Precipitation, none.
Total precipitation from September 1st 1893, to date, 97.43 inches.
Excess of precipitation from September 1st, 1893, to date, 27.96 inches.

AROUND TOWN.

Fresh peanut and coconut taffy and snowballs at Colmann's.
The bill collector was out early and late yesterday, and a good many four-bit pieces changed hands.
There was quite a drip in the temperature between Sunday evening and 6 o'clock yesterday afternoon.
The $800 which has been appropriated by congress for the survey of Astoria harbor will soon be available, and the work will be commenced.
Be sure to see the Brownies and Fairies at Liberty Hall this evening at 8 o'clock. This will be one of the best entertainments of the season.
President Kelley, of the Oregon Sheriffs' State Association, has wired Secretary Smith to call a special meeting of the association to convene the 11th of July at Portland.
The Seaside road resumed operations Sunday, and is now prepared to furnish all required accommodations for the large number expected to visit that popular resort this season.
At Stutz' Theatre tonight, the Brownies, by ladies and children of Astoria. On the night of the Fourth, a grand performance under the auspices of the Astoria Football Association.

There will be a practice by the intercollegiate football team on the grounds at Smith's Point this evening. Judge Taylor has consented to run the motor Tuesdays and Thursdays hereafter, leaving as usual at 6:30 and 7 p. m.
The Manzanita and the Columbine did not trade mates yesterday, but they did "swap" the man that buys and the man that boils the "mate"—the steward and cook of one vessel being exchanged for the same functionaries on the other.
William Anderson and John Peterson were arrested yesterday and charged with committing the outrage referred to in Sunday's Astorian. They were arraigned before Justice Abercrombie, and released on $1000 bail to appear for hearing next Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Quite a number of Portlanders attended Utzinger's Theatre last night, and pronounced the performance better than anything given in that line in their city. It is safe to say that the bill prepared for this week is the most representative star vaudeville show that has ever appeared in this city. If talent will crowd a house, Utzinger's will have it from this time on.

A STRANGE ORDEE.

The Columbine came in last evening about 5 o'clock and was proceeding to her dock when she was hailed from the foot of Main street by Lieut. Blish, who ordered Captain Richardson to anchor in midchannel, which he did at a point opposite Fisher & Co.'s dock. What the object of this new order is no one seems to know, as the Manzanita is still allowed to remain alongside her dock.

POLICE COMMISSIONERS' MEETING

The regular monthly meeting of the police commissioners was held last night at Judge Osburn's office. The monthly pay roll was signed and approved, and a resolution passed empowering the chief of police to add two more men to the force on the Fourth of July if in his judgment it was necessary. The complaint of G. N. Partridge, proprietor of the Bay City House, was read and referred back to be sworn to.

WIDE AWAKE.

Shannah Brothers' is an establishment that would do credit to cities five times as large as Astoria. Filled as it is with everything choice in the line of dry goods, hosiery, laces and general notions properly belonging to such a store. Mr. David Shannah, the resident partner, is a dry goods man of extensive experience, and his long residence in this city has thoroughly familiarized him with the requirements of the people of this city and vicinity, and he strives to accommodate their demands and necessities.

SEASIDE COTTAGERS.

W. G. McPherson, the Portland manager of the western branch of the Richardson & Boynton Furnace Co., has been over to Seaside, cottage hunting for his family. Mr. McPherson states that all the vacant cottages have been let he being fortunate enough to secure the last one, which he expects to share with the family of F. M. White, a Portland friend.
H. Clausenius, another Portlander, has engaged the Strube cottage at Long Beach, and has his family already quartered there.

NOTICE TO WATER CONSUMERS.

Owing to continuous breaking of the pipe, water in the reservoir has become very low, and in order to get it filled again, water will be turned on to the city until further ordered, only during the hours of 5 to 8 a. m., 11 a. m. to 2 p. m., and 5 to 8 p. m. of each day.
W. N. SMITH,
Supt. City Water Works,
June 28th, 1894.

"A TALENTED EDITOR."

Gentlemen—I had occasion to use several boxes of Krause's Headache Capsules while traveling to Chicago to attend the National Democratic Convention. They acted like a charm in preventing headaches and dizziness. Have had very little headache since my return, which is remarkable.
Yours respectfully,
JOHN U. SHAFER,
Ed. Renovo (Pa.) Record.
