

AROUND TOWN.

Take the Shasta route to the San Francisco fair. Talk about women being flighty—look at the bank cashiers.

The spring violets are modest, but use a great deal of perfume.

Horses are no go in the Astoria market now, though money will make the mare go.

If business keeps up, our funeral director can soon snap his fingers at the "strangency."

The American bark Portland Lloyd arrived in port yesterday, 151 days out from New York.

The little child of Jeff Crandell, who has been dangerously ill, is now in a fair way to recovery.

"Uncle Tom's Cabin" for the matinee next Saturday. Prices, 10c for school children under 12; adults, 25c.

The Street Railway Company is running only three cars at present, while the others are undergoing repairs.

The live and wide-awake merchant displays his banner in the columns of the live and wide-awake newspaper.

Has there ever been a fire in Astoria at which the big, clumsy hook and ladder truck was used to an advantage?

An $50 lot for $2. Fresh fish and poultry at Welcome's Market, next to Ford & Stokes.

Meany is the leading tailor and pays the highest cash price for fur skins.

The drawing of Hill's lot club was as follows: Martin Fredrickson, lot 24, block 30; Andrew Applegreen, lot 26, block 30.

Should ministers of one denomination "roast" those of another denomination? Don't they all profess to believe in the same God?

For $2, a lot is delivered every week to the buyer in Hill's First addition.

The story of "Uncle Tom's Cabin" is said to have caused the late civil war.

An eel can live out of water for 18 days, and some of the politicians of Salem can go without the same element for a life-time.

It is just like Astoria to have only one citizen by the name of Hope, but if we don't get our railroad there will be a good many called Dennis.

Hill's First addition is located in the center of the city. Lots are now selling in it for $2.

Teething babies and feverish children need St-e-d-man's Soothing Powders. Try them.

Only a few more days left to secure a fine, $10, Crayon Portrait by ordering one dozen cabinets, at Crow's Gallery.

An Astoria man sent 50 cents to find out "how to make your trousers last," and received this valuable suggestion: "Make your coat and vest first."

Mr. A. R. Kanaga, with his family, arrived home from an extended trip to Honolulu yesterday. He is looking well and seems to have enjoyed the trip.

House packed nightly for "Uncle Tom's Cabin."

Petite photographs, $1 per dozen, at Crow's gallery, 538 Third street.

For a delicious plate of pure ice cream, go to C. B. Smith, the Ice Cream Dealer, Ice Cream Soda a specialty. Private parlors for ladies, 483 Third street.

There are so many cases of cold in the city that quinine and whiskey have taken the place of buckwheat cakes and sausage on some of the tables in town.

A little girl of the Cedar street school had a fainting spell yesterday at noon, caused by excessive running. She was revived by the teacher, and afterwards taken home by her father.

H. Ekstrom has fixed his prices for jewelry to suit the times, and the latest novelties can be secured at the cost of material used in the manufacture.

E. Alma Stutz as "Topsy" is simply immense.

A trip through the Rogue River valley and the climb over the mountains by the Shasta line to San Francisco at this season of the year is one of the most delightful trips that can be imagined.

The North Pacific brewery is running right along, but its general proprietor, Mr. John Kopp, is missed about the plant. Mr. Kopp is still confined to his home with rheumatism, and like all active business men, he is chafing under the restraint.

There is no risk taken by joining Hill's lot clubs. Everybody gets the full value of their money.

Don't go to Portland to buy your tickets for the "Old Country" and the East when you can get them for the same price at the Union Pacific office in this city, and thereby save your local fare to Portland.

Secure seats early for "Uncle Tom's Cabin" tonight.

Some people keep their money in their pockets, some people keep their money in their stockings and some people don't keep it at all. There was an old fisherman in this city not many years ago who had a most unique place to keep his money. A search around his house would prove futile until you were wise enough to reach up to a cupboard and take down a stone jar, which looked like it was filled with fish-hooks, sinkers and other trash, and dump the whole on a table, and there you would find enough coin to celebrate any event in your own way for several weeks.

When you feel that you want a good smoke, go to Charles Olson's, 527 Third street. He keeps the Belmont, Ideal, American, Corona, Schiller in Caballero size, Sir Edwin, Reina, Lada, Flor de Stanford, Hoffman House, Upmans, La Corona, Pride of Key West and all the latest brands of 5 and 10 cent cigars in the market, and the best stock of pipes, tobacco and smokers' articles in the city.

IMPROVEMENTS.

The Astoria box factory is making a new dock and tearing down the old buildings on the White Star property. They report their business with the salmon canneries rather slow for this time of the year.

IMPROVING.

George McLean, who has been in Portland the last two weeks under the care of Dr. Nichols is getting along nicely, after having three operations performed on him for the removal of a tumor. He is expected home soon.

HUSTLING FOR OFFICE.

Eye, in search of a fig tree, didn't hustle much faster than the politicians are doing now for votes in Uppertown. They come in person, they send their friends and they deluge the media with circulars, all in search of the coy and will-o'-the-wisp-like vote.

REPAINTED.

Mr. J. H. Lang, the worthy book-keeper for the J. O. Hawthorn cannery, is having the gasoline launch "The Star" repainted and her machinery fixed up in good shape, so that she will plow the water as graceful as a skirt dancer and look quite as pretty.

A GOOD BLOWER.

Cherubim—I guess that man who said he was the boss fisherman from Astoria is all right.

St. Peter—Have you discovered anything?

Cherubim—Yes; he has worn out two horns in three days.

AH! THERE!

As Pat O'Hara's saw goes a-ripping and buzzing through a bone, pushed by his good right arm, he says to himself: "Ah, Patsy, me boy, if you could run for the shirevalty at this rate, we would give it to the other boys where the ladies wear their beads—in the neck."

A PLEASANT PARTY.

There was a very pleasant gathering at the residence of Mrs. D. Curran on Tuesday evening, the occasion being a surprise and birthday party to Howard Pinnell, it being his 21st birthday. Cards, games, etc., were indulged in until a late hour, when the party dispersed, having had an enjoyable time.

OVERCROWDED.

The Uppertown school will close for the vacation in seven weeks. It is to be hoped that the second-story rooms in this elegant building will be finished before school opens for the fall term. The rooms used now are overcrowded, and while there are but three teachers in the building now, there is really work for four.

TRADE GOOD, COLLECTIONS FAIR. Every rose has its barbed wire fence. Mr. Schofield, the Uppertown merchant, says that while business is good, collections are very poor. There is no doubt that as soon as the fishermen have squared up the advances made them by the cannerymen, collections will take a turn, and the merchants' bank accounts will swell to their normal proportions.

THINGS ARE JUMPING.

The Clatsop Mill Company will have its new box factory in operation soon. The 100-horse power engine, which was ordered some time ago, is expected tomorrow, and will, with all the other machinery, be set up by Mr. Doughart, a millwright from Salem. Mr. Kinney must surely be looking for a good trade, as he has advertised for over $35,000 worth of logs.

A NEAT WORKROOM.

William Kearns, engineer at the powerhouse of the Street Railway company, seems to have taken it for granted that spring is here, for he has painted up the engine bed and dynamo a bright yellow color, which would rival the yellow of an Easter egg. He has also placed oilcloth on the floor, making the room a place of beauty. Some engineers are negligent in keeping their surroundings neat, but it is not the case with Mr. Kearns.

SALMON IN ENGLAND.

The American Grocer of the 18th last, says: "Recent heavy arrivals at Liverpool and the offering of 5,000 cases of good Frazer river fish at auction caused a break in prices in England. The prices obtained at the public sale ranged from 17s 9d to 18s 3d per case, the average being under 18s. The purchasers were mostly London dealers. Red Alaska is offered at 17s per case at Liverpool, and Skeena river at 17s 6d. Any pressure to sell would probably cause a further decline."

DON'T HAPPEN OFTEN.

One of our Third street housekeepers made it a point to interview her milkman Sunday morning, to see what had happened at his dairy during the past week. "For three days now," she explained to him, "I have found a thin, yellow scum on your milk, after having set it away for eight or ten hours. What is it?" After collecting himself, he acknowledged that the "scum," as she called it, was cream, but he would take more pains with his milk in the future and see that it did not happen again, for he might lose caste with some of the other milkmen.

LOSSES BY POSTAL NOTES. It may not be generally known to Astoria people who send money in the mail by postal note that the people of this country are out of pocket $600,000 on the postal note experiment. That is to say, the difference between the postal notes sold by the government and those redeemed from holders amounts in ten years to this enormous sum. A postal note lost is as surely gone as coin dropped through a hole in the pocket. There is no such thing as going to the postoffice and getting a duplicate order.

Japanese novelties and fancy dry goods, can be had at half price, at the store of Wing Lee, next to Olsen's cigar store.

GARDEN CULTURE. It has been said that one should be aware of a home in which there are no canary birds or potted plants, as it would be difficult to find a warm heart within.

There must be some warm hearts in the dwelling opposite the beautiful residence of Ben Young, for in the yard belonging to the house are the most beautiful flower beds yet seen in Astoria. Some one told a passer by that Wm. Young lived in the house. If so, Mr. Young ought to be proud of his horticultural display.

A six-horse power upright engine and boiler, almost new, for sale cheap. For particulars apply at this office.

UNEXPLAINABLE. It is said that a prominent lodge man, and "jiner" generally, has had a left hind foot of a rabbit that was killed in a grave yard by the dark of the moon, presented him by a delegate to the late Democratic convention, "for luck." He put the talisman in his trousers pocket, and wended his way homeward. Early the next morning he was aroused by a scream in his room, and awoke to find his wife dancing around in the dim light of the lamp and waving his trousers like a Chinaman shaking a tablecloth. He sprang out of bed and inquired the reason of her gymnastic contortions. "Oh!" she yelled, swinging the trousers around so forcibly as to knock a picture off the wall, "there's a mouse in your pants' pocket." He proved, by showing her the rabbit's foot, that she was wrong, and in the next moment, as the thought struck him, he yelled: "I'd like to know how in thunder you happened to run your hand in that pocket so early in the morning?" (Curtain.)

WHAT POLITICS WILL DO. "Our little Paddy has begun Exceedingly good to be; All chores he used to shun, But now he goes to three."
