The Astorian guarantees to its subscribers the largest circulation of any newspaper published on the Columbia River.

Advertising rates can be obtained on application to the business manager.

This paper is in possession of all the telegraph franchises, and is the only paper on the Columbia river that publishes genuine dispatches.

The Daily Astorian's circulation is five times as great as that of the combined circulation of the other daily papers of Astoria.

The Weekly Astorian, the third oldest weekly in the state of Oregon, has, next to the Portland Oregonian, the largest weekly circulation in the state.

Subscribers to the Astorian are requested to notify this office, without loss of time, immediately they fail to receive their daily paper, or when they do not get it at the usual hour. By doing this they will enable the management to place the blame on the proper parties and to insure a speedy remedy. Handley & Haas are our Portland agents and copies of the Astorian can be had every morning at their stand on First street.

THE LATEST BLUNDER.

The importers of New York and Boston go down to the capitol arrayed in fine linen and travel in palace cars, put up at Willard's and the Ebbitt, and are welcomed with wine and cigars in the private rooms of the senate finance committee and the committee on ways and means. The Coxeites go to Washington in rags, travel on foot, subsist on public charity, lodge on a vacant lot, and when they attempt to explain their grievance on the steps of the capitol building are mercilessly clubbed by the police and dragged to prison. Now, the Coxe movement is of course regretted and much deplored by every calm and dispassionate mind, but do not the crusades of the Coxeites and the impertinence of the importers rest upon precisely the same impulse and principle? If the importers had the legal and constitutional right to go to Washington, so had the commonwealers. And then, again, both sets of men acted at the instigation of the same common authority, although the importers probably received their invitation in elegantly engraved copper-plate (marked confidential, it is presumed), with the dates all carefully fixed and prearranged, while the Coxe bid was issued during the last Republican administration, in the form of turgid invective and intemperate abuse levelled at national laws and the then existing administration, but so ill-timed that Mr. Coxe failed to bring it to the attention of his men and get started with his movement until the stoppage of the mills under a triumphant Democratic administration. The commonwealers have committed no crime; been guilty of no act of violence of any kind in all their weary march to Washington, and are said to carry white banners inscribed with the holy name of Christ as a guarantee of the peacefulness of their misguided mission. Then why should these poor victims of a malevolent and incompetent Democracy be knocked down and ridden over in the streets of the national capital and their descendants visited with the disgrace and ignominy of criminal prosecutions in her police courts? The history of the Democratic party is fraught with many mistakes and offenses in the past, but this last blunder, the result doubtless of the guilty fears and self-accusing conscience of its present leaders, will go down in history as one of the real object lessons of the Cleveland administration, for which the whole Democratic party must be held responsible.

It is said in certain quarters that Secretary Gresham is still laboring for the restoration of "her Majesty, the Queen" of Hawaii, and that his attempt to outlaw Americans who support the provisional government is only another of his moves in the same old direction. It is very improbable that there is anything in this suggestion, but it goes to show how low he has sunk in the public estimation. Everything he does and says is ascribed to a wrong motive. He is the political pariah of the nineteenth century.

The county Republican central committee have secured Hon. R. G. Hoar, ex-congressman from Michigan, and now assistant editor of the New York Tribune, to address the people of the county on the political questions of the day, at Fisher's hall, next Thursday evening. Judge Hoar is one of the most eminent Republicans in the country, and his address is sure to be both entertaining and instructive.

The latest news in railroad matters is certainly refreshing, and in marked contrast to that we have been so long detailing. If Mr. Browne has put up $5,000 to lift the judgments now held against the road, it looks as if a beginning has indeed been made, and that henceforth the people may expect something more substantial than mere talk and empty speculation.

It is to be hoped that a man of Judge Hoar's prominence and influence will not be allowed to leave Astoria without a good impression as to her advantages for a naval station of some kind. Judge Hoar is likely to act a leading part under the next national administration.

Another day has passed without any railroad developments. It is understood that the Dwyer proposition is still under consideration by the committee, and that some conclusion may be reached today.

Notwithstanding the addition of the $50,000,000 bond sale some time ago, the gold reserve in the treasury is again below the $100,000,000 limit.

It is said by ex-President Harrison's intimate friends that he has decided to be a candidate for re-election again.

THE ERA OF MUSCLE.

This is an athletic age. Everybody wants to be strong. The craze—for it has well nigh reached that stage—affects both sexes and even childhood. The pugilistic phase of this mad young America is by no means morally promising. But it is one thing to be endowed with vigor and another to be SANdowed with muscle. Super muscularity is often induced by physical effort, but it is often induced by calculated to shorten life. The vigor which means a regular and efficient discharge of the physical functions, is the first medium at which all may safely aim without causing ruptures or breaking blood vessels. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is largely conducive to a gain in vigor of this sort, since it stimulates and assists digestion, promotes regular bilious secretion and keeps the bowels in order. Sleep, that grand recuperator of nervous vigor, is encouraged by it, and it remedies malarial, rheumatic and kidney trouble.

ABSOLUTE MERIT.

No other plaster has been produced which gains so many testimonials of high value as those continuously accorded to Alcock's Porous Plaster, and the only motive for these exceptional commendations is the fact that it is a medicinal and pharmaceutical preparation of superior value. Beware of imitations. Ask for and insist upon Alcock's.

FOUND THEM THE BEST.

This is to certify that I have used Krause's Headache Capsules periodically for over a year, and have very much pleasure in stating that they have always proved very beneficial and have relieved me in from ten to fifteen minutes. I have been a sufferer from headache for many years, and have never found anything to do me as much good as Krause's Headache Capsules.

CROWDS CROWDS CROWDS

AT

Shanahan Bros.'

AND NO WONDER! The bargains which they are offering would crowd any store. Low prices and good value is their motto for this coming week. We need scarcely remind the ladies of Astoria and vicinity to take advantage of this remarkably cheap sale which is the talk of the whole city. Never in the history of this city was there such a slaughter of goods. Now is the acceptable time for ladies wishing to make purchases of saving money. And as the general complaint of "Hard Times" is heard and felt everywhere, Shanahan Bros. have come to the conclusion of making many heavy hearts light by the enormous reductions of their goods.

This coming week we shall offer a still greater reduction in all departments. The vast accumulation of remnants from last week of Dress Goods, Gingham and Calicoes will be a chapter long to remember in Astoria from the very fact of the very, very low prices to which we have marked them down. Also odds and ends in Underwear, Hosiery, Gloves, and Corsets, at prices that defy the world.

Come Early! Come Early!

And don't get left, for this is a golden opportunity never before seen or heard of in Astoria.

SHANAHAN BROS.,

575 Third Street, Astoria.
