A brand new candy stand has started on Third street.

The Oklahoma towed the bark Portland up the river yesterday.

The Union Pacific steamer State of California arrived from San Francisco yesterday.

The steamer Protection cleared for San Francisco last night with a cargo of lumber.

John Stuart Hitchen is mourning because Mr. Rudyard Kipling, his favorite poet, has gone back to England with a "tummy" ache.

Today, April 27, will be fittingly commemorated in many sections of the country as the anniversary of the "old commander's" birthday.

The energetic individuals who have been shaking the Detroit railroad capitalist bean around in a quart can, seem to have lost their grip.

Capt. William Whitcomb, of the steamer Cascades, has bought a lot at Ilwaco, and is going to build a house there for himself and family.

House packed nightly for "Uncle Tom's Cabin."

Petite photographs, $1 per dozen, at Crow's gallery, 638 Third street.

For a delicious plate of pure ice cream, go to C. B. Smith, the Ice Cream Dealer, Ice Cream Soda a specialty. Private parlors for ladies, 433 Third street.

Last night was the regular weekly meeting of the Young Men's Institute, but on account of the inclement weather, but few of the members came around.

Nearly all the drug stores in the city are displaying prominently in their show windows a good stock of insect powder. One druggist has also a few fine-toothed combs scattered in among the powder, which is rather suggestive.

Hill's First addition is located in the corner of the city. Lots are now selling in it for $2.

Feetling babies and feverish children need Stearns' Soothing Powders. Try them.

Only a few more days left to secure a fine, $10, Crayon Portrait by ordering one dozen cabinets, at Crow's Gallery.

One girl has already committed suicide in this country because she could not marry a football player. If this deadly game is to carry off both our young men and our young women, whither shall we drift, and "where shall we be at?"

Pat O'Hara is standing daily, with his hands shading his eyes, peering towards the southeast, wondering if that little fusion cloud, the size of a man's hand, will really turn out to be a sheriff's boom that will land his name on the Democratic ticket.

For $2, a lot is delivered every week to the buyer in Hill's First addition.

The story of "Uncle Tom's Cabin" is said to have caused the late civil war. "Uncle Tom's Cabin" for the matinee next Saturday. Prices, 10c for school children under 12; adults, 25c.

A new game has been introduced over at Ilwaco. The way the game goes is this: Six girls stand in a line, and one of them takes a bite off an onion. Each young man in the company then pays ten cents to guess which girl bit the onion. If he guesses right he has the privilege of kissing the other five, but if wrong has to kiss the girl who bit the vegetable.

H. Ekstrom has fixed his prices for jewelry to suit the times, and the latest novelties can be secured at the cost of material in the manufacture.

E. Alma Stutz as "Topsy" is simply immense.

The London letter carrier does not have to pay for his outfit. That is furnished by the government. When he is sick his pay goes right along, and he is taken care of and his doctor's bill is paid by the government without taking it out of his salary. After he has served 25 years he is retired and he gets a pension. This is in London—not Astoria.

Japanese novelties and fancy dry goods, can be had at half price, at the store of Wing Lee, next to Olsen's cigar store.

A six-horse power upright engine and boiler, almost new, for sale cheap. For particulars apply at this office.

A certain confectioner remarked, as he gazed at the large stock of vegetables in front of Allen's grocery, that the season of greens always runs until the middle of May in Astoria, and consequently the ice cream season will not be formally inaugurated until the middle of next month, when it will open with a boom that can be heard clear to Cathlamet.

There is no risk taken by joining Hill's lot clubs. Everybody gets the full value of their money.

Don't go to Portland to buy your tickets for the "Old Country" and the East when you can get them for the same price at the Union Pacific office in this city, and thereby save your local fare to Portland.

Secure seats early for "Uncle Tom's Cabin."

The vulgar curiosity of the average American is a matter of record, and it was never more strikingly exemplified than at our city undertaker's a few days ago, when a coffin was opened to allow some friends to gaze upon the face of one they had known and loved in life. The crowd which had congregated, as if by magic, jolted and crowded the mourners to get near the coffin. They were all men—men who did not know the deceased, and had no business where they were. They made a disgusting exhibition of themselves, merely to gratify a morbid curiosity.

When you feel that you want a good smoke, go to Charles Olsen's, 527 Third street. He keeps the Belmont, Ideal, American, Corona, Schiller in Cabbleros size, Sir Edwin, Reina Luisa, Flor de Stanford, Hoffman House, Upmans, La Corona, Pride of Key West and all the latest brands of 5 and 10 cent cigars in the market, and the best stock of pipes, tobacco and smokers' articles in the city.

FUNERAL OF CAPT. CARLSON.

The funeral of Capt. Charles Carlson took place yesterday afternoon from Grace Episcopal Church under the auspices of the Columbia Harbor Masters' and Pilots' Association and the lodges of the A. O. U. W. The simple services of the church were read over the dead, after which the body was taken to Greenwood cemetery and laid to rest. Among the floral offerings was a beautiful ship presented by the Harbor.

STRUCK BY A SQUALL.

Tuesday afternoon, about 5 o'clock, a squall capsized John Olsen's boat while he was fishing near Testimony Rock, throwing him into the river. He succeeded in reaching the overturned boat, and clung to it until taken off by Emil Erickson, who very fortunately was in his boat near by when the accident occurred. Olsen's net was picked up by Andrew Skulsen, so that beyond a severe ducking and the loss of a few small articles that were in the boat, the accident caused no serious results.

WEDDING BELLS.

Rev. P. Steen and Miss Martha Olsen were united in wedlock by Rev. N. J. Ellstad, at Bethania church, on the 25th instant.

The bridesmaids were the Misses Hannah Hansen, Lena Hess, Annie Gundersen, Hilda Lund, Annie Venas and Bentine Syvertsen, and the groomsmen were Messrs. Edward Braekhus, B. Lee, T. Kundson, A. Lilienos, O. Estost and H. Tokstad.

A reception was tendered the happy couple, after the ceremony, in the basement of the church, and they received many valuable presents.

ENORMOUS TRAFFIC.

J. B. Benton, an official of the Metropolitan street railway of New York, says that last year the elevated roads of that city carried 8,000,000 more people than during the previous year. The figures for 1892 were 213,000,000, against 221,000,000 in 1893. Twenty new engines were ordered during the year, and the number of passenger coaches employed is 1,116—75 new ones having been placed in service during the past few months. Over 200,000 tons of the best white ash anthracite coal is consumed per year, and 3,800 trains are run every day. The employees number 5,000, and all of them are paid by the hour, with 12 hours as the longest time any man is required to work per day on the road. The maximum pay is $3.50 per day, while engineers earn $100 per month.

WASTEFULNESS.

This is a fault which cannot be too early corrected in children, for it is apt to grow with time. They should be taught to use just as much of a thing as they need and no more, and that the remainder should be put away for future use and not utterly destroyed. They should also be taught that it is wrong to waste anything, and that if they themselves are unable to utilize something, some one or some thing else might be, and that the opportunity at least should be given them by not destroying it. This applies to small as well as to greater things, for the principle is the same, and every thing has some value to something; and besides, if wastefulness is practiced in larger things and once the habit is formed it is very hard to break it, and too often those who can ill afford it practice it to the impoverishment of themselves and others. "Waste not, want not" is a good maxim for all to follow.—Missouri Record.

KEEP UP WITH THE TIMES.

Don't cling to the imperfect things. Do not use cereal foods on your breakfast table? Then you need cream. Borden's Peerless Brand Evaporated Cream is decidedly superior in richness and flavor to ordinary milk or cream.

THE FOOTBALL CLUB.

Arrangements Being Made for the Opening of the Season.

A committee of the Football club and a representative of the Motor Line Company made a thorough inspection of the line from Smith's Point to Kinney's cannery yesterday, and it is hoped that some arrangement can be arrived at whereby the track can be repaired, it now being in a bad condition, several slides having occurred during the winter. The Football club is very anxious to get the program for the year started as quickly as possible, they already having made a match with the Union Pacific Railroad Football club for Decoration Day, when a large excursion is expected to accompany their team down from Portland and help carry them to victory (or defeat).

The Astoria team is strengthened by the return of Bartholomew, and should easily win this match. If the boys will practice hard at team work, with plenty of pressing, and obey orders, it is certain that at the close of the season the number of victories will have made up for last year's defeats. The make-up of the team is understood to be as follows: Right—Bell and Ridehalgh. Left—Higgins and Gibson. Centre—Bartholomew. Half-backs—Rathorn, Tallant and Grant. Full-backs—Smith and Astbury. Goal—Wright.

If this team is kept throughout the season it will be a hard one to beat, and it is hoped the players, one and all, will interest themselves sufficiently to get out and practice often. They cannot begin too soon, and the sooner the better.

ODD FELLOWS' ENTERTAINMENT.

A Fine Program and a Delightful Audience Last Evening.

Beaver lodge, No. 35, I. O. O. F., celebrated the 75th anniversary of the order in America last evening at their hall in this city, and notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, the beautiful hall was filled with members of the order, their families and many invited friends. THE NURSE'S DELIGHT.

Every experienced nurse knows the value of a remedy which, without being an anodyne, will relieve soreness of the limbs or stiffness of the joints, and enable a patient to sleep quietly and naturally.

Just such a remedy are Allecock's Porous Plasters. Placed on the chest or on the back, if necessary cut into strips and placed over the muscles of the limbs, they work marvels in the way of soothing and quieting restlessness. Being perfectly simple and harmless in their composition, they can be used freely, and many a sufferer has thanked them for a night of quiet rest, grateful both to him and those who care for him.

Brandreth's Pills do not weaken the bowels.

All the patent medicines advertised in this paper, together with the choicest perfumery, and toilet articles, etc., can be bought at the lowest prices at J. W. Conn's drug store, opposite Occident Hotel, Astoria.

THE advantages of a bank account are numerous. It is not to business men we are talking—they know all about it—but to salaried men and women. There's safety—if the bank is a good one. There's convenience—the money always ready and always out of harm's way, out of the reach of your own petty squandering. It is easy to spend small sums when you have a large sum in your pocket.
