OREGON'S FATE.

The argument is closed, and the fate of the fair and potentially great state of Oregon may be said to be in the hands of the jury of her citizens. So cerned the campaign has been decent and orderly, but no more earnest and determined fight was ever waged by his appearance before the state against the foes of a state or princi- board of equalization, "at his own expality than was closed by the leaders pense. of that party last night. the adversities of the past, and the lies and faisrepresentations of former campaigns are too thoroughly exposed to allow any justification or excuse for a Populist victory this time.

Such a catastrophe can only be ascribed to the willful ignorance of the Populists and the narrow and incorrigible prejudice of Democrats; the two to gether constituting a majority of all the clifficens in the state. The name Oregon will in consequence pass to the roll of the sections prescribed by capital, and she may expect to be shunned as a pestilence in future by all men of enterprising and liberal spirit.

The people of Astoria are especialty interested in the result of tomorrow's local page of the county of claratop.
