YESTERDAY'S WEATHER. Maximum temperature, 60 degrees. Minimum temperature, 48 degrees. Precipitation, .47 inch.

AROUND TOWN. Orders can be left at Carahan's store for the Astoria Wood Yard for all kinds of fuel.

Prof. Schwabe, the celebrated pianist, will delight the audience at the Camera Club's entertainment tonight.

Go to the Astoria Wood Yard for the best kinds of wood; also best grades of coal delivered in quantities to suit.

Kipling's well known aversion to pie does not deter his admirer, John Stewart Hitchen, from attacking a nice wedge of rhubarb.

After a twelve days' trip, the steam schooner Augusta came in yesterday afternoon with a good load of deep-sea fish, which found ready sale.

The steamer Mayflower went on Fox's griddiron yesterday morning to have her propeller repaired. She will be off and make her regular trips today.

Regular communication of St. John's Chapter, No. 14, R. A. M., this Tuesday evening, at 7:30 o'clock. A full attendance requested. By order H. P.

For a delicious plate of pure ice cream, go to C. B. Smith, the Ice Cream Dealer, Ice Cream Soda a specialty. Private parlors for ladies, 483 Third street.

J. O. Hanthorn states that in his experience as a salmon packer he has never known fish to be so scarce up to this time in June, except during the high water of 1876.

One of the principal features of the Camera Club's entertainment will be a violin solo by Prof. Navoni. Prof. Navoni is unexcelled in his line, and his appearance at Liberty hall tonight will be a genuine treat to music lovers of Astoria.

Library tea on Friday, June 15, from 2 to 5 p. m., at the residence of Mrs. Samuel Elmore, 290 Benton street. All the friends of the library are most cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. Zoe Weatherford celebrated her eighth birthday yesterday by giving a party to a number of her little friends. The little folks were entertained with various games and refreshments.

Three of George & Barker's boats left for the usual fishing grounds on last Thursday and nothing has been heard of them since. Whether they were carried out to sea, or have happened to some other accident was a matter of much conjecture on the streets yesterday.

Two fairies were fined $5 each in the recorder's court yesterday for disorderly conduct. They had been out walking in Ulontown and coming to the Last Chance saloon felt exceedingly thirsty, so much so that they broke one of the windows in the place and acted in a very unbecoming manner. Hence the complaint.

The afternoon tea, in the interest of the public library, at the residence of Mrs. Samuel Elmore, on Friday, June 15, from 2 to 5 p. m., promises to be one of the social events of the season.

STUTTZ THEATRE. On Wednesday night, tomorrow, the New York sensation, entitled "Streets of New York, or the Panic of '37," New scenery and a grand production.

NEW BONDS. The city bonds of the 1893 issue have arrived and were signed yesterday by D. A. J. Kinney, as mayor, and Judge Osburn, as city clerk. They are a neat job of lithographing.

THE SALVATOR HEARD FROM. A letter from Capt. Tibbetta, of the schooner Salvator, dated at Honolulu, states that the schooner is on her way to Fort Townsend. The Salvator left the Sound last fall with a cargo for Australia.

ASTORIA'S STREET CORNERS. Astoria named the streets some time ago, and has just completed the work of putting up signs on the corners. It took an even thousand to go around. So now it is known that Astoria has 4,999 corners.—Hillaboro Independent.

A DRUG. Remarkable grocery merchant yesterday: "Butter is a drug on the market. I never in all my experience knew it to be so low in price as at present, while in Portland light edge creamery butter is retailing for 25c to 30c for a two pound roll and creamery from 30c to 40c a roll.

FOOTBALL NOTES. The inter-collegiate football team met last evening and elected Mark S. Warren as temporary captain and E. W. Smith temporary manager. The first practice game will be on Wednesday night at 7 p. m., when all the players are expected to be present to make this the initial practice.

A LOST WHISTLER. The Mackinnon went down to Tillamook Rock and exchanged keepers yesterday. The new keeper's name is Strom, from Willapa light, and Mr. Peterson exchanged with him. The crew report that the whistling buoy has gone from the mouth of the river, and will be replaced by a new one.

A CRUEL REMEDY. A family in Uppertown, being annoyed by the trespass of a neighbor's chickens on their garden, took the dangerous method of punishing them by sprinkling food mixed with rough on rats where they could find it. It has had its effect on the chickens, but the chances are that the coroner will be called on one of these days to hold an inquest in that portion of the city, and some people will get their names in the papers.

THE M. E. CHURCH. A large congregation assembled at the above named church on last Sabbath evening to listen to the sermon by the pastor, Dr. Bushong on the subject of the "True Church," from the text to be found in Job xli, 2. It is said to have been one of the finest discourses ever heard in Astoria.

The music was especially fine; the anthem being magnificently rendered. The choir now connected with this popular church is one of the finest on the Coast, not excepting even those in the great churches of San Francisco.

A BIRTHDAY PARTY. Miss Zoe Weatherford celebrated her eighth birthday yesterday by giving a party to a number of her little friends. The little folks were entertained with various games and refreshments.

The outfit consisted of 2 rotors, 10 coolers, 2 soldering machines, 2 washing machines, 4 crimpers, 1 solder cutter, 1 die press and 60 sewing cylinders for 3 different sized cans.

THE OUTFIT GONE. The new canning machinery for J. A. Devlin & Co's new cannery at Friday Harbor was shipped from the Astoria Iron Works direct to that place on the steamer Signal yesterday.

GOOD-BYE, SOLDIERS. Soldier boys, with brass buttons and shoulder straps, were numerous on the streets yesterday and will be today.

Yesterday the Potter brought over the two batteries that have been stationed at Canby and quartered them at the U. P. yard, where they will go into camp until tomorrow when they will take the steamer Columbia on their way to Alcatraz Island, Cal. They number 194 men, including non-commissioned officers.
