THE advantages of a bank account are numerous. It is not to business men we are talking—they know all about it—but to salaried men and women. There's a safety—if the bank is a good one. There's convenience—the money always ready and always out of harm's way, out of the reach of your own petty squandering.

We open accounts in our Savings Department for as small an amount as $1, and pay you interest. We will be glad to send our last statement if you care to see it.

And yet lives in ignorance of the fact that a single application of the CUTICURA REMEDIES, will, in the majority of cases, afford instant relief, permit rest and sleep and point to a speedy, permanent, and economical cure, when the best physicians and all other remedies fail.

AROUND TOWN.

"The Octofoon" by the Stutz company, is drawing good houses, and will be continued until further notice.

This being the 1st of the month, there will be a number who, when asked to foot a bill, will do it with a good deal of "kicking."

What a commissioner of public roads and highways Coxe would make! Who is there that could give a more comprehensive report upon the condition of country roads?

Miss Nellie Fletcher entertained a number of her friends at the home of Mrs. M. J. Weatherford last evening. The hours passed pleasantly with whist playing, music and refreshments.

The entertainment to be given May 4 by the Ys and library promises to be unusually entertaining. The especially interesting feature will be the lady minstrels. Although the times are hard, don't stay away and afterwards wish you had gone.

O. C. Vejen was a delegate to the Democratic convention, and so took a day off. He would have taken it anyhow, as he was 22 years old yesterday, and wanted to call on all his friends, and they could congratulate him for being a Democrat so long, and at the same time escaping from the wrath to come.

An $80 lot for $2. Fresh fish and poultry at Welcome's Market, next to Ford & Stokes.

Meany is the leading tailor and pays the highest cash price for fur skins. Hill's First addition is located in the center of the city. Lots are now selling in it for $2.

The Soda Springs on old Shasta's slope, between Portland and San Francisco, is one of the most entrancing and remarkable curiosities to be found in America. With its proverbial accommodation, the railroad company allows a sufficient stop with all trains to enable passengers to alight, view the scenery and quaff their fill of the exhilarating and life-giving water.

Teething babies and feverish children need Stee-dman's Soothing Powders. Try them.

Only a few more days left to secure a fine $10. Crayon Portrait by ordering one dozen cabinets, at Crow's Gallery. Petite photographs, $1 per dozen, at Crow's gallery, 523 Third street.

The law should be so amended that taxpayers might have one year in which to pay their taxes, provided they paid interest, or some fixed charge upon all deferred payments. Under this plan money would come into the treasury in a steady and continuous stream, and the sudden demand for, and the locking up of vast sums of money, as at present, would be obviated.—Portland Chronicle.

For a delicious plate of pure ice cream, go to C. B. Smith, the Ice Cream Dealer, Ice Cream Soda a specialty. Private parlors for ladies. 483 Third street.

For $2, a lot is delivered every week to the buyer in Hill's First addition. H. Eskrom has fixed his prices for jewelry to suit the times, and the latest novelties can be secured at the cost of material used in the manufacture.

A blind man was offered a pair of socks by one of our merchants last week, but he refused them because they were not all wool.

BOTH BROKE. Saturday night the wine-opening bloods of the city were out to all the late dances, breaking hearts, and going home broke themselves.

DOCTORS MOVING. Dr. Jay Tuttle has removed his office back to his old quarters in the Pythian Building, while the Doctors Fulton are now occupying quarters over A. V. Allen's grocery.

THE MOSSBACK, TOO. It may not be long before the whistle of the iron horse will startle the funny denizens of the broad Columbia in front of Astoria's doors.—Astorian.

And we hope also the mossy denizens on the broad Columbia's banks. Shake again!—Statesman.

LICENSE GRANTED. Besides taking in the fines assessed one "scrapper" and one "cusser," Judge Osburn also added four hundred dollars more to the city treasury by issuing license No. 664 to Peter Dourel which allows Peter to dispense soft hardware by the glass or bottle for one year.

COMMENCING MAY 1. The steamer Lulline will leave Portland for Astoria Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday at 2 p. m., and Saturday at 10 p. m. Returning, leave Astoria Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday at 9 p. m. and Sunday at 5 p. m.

TUMBLING DOWN. The Old Pinner saloon building, on the switch near Booth's cannery, which has seen many of its visitors grow weak in the legs, got weary itself yesterday afternoon and fell down, a total wreck. The building is owned by Rudolph Barth, and was unoccupied.

CLEANED OUT. W. N. Smith has had a force of men engaged for several days giving the water works reservoir a thorough spring cleaning, and as this is a city institution there will be no need of any one drinking anything stronger than pure, clean water from this time on.

NEARLY POISONED. Guisic Wirt, son of John Wirt, was sent for some rat poison yesterday by his parents, and coming home he placed it in his pocket with a lot of candy. In some way he ate a part of the poison with the candy, not enough to result fatally, but sufficient to make him deathly ill, and to frighten his parents and make them more cautious in sending children for rat poison in the future.

WRECKED. With the wind blowing at the rate of 60 miles an hour, it is not to be wondered that Kinney's pile-driver broke adrift at the head of Sand Island Saturday night during the gale, her house and machinery rolling off and the screw going ashore.

A PLAIN DRUNK. M. O'Donnell had been drinking when the police ran him in, and though he declared he hadn't, all the cloves, coffee, cardroom seed and lard in the city could not hide the smell, for he was drunk clear through. Judge Osburn assessed him $5 in the city court yesterday for his fun.

TO THE YS. Young ladies, during your minstrel performance on the fourth, we trust no allusion of any kind will be made that savors of railroad. A jest or gag upon this subject would be too much. Indulge in personalities, hit the weak spots of our young men, if you must, but spare the road.

FISHERMAN'S LUCK. Antone Amundson's boat crew, as well as those of three others, were not out on the Columbia yesterday. The Washington fish commissioner swooped down on them for illegal fishing on Sunday and took them over on the other side of the creek for trial. The fine may run from $50 to $200.

LANDLORD FISHER. F. A. Fisher, or Landlord Fisher, if you please, for he has purchased all the contents of the Grimes Hotel, Seaside, including two horses and four wagons, from the administrator. The deal was consummated yesterday, and now Mr. Fisher is scratching his head and wondering who he will get to run it.

AN ELECTRIC DOCTOR'S JOB. An Ilwaco man has a new form of delirium tremens. He was once shocked by a live electric wire, and now that he is afflicted he makes frantic efforts to get away from live wires, which he imagines are writhing and spluttering all around him. He must have wandered over to Cathlamet and imbibed some of the justly celebrated Cathlamet lightning.

MUSICAL TREAT. There will be given a musical at the Congregational church, under the auspices of the Choral Society. The program will consist of several choruses rendered by the Choral Society, selections by part of Prof. Thell's guitar class, solos and duets by some of the best talent in the city. This musical will be given in the church Thursday evening, May 2. Admission, 25 cents.

JOHN'S WAY. The humors of wealth are illustrated, the Kansas City Star says, in the case of Bob Fitzsimmons, who wishes to dispute the championship of the pugilistic world with Corbett, and yet has sued a railroad for $10,000 damages, because a brakeman struck him. What a difference between the Australian and the American system. John Sullivan would have turned in, kicked the brakeman and given him $10,000.

DECORATION DAY. Astoria, Or., April 30, 1894. To the People of Astoria, and the Public Schools Especially—Greeting: Cushing Post, No. 14, Department of Oregon, G. A. The order of exercises and full program will be published further on.

ALBERT DUNBAR. Corner Third and Main Streets.

NOT YET.

Rumors that Postmaster Hare had handed in his resignation were heard on the streets yesterday, but on tracing them down it was found that the report was without foundation. Mr. Hare's commission expires on the 16th of this month, so the time is too short to bother about resignations. After the June election Mr. Hare can make faces at his successor from his new headquarters—"the sheriff's office."

JUST HAPPENED SO. E. L. Dwyer and party went down to the mouth of the Columbia river yesterday morning on the steamer Columbine on a tour of examination. They left for For and on the Undine, and are expected back tomorrow or Thursday. Is it a coincidence that Mr. Dwyer and his party should happen in Portland about the same time that Messrs. Dickinson and Baxter, of the Union Pacific, happened to be there also?

A NEW MCKINLEY CLUB. A McKinley club was organized in Uniontown on Saturday evening with 75 members, and Messrs. Henry Johnson and Joseph Rippla as president and secretary, respectively. The following prominent gentlemen were present and made speeches during the evening: Judge Taylor, Hon. C. W. Fulton, C. J. Curtis and Samuel Elmore. The Astorian congratulates the Republicans of Uniontown on the new organization, and wishes it much success in helping along the good work.

The Power of Little Things. Daintiness in trifles is very attractive. A gift that is wrapped in good paper and tied with a pretty ribbon, for instance, looks twice as tempting as the same present carelessly given. Every one knows how a table may be made refined or otherwise by the mere setting of the china, glass and cutlery and how the touch of the mistress' hand will convert the clumsy disposition of an inexperienced servant into an arrangement of beauty and order. The same room with the same furniture may look as widely different as the desert of Sahara, and the garden of Eden, according to the taste shown by its occupant.

This power of little things cannot be overestimated, and it is not only in things inanimate, but in words and deeds, that this most desirable quality of taste may be manifested. A kind action may be made graceful, a generous gift may be bestowed tactfully, by force of what might be deemed a trifle, but which sometimes is of the greatest importance. On the other hand, a careless, neglectful manner will almost rob a kindness of the pleasure it was intended to bestow and render it absolutely distasteful to the recipient.—New York Tribune.

Shattered Romance. "Just one," said the lover as he stood upon the stoop with his girl, "just one." "Just 1," said the mother, putting her head out of the bedroom window above. "Well, I guess it ain't so late as that, but it's pretty near 12, and you'd better be going, or her father will be down."

And the lover took his leave with a sad pain at his heart.—Boston Courier.

The Difference. "You are charged with being drunk and disorderly, but as this is your first offense I will only fine you $1 or send you to prison for one day."

"I'm obliged to you, your honor, but really I haven't got a cent of money."

"See, that comes from drinking. Now, if you hadn't got drunk you could easily pay such a small fine as $1."—Flegende Blatter.

London and Zola. The following interesting letter appeared last week in the London Times: To the Editor of The Times: Sir—I observe that M. Zola has had an enthusiastic reception by the lord mayor and people of London. Not long ago a man was imprisoned for publishing M. Zola's works in London. Is this inconsistency or what?

FOUND THEM THE BEST. This is to certify that I have used Krause's Headache Capsules periodically for over a year, and have very much pleasure in stating that they have always proved very beneficial and have relieved me in from ten to fifteen minutes. I have been a sufferer from headache for many years, and have never found anything to do me as much good as Krause's Headache Capsules.

ABSOLUTE MERIT. No other plaster has been produced which gains so many testimonials of high value as those continuously accorded to Alcock's Porous Plaster, and the only motive for these exceptional commendations is the fact that it is a medicinal and pharmaceutical preparation of superior value. Beware of imitations. Ask for and insist upon Alcock's.

Brandreth's Pills are a good corrective.
