

AROUND TOWN.

A professional rain-maker would be on the county if he settled in this part of the country.

An Astorian, who has been married less than two years, has established a record for milking a cow in three minutes.

Sheriff Smith again postponed the sale of the Astoria and Portland railroad from yesterday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, to Saturday, May 5.

Chief Foster has issued an order to the drivers of the fire department horses not to drive them faster than a slow trot while exercising on the streets.

A fashion item that is particularly pertinent at this season reads: "Fine feathers do not make fine birds, but they can be depended on for a bill, at least."

An $80 lot for $2. Fresh fish and poultry at Welcome's Market, next to Foard & Stokes.

Meany is the leading tailor and pays the highest cash price for fur skins. Hill's First addition is located in the center of the city. Lots are now selling in it for $3.

As long as the Salem Independent continues to shine, the world will not be permitted to forget that when it comes to hops Marlon county stands right up at the head of the class.

"The Octoroon" will be given by the Stutz Company tonight for the first time. It is a pathetic story of southern life, and a good sprinkling of comedy, and will no doubt prove as great a success as "Uncle Tom's Cabin" has.

Teething babies and feverish children need St-e-dman's Soothing Powders. Try them.

RAILROAD NEWS.

By our dispatches it will be seen that General Manager Dickinson and General Superintendent Baxter, of the U. P. R. R., are in Oregon on their way to Portland, perhaps Astoria.

HOLDING ON.

Some of the country voters who were in yesterday express surprise that the Populist candidate for sheriff still retains his position as one of the maids-of-honor in the Democratic club.

OFF NEXT WEEK.

Capt. Gregory says the United States steamer Manzanita will leave May 4 for Destruction Island. She is now being painted and cleaned, and a new steering gear will be put in by the Astoria Iron Works.

OF NEIGHBORHOOD INTEREST.

A boom can be made out by the naked eye down at Hare, and the neighbors have left off stump-pulling to talk of Mr. Moody's cow, which came home on Thursday with a fine pair of twin calves.

A TEST.

When the parishioners of Grace church attend service this morning they can surely tell whether the bell-tower has been securely shingled in or not, for if not, the driving rains of yesterday will have dampened the porch walls as of yore.

THE LAST FOR APRIL.

Unless there is a rush on Monday, Will Hobson will have taken out the last marriage license in the month of April. It was issued by Clerk Trenchard yesterday, and made out in favor of Wm. H. Hobson and Clara Parker Johnson.

SEEKING A LOCATION.

A man by the name of Holm is in the city looking over the ground with a view of locating a laundry here. He states that he has $2,500 worth of machinery, and if he was sure of enough patronage he would not hesitate to start in Astoria with 15 to 20 employees.

FOUND THEM THE BEST.

This is to certify that I have used Krause's Headache Capsules periodically for over a year, and have very much pleasure in stating that they have always proved very beneficial and have relieved me in from ten to fifteen minutes. I have been a sufferer from headache for many years, and have never found anything to do me as much good as Krause's Headache Capsules.

ADJOURNED SINE DIE

A Good Platform Adopted With Enthusiasm.

FULL COUNTY TICKET NAMED

The Work Well and Harmoniously Done-The Ticket a Strong One.

The Clatsop county Republican convention met, pursuant to previous adjournment from the 24 inst., at the McKinley club room, and after being called to order by Chairman W. F. McGregor, immediately adjourned to Fisher's hall.

The committee on order of business reported the following order of nominations, which was agreed to, viz.: State senator, representative, clerk, sheriff, treasurer, recorder, county judge, county commissioner, assessor, superintendent of schools, surveyor.

The committee on platform then submitted the following declaration of principles, which was unanimously adopted, amid much enthusiasm:

First—That while we deplore the industrial and business stagnation that now exists and since the placing of the reins of government in the hands of the Democratic party, has prevailed throughout the land, bringing distress and suffering upon our working people, prostrating our industries, and causing commercial and business failures and bankruptcies, to an extent never before experienced or even approached in the history of the nation, we feel that we do but voice the sentiment of the nation in charging the Democratic party with the sole responsibility for this unfortunate condition, produced by its avowed hostility to and untiring assaults upon that policy of protection to American labor and American products for which the Republican party has ever contended, and the adoption of which, during over thirty years of Republican rule, developed the resources and stimulated the industries of the nation and blessed its laboring, producing and commercial classes with a prosperity unapproached in all the history of the world.

While a justifiable pride in the history and achievements of our party will ever abide with us, we are actuated by but one purpose, and that is to secure a return of that prosperity we have ever enjoyed in the past under Republican rule.

We have no unkind words for those who have opposed us in the past, but earnestly believing in the principles and policies of our party, and that the adoption thereof by the government is the only means of giving renewed life to our expiring industries and starting again in motion the wheels of trade and commerce, giving employment to our laborers, a market to our producers and prosperity to all.

We call upon every citizen, irrespective of former political associations, to unite with us for protection, reciprocity and prosperity.

Second—We indorse the platform adopted by the Republican state convention of this state at Portland, April 11, 1894.

Third—We favor the construction of good roads and highways throughout the county, and that they be kept in such condition that our farmers may have secure and easy access to our local markets, to the end that they may supply our people with the products of the farm that we are now so largely importing.

After which the convention adjourned until 12:30, when a caucus was held, lasting until 4 p. m. Thereupon the convention re-assembled, and the following full county ticket was nominated: State Senator—John Fox. Representatives—C. J. Curtis and C. F. Lester.

County Clerk—F. I. Dunbar. Sheriff—James W. Hare. Treasurer—Benjamin L. Ward. Recorder—C. S. Gunderson. County Judge—J. H. D. Gray. County Commissioner—Chris. Peterson. County Assessor—Alfred Gibbons. Superintendent of Schools—C. C. Brower. County Surveyor—Richard Harry. Coroner—Adolph Johnson.

The following precinct nominations were made and indorsed by the convention: Astoria precinct—Justice, J. Abercrombie; constable, W. Welch. Knappa—George Abernethy, justice; D. K. Sutherland, constable. Fishhawk—Wm. Medley, justice; N. E. Foster, constable. Bear Creek—C. W. Hamblin, justice; M. A. Riddle, Jr., constable. Lewis and Clarke—Wm. Larsen, justice; C. W. Rich, constable. Clatsop—C. W. Carnahan, justice; Arthur Rayles, constable. Young's River—A. E. McMillen, justice; Thomas Henderson, constable. Seaside—F. H. Lighton, justice; B. K. Stanley, constable.

Mishawaka—J. J. Lynch, justice; A. A. Anderson, constable. Vesper—T. J. Brown, justice; John Lindberg, constable. North Fork—M. Buchanan, justice; Alex. Beaver, constable. Elsie—James Gallagher, justice; M. O. Jacobson, constable.

After the nominations were finished, C. J. Curtis, candidate for representative, was called for and made a few brief remarks. He was followed by C. F. Lester, candidate for representative, after which the convention adjourned.

The ticket is considered to be one of the strongest ever nominated by the Republicans in the county, and its election is generally conceded.

GARDEN CULTURE.

It has been said that one should be aware of a home in which there are no canary birds or potted plants, as it would be difficult to find a warm heart within.

There must be some warm hearts in the dwelling opposite the beautiful residence of Ben Young, for in the yard belonging to the house are the most beautiful flower beds yet seen in Astoria.

Some one told a passer by that Wm. Young lived in the house. If so, Mr. Young ought to be proud of his horticultural display.—Wednesday's Astorian.

The party who informed the reporter that this beautiful yard belonged to Wm. Young was mistaken. It is at the home of Capt. Wm. Starr, and a resident of Uppertown states that the whole ward is as proud of it as Capt. Starr.

THE RESCUE CLUB.

A crowded house greeted the exceptionally fine program of last evening. President Estes was in the chair, and Miss Frances Holder presided at the piano.

The program was as follows: Selection, Mandolin club; song, Rev. W. H. B. Bain; guitar and banjo duet, Messrs. Vivian and Bain; "Cackle Song," Prof. Spencer; piano solo, Prof. Schwabe; Chinese song, "One Lung," Beveridge; recitation, Fay Leberman; guitar duet, Messrs. Vivian and Bain; vocal duet, Misses Holden; piano solo, Miss Fletcher; recitation, Terry McKean; cornet solo, J. C. Swope; selection, Mandolin club.

A CARD.

Astoria, April 28, 1894. Editor Astorian: I noticed in this morning's Astorian an item headed "A Kick for More Beer," signed by "Thirsty William," and in reply I would like to say that "Thirsty William" must be very poorly posted on matters of fact, as I can convince him every time he throws up a nickel that, right here in Astoria, at the Mug Beer Hall, opposite the Parker house, he can get the biggest glass of beer that was ever introduced on the Pacific Coast, and any other man that is acquainted can tell him the same. HERMAN GRIMM.

OPPORTUNITY.

If people recognized Opportunity as he stood before them and embraced him, the goal of their ambition would soon be reached. It is said Opportunity has wings upon his feet with which to fly, and once gone cannot be overtaken—a figure of speech that illustrates the observation of many. Suppose you, reader, take the Opportunity offered you by Shanahan Brothers to secure for yourself goods at prices that show the prices were made to make sure of quick getting rid of the goods.

ABSOLUTE MERIT.

No other plaster has been produced which gains so many testimonials of high value as those continuously accorded to Allcock's Porous Plaster, and the only motive for these exceptional commendations is the fact that it is a medicinal and pharmaceutical preparation of superior value. Beware of imitations. Ask for and insist upon Allcock's. Brandreth's Pills are a good corrective.
