HAWAIIAN AFFAIRS.

The Queen Still Plotting for Restoration.

A BLOODY WAR IMMINENT

Coxey's Trial Progressing--Misappropriation of G. A. R. Funds in Virginia.

Associated Press.
Washington, May 7.—A letter dated April 5, received by C. C. Marene, from R. Wilcox, of Honolulu, says: "A bloody revolution will ensue on the islands in the event the senate does not support President Cleveland's policy for the restoration of the statue quo at the time of the queen's deposition. H. M. Damon, minister of finance of the provisional government, has given his assurance that the provisional government would surrender the control of the kingdom to the queen as soon as it is learned that the senate approves of President Cleveland's policy. The Chinese and Japanese have organized as a body to secure the restoration of the queen in case the United States senate fails to do justice."

THEIR INNING.

Washington, May 7.—The defense had an inning in the trial of Coxey, Brown and Jones for the Mayday demonstration. There was no denial or defense for what the commonwealth had done. The defense consists in the lawfulness of their actions.

The trial will be concluded tomorrow. Coxey's explanation of his plans for redeeming the government was the principal feature of the day's proceedings, apart from the speeches by the lawyers. It is apparent the case is being tested on the broad ground of justification for the Coxey movement, for the assistant district attorney, in his opening address, called Brown a crank, and did not hesitate to insinuate that Coxey was a knave, while the opposing lawyers endeavored to make the trial appear a persecution by the plutocrats of the people, and appealed to the animosity against Wall street.

G. A. R. FUNDS MISAPPROPRIATED

Milwaukee, May 7.—Department Commander Watrous, of Wisconsin G. A. R., today gave out a statement to the effect that the funds which have annually been sent to Virginia to be used in decorating the graves of union soldiers buried on or near southern battlefields, have not been used for the purpose intended. The commander intimates that a large portion of the money received by the Richmond post has been used to build a memorial hall in Richmond.

THE ENGLISH NAVY.

Discussion in the House of Lords on the Navy Estimates.

London, May 7.—Baron Hood, of Avon, rear admiral, and formerly lord of the admiralty, asked the lords today whether the proposed increase in the British navy provided for by the British estimates, was sufficient to insure to Great Britain the command of the sea. Baron Hood especially urged an increase of 6,800 men in the personnel of the navy. The first lord of admiralty, Lord Spencer, said the government was determined to maintain the navy and render Great Britain paramount upon the sea.

SOME OF THE AMENDMENTS.

Washington, May 7.—The amendments introduced in the senate as the result of Democratic compromise make a number of changes in the tariff bill. The new sugar schedule provides: On and after January 1, 1895, the duty on all sugars not above No. 16, Dutch standard in color, shall be 40 per cent ad valorem, and upon all sugars above No. 16, Dutch standard in color, 1-8 of one cent per pound in addition to said duty of 40 per cent ad valorem; and all sugars, tank bottoms, syrups of cane juice, or of beet juice, whether imported from or as a product of any country at the time the same are exported therefrom pay directly or indirectly a bounty on export thereof, shall pay a duty of 1-10 of one cent per pound in addition to the foregoing rate. The duty on hops is placed at 8 cents per pound, the house rate being 20 per cent. Specific duties are substituted in many instances for ad valorem.

THE WOOL TARIFF.

Providence, R. I., May 7.—A Washington special to the News says that the proposition of the woolen manufacturers to the senate committee on the wool tariff, is as follows: "The McKinley tariff to remain untouched till January 1, 1895, then a reduction of ten per cent to be made, followed annually by a similar reduction until absolute free trade conditions are reached." This schedule it is understood has been submitted to the New England manufacturers by the democratic wool manufacturers and they have agreed to it, and it is claimed virtually all the woolen manufacturers of the United States have signed the petition.

RUMORED SALE.

A Report That One of Seattle's Leading Papers Changes Hands.

Seattle, May 7.—It is reported, with considerable authority, that the Post Intelligencer has been sold by L. S. J. Hunt to Frederick J. Grant, late minister to Bolivia and present editor, and George H. Heilbron, manager of the Guarantee Loan and Trust Company, who edited the paper during Grant's absence at his mission. All parties concerned refuse to talk, but Mr. Grant, who has been absent in the east for two weeks, returned tonight, and the announcement of the sale will probably soon appear. Mr. Hunt bought the Post Intelligencer about six years ago, but for the past four years has given it but general supervision. He is in very delicate health, and has never entirely recovered from the illness which prostrated him in Chicago a year ago, and which kept him confined to his room for several months. Mr. Heilbron tonight declines either to affirm or deny the rumor. The paper is valued at from $150,000 to $200,000.

MARCHED THEM UP THE HILL.

Where They Ran Up Against Sixty Deputy Marshals.

Spokane, May 7.—For a week Gen. Dolphin has been giving his men mysterious assurance that he would lead them out of the wilderness today. He claimed to have arranged transportation. This morning the army was given marching orders, and at noon 400 men came out of the barracks, with their blankets rolled, and marched out to the Hilliard machine shops of the Great Northern, six miles distant. Dolphin told his men that a train would be in waiting, but when they reached Hilliard they ran up against dead engines and 60 deputy sheriffs. The men grumbled a great deal, but Dolphin cooled them down with more promises, and tonight they are in camp waiting for something to turn up. Dolphin was allowed to send a telegram to President Hill, offering to clear the road of obstructions if the company will provide transportation and food.

IN A BAD FIX.

Spokane, May 7.—"Jumbo" Cantwell, of the Sound army, arrived here today, coming through as a first-class passenger, but arrivals of privates were few. "Jumbo" reports about 300 corralled at Pasco, and about 150 at Sprague, the freight trains they were on having been abandoned. The Sound contingent now here is in a bad fix. The freight car carrying its blankets and provisions has been sidetracked at Cheney.

FULL LENGTH OF THE STATE.

Tacoma, May 7.—The industrialists who put a torpedo on the track and stopped a freight train at Easton Sunday night were ejected from the train early this morning by 25 deputy marshals sent from Stampede. The industrialists are strung along the entire length of the track in this state stealing rides wherever possible.

ON THE MARCH.

The Dalles, Or., May 7.—The advance guard of the Portland contingent of the Coxey army, numbering about 100 men, moved on the east this morning, after having been joined by another company which came in on an early morning freight from the west. They were very quiet and orderly. They said they would leave the trains when ordered, but would immediately return to the main body in Portland. More will come on every train.

SMOKELESS.

Scottsdale, Pa., May 7.—The coke region is almost smokeless today. At Moyer but ten men are working, and crowds of strikers are assembled there. It has been given out that Sheriff Wilhelm will endeavor to disperse the crowd.

GONE TO THE WALL.

Wichita, Kan., May 7.—The State Bank, considered one of the strongest in the West, has suspended. L. D. Skinner, president, and the Lombards were interested. The large depositors are left in a bad financial condition.

CALLS FOR A DIVISION.

Paris, Ky., May 7.—There is an immense crowd in town today to hear the opening speeches in the congressional campaign. Settle has forced Breckenridge to agree to a division of time.

LARGEST ON RECORD.

Port Townsend, May 7.—The Hawaiian ship John Ena sailed tonight for Point Pirie laden with 2,600,000 feet of lumber, the largest cargo of lumber that was ever shipped from Puget Sound.

A BOLD HIGHWAYMAN

California Stage Held Up and the Strong Box Taken.

THE PASSENGERS UNMOLESTED

An American Turfman Arrested in Germany--Serious Disaster to the Sealing Fleet.

TURFMAN ARRESTED.

Milton, Cal., May 7.—The down stage from Angels to Milton was held up this morning by a lone highwayman. He demanded the Wells-Fargo box, which was given him. Then he handed the driver a package and a letter to be sent to Sonora, saying they contained articles he took from the Sonora stage last Wednesday. He then directed the driver to go on. An explosion was shortly afterwards heard by the passengers, indicating that the highwayman had blown open the box, which is believed to have contained a large sum of money. His work was done coolly and deliberately. He did not molest the four passengers.

MR. KNEEBES CHARGED WITH DISHONEST WINNINGS.

Berlin, May 7.—The first examination of Kneebes, the American trotting horse owner, who was arrested on Saturday, after three of his mares had been seized, and who is charged with winning races by fraudulent practices, took place today. Kneebes denied the identity of his horses. The prosecutors are officers of the new Berlin Trotting club and the Hamburg Trotting club. They have had the horses photographed. The bail for Kneebes, if it is accepted, will amount to $5,000. It is believed that the inquiry into the case will last between three and five months.

DISASTERS TO SEALERS.

San Francisco, May 7.—The present season has been a most disastrous one to the sealing fleet. So far the schooners Matthew Turner and Mascot of San Francisco have been lost, with all hands. The Henry Dennis is said to have gone ashore, and will become a total wreck. The Undaunted is also wrecked and the Retriever lost five of her boats and then put into Yokohama. The men of the latter, with the exception of Capt. Snow and two sailors, managed to reach Vakodot. Fears are entertained for the safety of the captain. The schooner Ocean Belle lost one of her boats in a fog, and the three men in it were adrift for five days.

THEY USE DYNAMITE.

Birmingham, Ala., May 7.—About midnight a mob of 200 went to the mines of Thomas Price, on Horse Creek, Walker county, where the miners refused to join the strikers, put dynamite under the boiler and engine and blew them up. They also destroyed other property. At the Victor mines they blew up a railroad car loaded with timbers. Several other cars were turned loose down the hill. Gov. Jones has put the troops upon orders. An attack on Pratt City and Coalburg miners is feared.

HUNTING FOR DEYOUNG.

San Francisco, May 7.—Joseph B. Elliott, business manager of the Chronicle, narrowly escaped death from a pistol shot fired by Jake Rudolph, a local politician, in the Chronicle office about noon today. Rudolph entered the office and was making a noisy demonstration, when Elliott interfered. The cause of Rudolph's attack is not yet known. He is said to have been hunting for DeYoung. Rudolph was arrested.

RELIEF OF KEARSARGE SURVIVORS.

Washington, May 7.—Senator McPherson, of New Jersey, introduced today in the senate a bill for the relief of Rear Admiral Stanton and the officers and enlisted men of the wrecked Kearsarge. It provides remuneration for their personal losses in the wreck.

TAMMANY TO LOSE CROKER.

New York, May 7.—When the Tammany executive committee of sixty meets next Thursday Richard Croker will take one more step toward withdrawal from active political work. He is quoted as saying: "I have made up my mind that I cannot stand the hard work connected with the management of the Tammany organization. Hereafter the routine and the detail must be looked after by committees, for I will not do it."

FREDERICKS SENTENCED.

San Francisco, May 7.—Judge Levy today sentenced murderer Fredericks to be hanged at San Quentin on July 11.

STOP IT, STOP IT.

A man with another style of a slot machine arrived in town yesterday and started in business in one of our cigar stores, and the attention of the chief of police is called to it as the most seductive kindergarten for turning out gamblers that ever struck the town. This gambling device, which pays the player five to one, is a comparatively new one to Astorians, and if allowed to remain will take such a hold, especially on our young men and boys, that there is necessity for timely interference on the part of the proper authorities. This slot machine is a veritable snap for the owner. The machine takes care of itself. It receives the money during the day, and occasionally when a nickel rolls along the proper channel, automatically pays out a quarter, which only serves to tempt the unwary player further. At night the owner of the machine takes his key, unlocks a little back door and hauls out the day's receipts, amounting to anywhere from $1 to $30.

A person has about one chance in 25 of winning, but as the "gold brick" men say, a "new sucker" is born every minute, and the business of this machine will increase rather than diminish. It will catch them all, from the aged and respected citizen down to the bum, who is tempted to drop his last nickel in the silent robber, with the hope of winning a quarter to get his five beers. In such cases the slot machine might be called a public benefactor. But we are not writing for the incorrigible tramp, nor for the aged and respected citizen. They ought to know better. It is the young man and the boy we are writing for and want to save, and it is his feeling that makes us call upon the chief of police to use his efforts in snatching this kindergarten of crime, this silent thief, that tempts boys to lose their nickels, and then hustle around for more to lose, and these nickels they will get in one way or another.

Does the reader, after the above warning, realize what the 25-cent machine for a nickel will do for our boys? Does Chief Loughery begin to see it? We hope so. We hope he will take such action as will stop it, before it is 24 hours old, and win for himself the thanks of parents and rid the city of this fresh evil that has come among us.

A SCARED MAN.

Pete Walde, who lives in Uppertown, had a queer experience Sunday night. He started home from the "Delmonico" about 12 o'clock, and when opposite the U. P. dock noticed some one ahead of him. Thinking it might be an acquaintance he quickened his footsteps, but the person ahead of him was not to be overtaken and walked as fast as Pete. When near the Columbia cannery the fellow ahead could stand the strain no longer, so he broke in a run, calling "Robber," "Robber," at the top of his voice. Some fishermen were coming in, and they ran to his assistance, but when they found the supposed robber to be Pete Walde going home from his day's work, they had a hearty laugh, in which the whole crowd joined.

SHE'LL REFORM HIM.

Minister—You say you are going to marry a man to reform him. That is noble. May I ask who it is?
Miss Beauty—It's young Mr. Bondellip.

"Indeed! I did not know he had any bad habits."
"Yes; his friends say that he is becoming quite miserly."—New York Weekly.

TWO BAD BREAKS.

Hobson—What did your fiancé say when you told her you were dead broke?
Dobson (sadly)—She said she was fond of consistency in all things; so she broke the engagement.—Puck.
