Some fellows make considerable noise about politics during election times and never fail to turn out to vote, but how they do hate to pay their poll tax of work it out.

There will be no performance tonight at Liberty hall, as it will require two days to put up the scenery and paraphernalia for the production of "The Sea Queen," which opens tomorrow night.

Among the specialty artists appearing in "The Sea Queen" is the celebrated musical team, Carminelli and Lucille, who will introduce "Fun in a Butcher Shop," including the musical knife-grinding.

Every time a bicycle is sold to a resident the Motor Car Company loses a customer. A citizen who used to patronize the street car every day has not paid a fare since buying a wheel three months ago.

We are out gunning for the man who says he can't get his watch repaired without sending it to San Francisco. Why, we run a regular "Watch Hospital" and repair all kinds of breaks, at Niemi's Jewelry Store.

"If there is a general air of stiffness about these lines," wrote a prominent real estate dealer in this city to a friend as he reached for the arnica and poured it down his back, "it is because the middle-aged lunatics of this firm played at baseball one day this week."

A new industry has sprung up at Skippanon, that may, if the railroad comes, grow to some magnitude. It is the canning of razorback clams, by Mr. Halferly, whose product is now finding ready sale in this city. Tall oaks from little acorns grow.

Ex-Sheriff Twilight was in town Saturday. Charles H. Callender, of Knappton, is in the city. J. C. Davis, of John Days, was in the city Saturday.

THE VERDICT. The coroner's jury brought in a signed verdict yesterday "that the woman known as Belle Shelby, alias Potty, came to her death by a gunshot wound, and that they believed the same was inflicted by the deceased's own hand during a fit of temporary insanity. The verdict was signed by H. G. Smith, foreman, and the rest of the jury."

AN OMISSION. Through some inexplicable error, all mention of the amusing and very entertaining recitation by Miss Annie Olson, entitled "Aunt Sophronia Tabor at the Opera," at the high school commencement exercises Friday evening, was omitted from the article in yesterday's paper. Miss Olson's recitation was one of the gems of the occasion, and received much merited applause.

ALDERBROOK SCHOOL. There was a very fine literary program rendered by the Alderbrook school on Friday morning last, largely attended by the patrons of the school. An outdoor picnic dinner followed, which was participated in by most of the families of the neighborhood. The afternoon amusements were very enjoyable, the delightful weather adding very much to the pleasure of the occasion.

A GOOD DRINK. Some of the boys who were out electing tell a joke on one of the party that stopped over night at the house of a strong prohibitionist up the country, from whom he dared not ask for a drink, but expressed his wants to a companion, and was informed he could have one when they retired for the night. The hour came, and the first question he asked after he got to the room was "Where do I get that drink?" His bedfellow smiled, and pointing over at the resting place for the night, answered, "Yonder; there's a spring in the bed."

LUXURIANT HAIR

With a clean, wholesome scalp, free from irritating and scaly eruptions, is produced by the CUTICURA SOAP, the most effective skin purifying and beautifying soap in the world, as well as purest and sweetest for toilet and nursery. It clears the scalp and hair of crusts, scales and dandruff, destroys microscopic insects which feed on the hair, soothes irritated and itching surfaces, stimulates the hair follicles, and nourishes the roots. It not only preserves, purifies and beautifies the hair, but imparts a brilliancy and freshness to the complexion and softness to the hands unequalled by other skin soaps.
