American, Gerona, Schiller in Caballeros size, Sir Edwin, Reina Luisa, Flor de Stanford, Hoffman House, Uppmans, La Corona, Pride of Key West and all the latest brands of 5 and 10 cent cigars in the market, and the best stock of pipes, tobacco and smokers' articles in the city.

Small photographs, $1 per dozen, at Crow's gallery, 233 Third street.

There is no risk taken by joining Hill's lot clubs. Everybody gets the full value of their money.

Don't go to Portland to buy your tickets for the "Old Country" and the East when you can get them for the same price at the Union Pacific office in this city, and thereby save your local fare to Portland.

TO LEAVE FOR ALASKA.

The fishing schooner Surprise, Capt. Jos. Bell, owner, will leave next Thursday for Tongas Narrows, Alaska, under command of Capt. Robert Bell. The crew will put in the season catching and salting salmon.

PAY NOW.

Sheriff Smith states that after May 1 all property upon which taxes have not been paid will be advertised in the public press as delinquent and the costs added. Those paid before that date will have but 3 per cent penalty attached.

SAD ACCIDENT.

The wife of Gus Snug fell from the roadway in Uniontown and broke her collarbone about 9 o'clock last night. Dr. J. A. Fulton was called in as soon as possible and set the fracture, and at 10 o'clock the patient was resting easy.

WANT RAIN.

Several hundred dollars is a good deal of money to spend on a church tower to keep it from leaking, but that it what the vestry and wardens of Grace church have done, and now that it is finished they want the signal service to have it rain one of those blowing, sizzling kind, in order to test the thoroughness of the work.

WILL CELEBRATE.

Next Thursday, April 26, is the 75th anniversary of Odd Fellowship in America, and Beaver lodge, No. 25, of this city, intends celebrating it with appropriate festivities. They are not selfish, and are fixing up their house for invited guests also. Those so fortunate as to hold invitations can rely on a pleasant evening.

ASTORIA'S "RESOURCES."

Now it is known why the ladies of Astoria have such beautiful complexions. An authority says that damp, foggy weather is good for the skin, making it soft and fair, while dry, windy weather reddens and toughens it. This should be regarded as one of the most important in the list of "Astoria's Resources" as sent out by the chamber of commerce, and it would prove a drawing card, for what woman does not wish a clear complexion.

EMERSON, THEN BROWNING.

A lady says that when she has any hard, disagreeable work to do about the house, she runs into the parlor and reads an extract from Emerson, and thinks about it while she is doing the druggery, and it seems so much easier. Because a woman's hands must be occupied with the scrubbing brush and rolling pin is no reason why her mind should be kept on the same level. If he doesn't interfere with the work, by all means let Mr. Emerson step right into the kitchen.

For a delicious plate of pure ice cream, go to C. B. Smith, the Ice Cream Dealer. Ice Cream Soda a specialty. Private parlors for ladies. 483 Third street.

THE RAILROAD MEETING.

The general committee had a meeting yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock with Messrs. Campbell and Stanton. It is reported on the street that these gentlemen claim they have the money raised to build the road, and that they want a 20-day option on the subsidy, and they also wish to take all papers down east and submit them to their attorneys. As every one on the committee seemed close-mouthed, it was difficult to obtain any authentic news whatever.

The proposed "Apron Sale," by the ladies of Grace Church, promises to be one of the most unique and interesting affairs that ever occurred in Astoria.

A SAD DAY.

This is a sad Sunday for Peter Nelson, a longshoreman, who lives up on Jackson street, between Court and Astor. A week ago his 14-year-old son, Nels, the eldest of eight children, hurt himself trying to lift too great a weight while at work in the Pacific Can factory, and yesterday he died from the effects of the injury. Mr. Nelson has the sympathy of the entire community in his sorrow. It is said Nels had always been a good and dutiful son, and it is hard for his father to give him up.

Japanese novelties and fancy dry goods, can be had at half price, at the store of Wing Lee, next to Olsen's cigar store.

AN EARLY SERENADE.

Alex. Ohis had a birthday either the 20th or the 21st of this month, and his friends came around to his house with a bass drum, cornet, kazoo and other musical instruments to serenade him at the unholy hour of 2:30 o'clock yesterday morning, just when Alex. needed sleep most. If the anniversary came on Friday, the 20th, the neighbors who were made aware of the celebration claim the serenaders were too late in the night, and if it was yesterday, the 21st, they came too early in the morning, and played the kazoo too long.

Olsen has 25 brands of clear Havana cigars and he will give you a better cigar for 10 cents than you can get for 15 cents at any other place. 527 Third street.

THE RESCUE CLUB.

The Rescue club's entertainment last evening was up to the usual standard, the following program being well rendered to a large and appreciative audience:

Music by the audience; song, "The First Robin," Miss Laura McCann; prayer, chaplain; reading, Rev. McCormack; instrumental solo; recitation, "First New England Apple Tree," Miss Alice Grey; song, "Matrimonial Sweets" (duet, with violin accompaniment), Mr. Parker and Miss Elsie Parker; dialogue, "The Trials of a School Teacher," Oswald Gustafson and Lyman Anstadt; song, "The Bird's Complaint," Miss Madge Sovey; reading (selection), Mrs. Dr. Bushong; vocal solo, Rev. Stover; announcements; doxology; benediction, Rev. Stover; singing the pledge.

REPLY TO "ANOTHER REPUBLICAN."

Editor Astorian—Dear Sir: I should like to reply to the article written by "Another Republican" in regard to the Populist candidate for county superintendent.

I would suggest that if he were better acquainted with Mr. H. S. Lyman he never would have made the statement, "Any one who has no better knowledge of affairs than to be a Populist has no business in the office of county superintendent," for no one can deny Mr. Lyman's deep thought on all subjects, his ability and faithfulness in discharging all duties entrusted to his care, his broad-mindedness and his especial work in the schools under his direction. In the building up of schools he works for best and lasting results.

The scathing reference to "country peddling," etc., is entirely uncalled for. His appreciation is felt in the school room, and I sincerely hope it will be for years to come.

A THOUGHTFUL READER.

PERSONAL.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Astoria Iron Works will be held at their office on Tuesday, May 1st, 1894, at 7 p. m., for the purpose of electing directors for the ensuing year, and the transaction of such business as may properly come before the meeting. By order of the Board of Directors. JOHN FOX, Secretary.

O. B. PRAEL, Secretary.

Astoria, Ore., April 20th, 1894.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

To the Republican County Convention: I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of County Assessor, subject to your approval. A. R. CYRUS.

SMOKE! SMOKE! SMOKE! SMOKE! If you want any thing good to smoke, Key West, imported, or domestic, you must go to Chas. Olsen.

FROZEN—THEN ON FIRE!

Like the application of ice to the small of your back, is the sensation produced by the chill that precedes the fever of malaria. Then comes the roasting stage, when every vein throbs and is scorched as if with liquid fire. Then you will nigh dissolve in exhausting perspiration that leaves you as limp as a wet dish rag. These alternating torments are not remediable permanently with quinine, which is, moreover, a most damaging cumulative poison. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters drives out the fever and repels its further attacks. It is the leading medicinal safeguard against malaria all over the continents of North and South America, Guatemala, the Isthmus of Panama, Mexico and Australia. It regulates the liver, stomach, bowels and kidneys, enriches the blood, and promotes appetite, sleep and digestion. It is not only a medicine, but an effective cordial welcome to the most delicate palate. Rheumatic tendency is counteracted by it.

THE advantages of a bank account are numerous.

It is not to business men we are talking—they know all about it—but to salaried men and women. There's safety—if the bank is a good one. There's convenience—the money always ready and always out of harm's way, out of the reach of your own petty squandering. It is easy to spend small sums when you have a large sum in your pocket. We open accounts in our Savings Department for as small an amount as $1, and pay you interest. We will be glad to send our last statement if you care to see it.
