

Tide Table for May.

Table with columns for DATE, HIGH WATER, and LOW WATER, showing tide levels for various dates in May.

YESTERDAY'S WEATHER.

Maximum temperature, 66 degrees; minimum temperature, 42 degrees; precipitation, 0.00 inches.

THE WEATHER TODAY.

Portland, May 17.—For Oregon and Washington: Fair weather.

AROUND TOWN.

There will be a spelling match at the Methodist church this evening. Everybody invited.

Some people say that society is a bore, but they like to have the privilege of being bored just the same.

An irate housekeeper wanted her provision man to bounce his butcher for selling her what she called an indiarubber steak.

The most noticeable difference between a rich woman and poor one is that the rich one wears 'gowns' and the other 'dresses.'

A pretty New York girl had her photograph stolen for exhibition in a shop window. They are not such curiosities as that in Astoria.

Preparations are being made to repair the Smith's Point motor line, so as to have it in order for carrying passengers on Decoration Day.

Crow's Gallery is here to stay, and will continue to turn out first-class work. Swiss panels $2.50 per dozen. Something new and stylish.

A hen in Clatsop county has laid an egg with another egg inside of it. This is taken as somehow portending that Jim Hare will soon have another office.

A traveling photographer has unpacked his box and spread his tent on Commerce street, and will make his bid for patrician or plebeian trade at one and the same price.

A strawberry short-cake festival in the interest of one of our church choirs is talked of. This would join musical culture and culinary art in bonds of everlasting union.

It was not Babcock extinguishers at all that the council ordered for the fire department, as stated in the city papers. It was chemicals which the city already has.

The jewelers say when a young lady wishes to see a ring like the one she has on, it is wasting time to wait on her. She has just received an engagement ring, and she wants to know how much it cost.

The Portland authorities have shut down on the 25 cents for a nickel slot machine, "claiming it is a public game of chance." The proprietor contends that it isn't a game of chance, because the players had no chance.

The reason the Coxeyites did not come to Astoria was because they heard that some of the hands that helped our fishermen worked 24 hours a day. Their informant never told them that it was the hands of the alarm clocks.

It is better to tell a man occasionally that his good deeds have been appreciated than it is to lock up the appreciation in an alabaster box, and not open it until he is dead, and then enumerate his virtues on a tombstone.

"Divorce" was produced for the first time by the Stutz Theatre Company, and proved one of the finest pieces they have yet given us. Mr. and Mrs. Stutz, as Mr. and Mrs. Grantley, were, as usual, elegant. The comedy in the piece is also very catchy. The first number called was not responded to. The second was held by a gentleman, who received the lady's dress pattern. The same piece will be repeated tonight, and another dress pattern given.

PERSONAL.

L. A. Loomis, from Weather Beach, was over from Ilwaco yesterday.

Mr. Samuel Elmore and family are expected to arrive in Astoria this morning.

J. Smiley, manager of the North Shore and Eureka cannery, was down yesterday.

John Harrington, owner of the Pillar Rock cannery, is in the city, and so is the merry-go-round.

W. H. Hare, ex-receiver of the United States land office at North Yakima, is in the city, visiting his brother, Postmaster Hare.

Hon. C. E. Wolverton, candidate for supreme judge on the Republican ticket, was in the city yesterday shaking hands with his many admirers. The judge is a pleasant gentleman, and is making a very successful canvass. There is no doubt of his election.

WANTED.

House cleaning, carpet shaking and any work of that kind, by a white man, who will work as cheap as a Chinaman. Leave orders at Ross, Higgins & Co's.

HE WILL USE THE MANZINITA.

A letter received by Mrs. Gregory, yesterday, from the captain, states that the Manzinita is under orders to report at Tacoma, to receive Secretary Herbert and party, for a tour around the Sound.

A FACT.

In one of the stores yesterday a clerk was busy filling a large order to go over to Ilwaco, and the bright skies were rivalled by the sunshine in his face as he spoke of his large sale. Moral—The proprietor of this store advertises.

TOTE PAIR.

A little girl was complaining yesterday "that her school teacher would not allow the girls to chew gum, but she could keep her jaws in motion all the time and her mouth full of it. It is not fair," continued she. Do you think so?" Do you?

WHERE IS HE?

Recorder Dunbar received a letter from Fannie Pence, of Piqua, Ohio, asking for the whereabouts of her relative, Garret Clausen, who is supposed to be in Clatsop county, or somewhere on this coast. Can any one give her the desired information?

A NEW RESORT.

A plat was filed yesterday with the county recorder by R. S. Norris of Norriston-Parke-by-the-Sea. The lots are for sale to those who may wish to erect cottages by the sea. It is situated near the point south of Tillamook Head, and is said to have an elegant beach.

A LARGE SALMON PACK.

State Fish Commissioner Crawford has just given out his annual report for publication. It shows among other things that in the Puget Sound district the salmon pack is three times greater than that of 1892, the total salmon pack being 105,000 cases, valued at $269,000—1,008,000 salmon being used.—Tacoma Ledger.

TOO MUCH VEAL.

Our local butchers are complaining that the farmers are bringing in too much veal dressed at one time, and that it would be better for them to engage its sale before sending it to the Astoria markets. Heretofore a farmer would bring ready sale for his calves without notifying the meat dealers that they intended butchering, but times are too quiet and trade too dull now to take all that now comes in.

A BIG RALLY.

Salem is putting on its best bib and tucker for the grand Republican rally which takes place in that city tomorrow. Brass bands, torch-light processions and vocal music are promised in abundance. All the candidates will be there, and the Democratic papers mention Charles W. Fulton's name among the speakers in big, bold, black type, like an eastern paper does Edwin Booth's among a lot of prominent actors.

RECEPTION DAY.

The teachers of Court street school, also the high school, will give on Thursday, June 14, a reception to all patrons of the school.

It is a new feature in school work in this city, and promises to be a most unique occasion, and one in which all patrons will be interested. We shall try to get full particulars later, but now it is sufficient to say that it will be an educational feast, and all who are interested in school work should be present.

A NEW INVENTION.

A man came through this vicinity the other day selling a "canned force generator"—and he had a good one. On asking him whether it was in liquid or solid form, he replied that it was in the form of vapor. He carried it in a peculiarly constructed five-gallon can, and claimed its ingredients were as follows: Essence of dog light, the condensed fury of an angry mother-in-law and a concoction of profanity from disgruntled politicians who continually seek office, but never realize their anticipations. Any one in this vicinity wishing a cheap power for running sawmills, newspaper presses or river craft can easily contract for the exclusive agency for it in the states of Washington and Oregon.

FUNERAL NOTICE.

The funeral of the late R. W. Morrison will take place today, at 2 o'clock, at Clatsop. Members of the Pioneer and Historical Society of Oregon, and the friends of the family are invited to attend. A boat will leave Fishers' dock at 1 o'clock p. m. today sharp.

PHIL. METSCHAN, State Treasurer.

HIS LAST MOMENTS.

Unless something unexpected happens, John Hansen will have seen his last day dawn this morning. Sheriff Smith has everything in readiness to carry out the mandate of the law, and at high noon today John Hansen will pay the penalty of his crime by hanging in the court house yard in this city until he is pronounced dead by the attending surgeons.

The scaffold was completed early yesterday morning. It is built on the north side of the jail, and is the same one used for the hanging of John Reter last fall. It has a six-foot drop, and the trap is sprung by pressing a button connected with an electrical appliance adjusted with weights.

Sheriff Smith has had many applications for admission, but it is understood that they will be limited to his deputies, surgeons and representatives of the press.

"BREAKING IN,"

Many a man has "broken out" in a passion, and felt all "broken up," trying to get a new pair of shoes "broken in." He has had to "break off" many an engagement on account of crippled feet, and has gone "broke" many a time trying to get relief for his corns—the direct cause of ill-fitting shoes. You will find all this obviated by purchasing your footwear at the store of JOHN HAHN & CO.

A POINTER

Many people believe that all blacksmithing jobs are alike—that they are nothing but muscle and material mixed. That is true of ordinary jobs. Brains are also used to make a good job. So is conscience. A job made without skill or honesty is no good. Our work is widely known for its quality, durability and economy in the end. G. A. Stinson & Co.

"Disfigured For Life" Is the despairing cry of thousands afflicted with Unsightly skin diseases. Do you realize what this disfigurement means to sensitive souls? It means isolation, seclusion. It is a bar to social and business success. Do you wonder that despair seizes upon these sufferers when Doctors fail, Standard remedies fail, And nostrums prove worse than useless? Skin diseases are most obstinate to cure or even relieve. It is an easy matter to claim to cure them, but quite another thing to do so. CUTICURA REMEDIES Have earned the right to be called Skin Specifics. Because for years they have met with most remarkable success. There are cases that they cannot cure, but they are few indeed. It is no long-drawn-out, expensive experiment. 25c. invested in a cake of CUTICURA SOAP Will prove more convincing than a page of advertisement. In short CUTICURA works wonders, And its cures are simply marvellous.

Friedman's Consignee Sale

Has revolutionized Astoria. It has changed the prices of clothing that the people begin to purchase at home and don't go to Portland for them as before. The merchants are now afraid that if a railroad should come to town it would bring more people here, and among them there is liable to come men that will engage in the clothing, hats and dry goods business. Therefore it puts them to the necessity of getting another ordinance through so as to prohibit any railroad company from bringing any persons here that will sell clothing, dry goods, and hats, and they will ask the council to enact an ordinance to prohibit cars coming here with goods such as they sell, and all railroad cars that may hereafter bring here new goods shall pay a license to the city of $400 for each car load, and $400 for each passenger who intends locating in Astoria and engaging in the clothing or dry goods trade.

And be it further enacted, that the city of Astoria be fenced in against all intruders, such that would dare come here and bring a nice stock of clothing or dry goods, and offer the same for sale here for less than the old merchants who have kept their old stocks on their shelves for years and have had the trouble of dusting and brushing them so long, and they will pray to have the ordinance passed in one night and become a law immediately after its passage.

The only one excepted from the penalty of the above is S. Friedman, of the Consignee Sale, on Third Street, corner of West Ninth street, Astoria, Oregon. Buy your Clothing, Hats, and Furnishing Goods there.
