MR. KINNEY OPPOSES TRAPS.

The following from our local contemporary shows how one of the most prominent cannerymen on the river views the fish trap question:

M. J. Kinney runs the largest salmon packing institution in the world; he is as well posted on fish and fishing as any other man, and he is now in favor of abolishing traps and wheels. He is aware that they are ruining the industry. Mr. Kinney takes the broad view of this question. He takes the view that any broad-gauged man would who intends to remain in the business. He is here to stay; all his interests are here, while on the other hand, most of the cannerymen who are defending the traps and wheels are here to make a fortune to take some place else.—Budget, June 28.

A Letter From

Brown & Browne

TO THE COMMITTEE.

Gentlemen:—Having caught the R. R. Fever while in Astoria, we are compelled to take a rest here in Denver, and although we regret the delay, we believe that a REST will do you gentlemen good, too.

We and our associates will build you a road, work to begin as soon as our attorney can look up the title of the original owners of the subsidy, Concomly, Chenamus, et. al., and the road to be completed when free coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1 is established, as the securities of our company consist mainly of stock in some silver mines we have discovered lately.

As we expect to put on a large force of men we desire that you negotiate with the mortgagees of the Herman Wise store in regard to supplying our men with Clothing, Hats, Shoes, Furnishings, etc., as we understand that they offer stock at about 60 cents on the dollar.

Smilingly Yours, BROWN & BROWNE.
