

Tide Table for June.

Table with columns for DATE, HIGH WATER (A.M., P.M.), and LOW WATER (A.M., P.M.). Rows list dates from June 1st to 30th.

YESTERDAY'S WEATHER.

Local weather for the twenty-four hours ending at 5 p. m. yesterday, furnished by the United States Department of Agriculture, Weather Bureau.

THE WEATHER TODAY.

Portland, Or., June 28.—For Oregon, Washington and Idaho: Fair weather and warmer.

AROUND TOWN.

Just in bloom—California Buttercup, at Coleman's. The Manzanita laid yesterday to 'blow down' her boilers. The Columbine is expected at this port the latter part of this week.

It is learned that there are $990,000 piano players in the United States, and they could elect any man for president they chose to unite on. This is terrible.

Hidden Hand drew a good house last night. Tonight will be the last production. On Friday and Saturday 'Uncle Josh' and 'Little Rebel,' a grand double comedy bill.

John Hahn states that there will be enough cabbage raised in this vicinity to furnish a companion piece for all the corned beef cooked in and about Clatsop during the next year.

According to Dr. Walker's books but four deep water vessels have arrived in this port during the quarter ending June 30th, compared with fifteen such vessels the preceding quarter.

There was a light passenger list down on the steamer Telephone last evening, but she had a good freight list. The Foresters held their election last night and officers were chosen for the next six months.

MARRIED—At St. Paul's church, Los Angeles, Cal., by the rector, Rev. John Gray, Saturday, June 16, 6:30 p. m., John D. Mercer, of Los Angeles, to Miss Nellie Carnahan, of Astoria, Or.

A COMING EVENT.

There is a prospect for the music loving population of Astoria to enjoy a rare treat. A concert with instrumental talent of fine order from a distance, is being agitated. It is to be given on the evening of July 4th, at the Methodist church.

A KICKER.

'If there is to be a special meeting of the council tomorrow,' said the kicker yesterday, 'I would like to see them adopt and enforce an ordinance prohibiting the explosion of "giant" firecrackers within the city limits. They are a dangerous nuisance. When I hear one even on the Fourth I know it means not patriotism but devilment on the part of the shooter; and the noise takes my mind from patriotism to—well profound indignation.'

CIRCUIT COURT.

The following business was transacted in the circuit court yesterday. Astoria National Bank vs. Mary H. Leinenweber et al.; defendants allowed to file amended complaint to include certain other defendants. In the matter of the estate of Mrs. T. Corcoran, deceased, motion to dismiss the appeal argued and submitted.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. J. B. Rathom arrived home yesterday from a Portland visit. Chas M. Cutbirth leaves for Warrenton this morning. Hon. C. J. Curtis is in Portland on legal business.

REAL ESTATE AUCTION.

I will auction off a good piece of bottom land, to the highest bidder, on Saturday, June 30th, at 2 o'clock p. m., consisting of lot 4, section 10, T. 6 N. 10 W., amounting to 17 acres. The buyer will have the privilege of taking out 5 acres, if he does not want the whole tract. Sale to take place at my auction rooms.

This land must be sold. Now is the chance to buy. Within 10 minutes' walk of Gearhart Park. MARTIN OLSEN, Auctioneer.

FOURTH OF JULY.

A long and ripe experience has demonstrated to us that there is always a great demand for fireworks in Astoria on the Glorious Fourth of July, so we have got ready for your coming a large stock of Fire Crackers, Flags, Rockets, Bunting, Roman Candles, Lanterns, Torpedoes, Red Fire, Etc., etc.

For surprisingly little money you can be as patriotic as you wish. Come before the stock is broken. NEW YORK NOVELTY STORE. Opposite Occident Hotel.

For $2, a lot is delivered every week to the buyer in Hill's First addition. Orders can be left at Carnahan's store for the Astoria Wood Yard for all kinds of fuel. Hill's First addition is located in the center of the city. Lots are now selling in it for $2.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON.

The Valedictorian of This Year an Astoria Lady.

The commencement exercises of the University of Oregon took place Thursday, June 21, at Eugene. A large and appreciative audience listened to the carefully prepared and interesting orations. The subjects were as follows: 'Every Man to Accomplish the Actual Must Have an Ideal,' by P. J. Brattain and Miss Emma Wold.

'Shall the Study of the Classics be Secondary to the Study of Science,' by Miss Mary Collier.

'Early Pioneers of Oregon and Their Legacy to the State,' by Miss Carrie Friendly and George F. Welch.

'William the Silent a Conqueror in the Lofliest Sense,' by Irving M. Glen.

'Shall Politics be Taught in the Schools of this Nation,' by Miss Melissa Hill and Geo. Jones.

'Arid America Redeemed by Irrigation,' by James Lawrie and Elias Underwood.

'The Mental Influences of Great Events,' by Miss Amy Powell.

The valedictory was delivered in a most touching manner by Miss Powell, of Astoria. Miss Powell is the first young lady who has obtained the valedictory, since it has been an honor secured only by the highest class standing throughout the entire course of study.

Mr. Geo. Welch, also of Astoria, is one of the youngest members of the class.

A Letter From

Brown & Browne

TO THE COMMITTEE.

Gentlemen:—Having caught the R. R. Fever while in Astoria, we are compelled to take a rest here in Denver, and although we regret the delay, we believe that a REST will do you gentlemen good, too. In the meantime we desire to make you a NEW proposition, viz.:

We and our associates will build you a road, work to begin as soon as our attorney can look up the title of the original owners of the subsidy, Concomly, Chenamus, et. al., and the road to be completed when free coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1 is established, as the securities of our company consist mainly of stock in some silver mines we have discovered lately.

As we expect to put on a large force of men we desire that you negotiate with the mortgagees of the Herman Wise store in regard to supplying our men with Clothing, Hats, Shoes, Furnishings, etc., as we understand that they offer stock at about 60 cents on the dollar.

Smilingly Yours, BROWN & BROWNE.
