

AROUND TOWN.

By.
Capt. Mathews left for Seattle, via Portland, to bring the steamer Chillicothe to Astoria.

Rev. Peter Steen, the Lutheran preacher, will be united in wedlock to Mrs. H. S. Olsen this evening.

Mrs. O. F. Heilborn will leave on the next steamer for a three-months' visit to her mother in San Francisco.

The Astoria box factory sent a large circular saw up to Portland via steamer Telephone yesterday to be repaired.

Rev. Edward Braekhus has returned to Astoria, and will hold services every evening this week at the Bethania church.

The many Astoria friends of Mrs. V. H. Coffey will be sorry to hear that she is seriously ill at her home in Hare, Oregon.

One can get more for his household goods than he could a week ago. Another second-hand store has started up in the city.

H. E. Topping, who went down to San Francisco to stay, has returned to Astoria, and will resume business on Third street.

Martin Foad and wife, accompanied by Mrs. Brack, went to Portland to attend the funeral of the son of Mr. Frank Botfner.

Two counties in California have over 50,000 beehives and export 6,000,000 lbs. of honey, besides 300,000 lbs. of comb and 20,000 lbs. of wax.

Eastern tourists pronounce the Shasta line from Portland to San Francisco one of the most picturesque pieces of railroad travel in America.

"Uncle Tom's Cabin" tonight. If you want some extra fine photos taken, Moore's is the place to get them.

Some of our county candidates claim they are in the race to the bitter end. Some of them needn't worry about the end, it will be bitter enough.

Judging by the number of business men who are now taking their meals at the hotels and chop houses, there must be a heap of house-cleaning going on in Astoria.

An $80 lot for $2. Fresh fish and poultry at Welcome's Market, next to Foad & Stokes.

Meany is the leading tailor and pays the highest cash price for fur skins.

For $2, a lot is delivered every week to the buyer in Hill's First addition.

Last Saturday night the members of the Society Minerva contributed the sum of $22.45 toward defraying the funeral expenses of young Nelson, who died that morning.

Freeman & Bremner put in a whole week finishing up for Contractor James Reed, of Portland, two dozen 2-inch spar buoy irons. They have also made over 100 long shank anchors for Foad & Stokes.

The story of "Uncle Tom's Cabin" is said to have caused the late civil war. Hill's First addition is located in the center of the city. Lots are now selling in it for $2.

Teething babies and feverish children need Steepleman's Soothing Powders. Try them.

Capt. Salte has been caulking his steam scow during the past week, and now he is at work giving her a new coat of paint. The job is nearly finished, and the scow looks as pretty as a new red cake wagon.

The copper on the bottom of the tender Manzanita is torn somewhat, and where she used to ride over a fisherman's net without damaging it, the net is now caught and dragged until it is badly damaged. Fishermen will do well to remember this.

House packed nightly for "Uncle Tom's Cabin."

Only a few more days left to secure a fine, $10, Crayon Portrait by ordering one dozen cabinets, at Crow's Gallery.

A six-horse power upright engine and boiler, almost new, for sale cheap. For particulars apply at this office.

The production of coal in the United States in 1893 was 179,355,000 short tons, of the valuation of $295,237,000. California produced 72,900 tons, valued at $1,675,000; Montana, 914,000 tons, valued at $1,816,000; Oregon, 41,700 tons, valued at $44,500; Utah, 413,200 tons, valued at $611,000; Washington, 1,265,000 tons, valued at $2,269,300; Wyoming, 2,429,300 tons, valued at $3,291,000.

H. Ekstrom has fixed his prices for jewelry to suit the times, and the latest novelties can be secured at the cost of material used in the manufacture.

E. Alma Stutz as "Topsy" is simply immense.

The closing exercises of the Cedar street school will be held on Tuesday, May 29, in room No. 5. This is caused by the final examination coming immediately after, when the pupils will not have time to prepare for any further exercises for the term. These exercises will be held under the invitation of Cushing Post, G. A. R., of this city. Further announcements will be given before the day named.

There is no risk taken by joining Hill's lot clubs. Everybody gets the full value of their money.

Don't go to Portland to buy your tickets for the "Old Country" and the East when you can get them for the same price at the Union Pacific office in this city, and thereby save your local fare to Portland.

Secure seats early for "Uncle Tom" tonight.

"Jesus of Nazareth Passeth By" tonight, at 7:30, in the First Presbyterian church. Come and see Him, and if you find that you can love Him and trust Him as your personal Saviour, why, then confess Him before men by making known your love and trust, accompanied with your request to be admitted into the church, to the session which meets in the same place at 8:30 p. m. Respectfully yours, Rev. J. W. Dorrance.

THIS IS A GREAT COUNTRY.

All Europe, including the vast plains of Russia, may be laid down within the boundaries of the United States.

TIN.

The 1,500 boxes billed to Meyer, Wilson & Co., which are on the U. P. dock, will be shipped as soon as re-coopered.

FIRST SHIPMENT.

The first carload of this season's catch of salmon left this morning for New York, via Union Pacific steamer and Sunset route.

GONE TO SEASIDE.

Mrs. Alex. Campbell and daughter, Miss Dolly, have gone down to Seaside, to prepare their cottage for the regular summer outing.

BACK AGAIN.

Mr. Arthur Bartholomew, formerly captain of the Astoria football team, has returned to this city from England. His family will sail some time in July.

FOR VANCOUVER.

The four-masted barkentine Chehalis, from Mollends, Chili, South America, 50 days out, received orders by tug Escort at 9 o'clock yesterday morning to proceed to Vancouver, B. C.

A SEASON'S ENGAGEMENT.

The gasoline launch Elida, Nick Davis captain, has been engaged for the season by Mr. Seelberg, of the Columbia cannery, to go 45 miles up the river every day to the point where his fishermen deliver their catch.

GOOD OLD TIMES.

Nels C. Hansen is down from Oak Point, and reports that the saw mill at the Point is not going to run this year, on account of the low price of logs and lumber. The mill yard is full of cordwood, which they are selling at $1.50 per cord in the yard.

RIGHT IN IT.

Mrs. Cleveland has said it, and, being the first lady in the land, all of the "ten thousand times ten thousand" women who take an interest in such things, will adopt the style of hair dressing described as the "Diana knot." It has already reached Astoria in a mild way.

JUST SO.

It is the lady's place to bow at the first meeting after an introduction, if she desires to continue the acquaintance. When making a call a gentleman takes care of his own hat and coat, and puts them on without assistance—unless in some way incapacitated—when taking his departure.

THIRTEEN DAYS MORE.

The yard-sticks have been flying and snapping like mad for two days past at Shanahan Brothers' store, and no wonder the interest increases as the sale lengthens. Competition is keenest. The union of special bargain prices and honest merchandise are the means of drawing the great company which comes daily—rain or shine.

Follow the crowd for the next 13 days to this store, while the sale continues, and you will get goods for almost nothing.

FOR MEMBERS ONLY.

Next Saturday evening the members of the Society Minerva will have a members' social, and the committee on entertainment have been busily engaged in preparing a fine program, which will be as follows:

Opening address, Sofus Jensen; song, Miss Berg; song, Miss Willet; recitation, Miss Gunderson; address, Fred. Olsen; recitation, Miss Hurrell; recitation, Frank Wilburg; recitation, Ed. Thompson; reading, Mr. Schroeder; song, Miss S. Johnson.

CAPT. CARLSON'S DEATH.

The remains of the late Capt. Carlson, who died at Seattle yesterday, will leave there for Astoria this morning, at 9 o'clock, and will arrive here on Thursday morning. Capt. J. W. Brown went to Kalama today to meet the body and accompany it down. A notice to the Masters' and Pilots' Association of the time and place of the funeral can be found elsewhere in today's issue.

The death of Capt. Carlson is certainly a sad and sudden affliction to his bereaved family.

GOOD CATCHES.

The Neah Bay Indians have had great luck seal fishing this year. The Clallam Bay Record says that during the spell of unusually fine weather of two weeks ago, while the sealing fleet of 11 schooners lay at anchor in Neah Bay, a school of thousands of seals appeared off the cape and flocked into the streams, and even into the midst of the sealing fleet. Then the sealers had a picnic and the catch began, which lasted from five to seven days. The largest catch was made by the Ametour—431 skins, which netted the vessel $6,000. All of the vessels made good catches, and at least $30,000 worth of skins were taken.

When you feel that you want a good smoke, go to Charles Olsen's, 527 Third street. He keeps the Belmont, Ideal, American, Geronimo, Schiller in Caballero size, San Edwin, Reina Luisa, Flor de Stanford, Hoffman House, Upmans, La Corona, Pride of Key West and all the latest brands of 5 and 10 cent cigars in the market, and the best stock of pipes, tobacco and smokers' articles in the city.

WILL SOON DEPART.

The Rev. J. W. Dorrance, who has been preaching in this city every Sunday and Wednesday during the past four weeks, will preach tonight, at 7:30, in the First Presbyterian church. The subject will be: "Jesus of Nazareth Passeth By." On Thursday he will go to Ilwaco, Wash., to preach there in the evening at 7:30, and will return on Friday. After holding communion services in Astoria next Sunday morning, April 29, and preaching in the evening, Mr. Dorrance informs us that he will leave on Monday for his home in Snohomish City, Wash., where he has lived for the past three and one-half years.

Petite photographs, $1 per dozen, at Crow's gallery, 623 Third street.

For a delicious plate of pure ice cream, go to C. B. Smith, the Ice Cream Dealer, Ice Cream Soda a specialty. Private parlors for ladies. 483 Third street.

Japanese novelties and fancy dry goods, can be had at half price, at the store of Wing Lee, next to Olsen's cigar store.

DOWN TO TWO DOLLARS.

Up to two years ago the Fishermen's Union had quite a salaried list among its officers, but they are running the union now on business principles, cutting down expenses here, trimming off an expenditure there, until at present they are spending very little money compared with the times when they had a president and treasurer drawing $75 a month. Sofus Jensen, the secretary, is the only salaried officer now, and when one thinks of the number of members he has to look after, they concede the point that Mr. Jensen earns every cent he gets. The union intends reducing the membership fee to $2 at the next meeting, and it is expected that before the season is over every gill-net fisherman on the river will be a member in good standing.

PERSONAL.

August Takalo, of Knappa, called at The Astorian office yesterday.

Hon. E. L. Dwyer, of Flavel, is expected to arrive in Astoria this morning. He may bring important railroad news.

Capt. Archie E. Cann, of the lightship, has returned from Portland with his family. Capt. Cann went aboard the ship yesterday.
