

Tide Table for July, 1894. Table with columns for DATE, HIGH WATER (A.M., P.M.), and LOW WATER (A.M., P.M.).

TODAY'S WEATHER. Portland, July 18.—For Oregon, Washington and Idaho, fair weather, warmer; Friday promises to be fair and cooler.

YESTERDAY'S WEATHER. Local weather for the twenty-four hours ending at 5 p. m. yesterday, furnished by the United States Department of Agriculture weather bureau.

AROUND TOWN. Dealers in baby carriages state that the season of '94 has been the dullest they have experienced in years.

No need of sending East for sewing machines when you can get a Singer machine for $25 at Ford & Stokes.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church will give an ice cream festival in the basement of the church Friday evening, July 20th.

Don't spoil a nice plate of berries with milk, when you can get sweet cream fresh every morning at C. B. Smith, the Ice Cream Dealer.

The drawing of lots in Hill's Lot Clubs was had yesterday, which resulted in Lot 32, Block 30, going to S. Lapadoro; Lot 34, Block 30 going to Wm. Anderson.

Word was received from the Wallucki bridge that one of Campbell Brothers' wood scows had sunk at that point, causing the loss of the scow and considerable cord wood.

An air valve was broken off along the main pipe line of the city water works in Alderbrook Tuesday night. The accident caused considerable excitement but very little damage.

Pat Lawler came very near being thrown into the river yesterday. He was handling a 375 pound sturgeon, and the fish with a flop of his tail knocked Pat down and very nearly overboard.

On the 18th of May Griffin & Reed had shipped to them a case of goods from New York City. Either on account of floods, strikes, or Coxey's Army, they were delayed getting here until yesterday.

There is a basket factory at Gray's Harbor that turned out over a million split baskets of different kinds last year, many of them coming to this city. Why can't our box factories make these same baskets?

A bazaar for the benefit of the Scandinavian M. E. church in Upper Astoria will be given on Saturday evening, at 8:30. A cordial invitation to all. Many useful articles will be sold and refreshments served.

Prof. O. Olsson, D. D., Ph. D., will preach in the Swedish Lutheran church this evening at 8 o'clock. According to a dispatch received from the Rev. Edlund yesterday, he is expected to arrive in Astoria today.

Its "that red-headed dog catcher," when people find out their dog or cow has been impounded, but when they are working him to reduce his fees so they can afford to get the animal out, its familiar "Jim," or respectable "Mr. Petty."

For two hours last evening, sawdust and pieces of lumber filled the channel opposite the city, a strong ebb tide carrying it seaward. The debris came from the Clatsop Mills, where through carelessness it had been dumped into the river.

Inadvertently a mistake was made in the city council report in yesterday's issue of the Astorian. The ordinance appropriating $450 for the benefit of P. D. Ainton for legal services, instead of being laid on the table, was read first and second time and will probably come up for final action at the next meeting of that body.

J. E. Ferguson, who last week walked away with the contract for the bridge across Skamokawa Slough, was awarded the contract for a second bridge by the county commissioners at Cathlamet at their last meeting. The last bridge will be a span bridge, while the former will have a draw. Both bridges will be commenced in a few days.

Fire engine No. 1 was taken out last evening and placed over the hydrant just north of the Tiggs hotel. A line of hose was run up the hill to the large tanks used by C. W. Fulton and neighbors, and pumped full of fresh city water. Up to the time of the terrific storm last January, this reservoir was supplied by a wind mill, which was blown down at that time.

The meeting of attorneys held at Judge Taylor's office last evening for the purpose of forming a local bar association was largely attended, and after some discussion, Messrs. Rowley, C. W. Fulton, and John H. Smith were appointed to recommend a plan of organization at another meeting to be held at the same place on next Wednesday evening.

Stutt's Parlor Theatre, "old Liberty Hall," is now receiving the finishing touches, decorations, etc. Positive opening Thursday, July 26. Entire new scenery by the celebrated artist Ernest Miller. "Regina" will be the first two performances, Thursday and Friday, Saturday and Sunday, benefit for Harry Bolden, Lost in London. Monday and Tuesday, Shakespeare's great tragedy Hamlet, Prince of Denmark.

A jolly party of thirty young people went over on Young's river yesterday afternoon and had an enjoyable time picnicking. They walked out from the city, and a dray carried a sumptuous lunch, which they partook of later in the evening. At dark they stacked up great piles of drift wood on the beach and then lighted a bonfire, around which the whole party congregated, making the night merry with their songs and laughter. They returned late in the evening.

The steamer Columbine goes out to Coos Bay this morning, and will set a whistling buoy in place of the one taken up on her last trip. The buoy had been run into by vessel and damaged so that it was in a sinking condition. On the previous trip the Columbine picked up a whistling buoy on the beach at Netart, that went adrift at Fox Rock, 150 miles to the south, over a year ago. Point Adams was inspected yesterday, and a derelict buoy was picked up in Baker's Bay. Upon the Columbine's return she will be docked for ten days while her machinery undergoes a thorough inspection, and the boilers cleaned.

The little daughter of Mr. D. T. Honeyman, of Portland, now staying at Gearhart Park, fell from a hammock yesterday morning, breaking her right arm. Dr. Paulin, of Portland, a guest at the hotel, temporarily bandaged the broken arm, and the father, who was spending the day at Seaside, was sent for. Dr. Estes accompanied Mr. Honeyman back to the Park, and reduced the fracture, leaving the little one comparatively comfortable. She had only been at the hotel a few hours when the accident happened.

Thos. K. Johnson, the expert diver of Skamokawa, is delving among the sunken ruins of Kinney's cannery, searching for anything that proves of value. He says the whole bottom of the river at that point is covered with cans of salmon, but the contents are burned so badly that they are worthless. It was expected that a large quantity of canned salmon would be found at the spot where the floor gave way and dropped several hundred cases into the water, but on examination it was found that the boxes had burned before the floor, and nothing remains but a great mass of swollen and bursted cans.

Harry Reese, a fireman on the steamer Telephone, met with an accident yesterday that nearly cost him his life. Just before the boat left Portland, Reese went out on the fantail to oil the bearings, and instead of returning through the engine room and going that way to the opposite side to finish the work, he attempted to climb around the narrow frame on the afterpart of the wheel and losing his balance, tumbled over into the stream. No one on the steamer saw him fall, and being unable to swim, Reese would have been drowned had not a passing rowboat come to his rescue. He was taken out just as he was going down for the last time. The first knowledge the boat hands had of the accident was when the rescuers placed the limp form of the fireman on the steamer's deck.

FISHERMEN IN LUCK. On Tuesday night a number of the fisher boys got right on Blazy street and increased their bank accounts with very little effort. They found that a large school of salmon had come over Clatsop spit that night during high tide, and upon the ebb, left the school inside in shoal water. Those gill net fishermen who had their nets cast in that vicinity came in with loaded boats, while Mr. Munson and Tom Jewett, who are partners in running a seine, caught from 250 to 300 of the school. For the number of men it took to capture this lot of fish, it is conceded that this was by far the largest catch of the season.

PERSONAL MENTION. E. A. Seely is down from Portland. J. G. Megler, of Brookfield, is in the city. Isaac Stevens, the well-known lumberman, is in town. Jeff Morrison and D. F. Stafford were in town yesterday. Josiah West, the prominent rancher from Clatsop, visited the city yesterday. Prof. H. S. Lyman returned from a few days' stay on his ranch at Colville Lake. Mr. Brophy, a Portland merchant, will divide his time this week between Astoria and the seaside resorts. Captain Gregory, of the Manzanita, is on the sick list. A severe cold is supposed to be the cause of the trouble, though nothing of a serious nature. Robert L. Livingston, of Chicago, and W. A. Weng, of this city, left yesterday for Gearhart Park, where they intend camping out for the summer.

Additional Telegraph.

MGR. SATOLLI'S OPINION. No Room for Liquor Dealers in Catholic Societies.

New York, July 18.—The Press will tomorrow say: "Mgr. Satolli has just rendered a decision condemning the liquor traffic. He approves of the expulsion of liquor dealers from Catholic societies. This remarkable decision was called forth by an appeal from the ruling of Bishop Watterson, of Columbus, Ohio. During the last Lenten season, Bishop Watterson addressed a letter to the clergy and laity of his diocese, dealing wholly with the temperance problem. One of the societies laid the matter formally before Mgr. Satolli. To this appeal the apostolic delegate has just responded. He sustains the position of Bishop Watterson, and says: 'The liquor traffic and especially as conducted here in the United States, is a source of much evil. Hence the Bishop was acting within his rights in seeking to restrict it.'"

HEAVY SENTENCE. Los Angeles, July 18.—Judge Ross this morning found John Howarth and Engineer Martin Kelly, guilty of contempt of court for violating the injunction at Barstow, and sentenced each to eight months in jail. The severity of the sentence was a surprise.

FOR GOVERNMENT OWNERSHIP. Washington, July 18.—A bill for the purchase of all the railway and telegraph lines by the government has been introduced by Representative Wilson, of Washington, at a request of the author, Dr. F. S. Lewis, of Port Angeles, Washington.

DROPPED HARD. Portland, July 18.—The Multnomah Athletic Club was easy game for the Stanford University team today. The home team were credited with fifteen errors, while the visitors only made six. Score, Stanford 29; Multnomah, 9.

OGDEN GETS A SHOCK. Ogden, July 18.—At 3:50 this afternoon three distinct earthquake shocks were felt. Dishes were shaken from the tables and the walls of some of the large blocks were cracked, and a general shaking up occurred.

NOT READY FOR IT. Albany, July 18.—In the constitutional convention today an amendment sending the question of woman suffrage to the people, was rejected.

Two of Dr. Frank Daman's horses were impounded night before last after the city council had passed the ordinance reducing the penalty from $5 to $2. He was buying himself yesterday morning to find out if the ordinance had become a law in time to save him the $5.

LITTLE BABY WAS RAW. Distressing Skin Disease from Birth. Cured in 5 Weeks by Cuticura. Now Healthy as Can Be. My baby boy had been suffering from birth with some sort of an eruption. The doctors called it eczema. His little neck, chest, and exposed mass of red, inflamed flesh. His arms and across and under his thighs, wherever the fat flesh unfolded, were just the same. For four weeks after his birth he suffered with this eruption, and until I got the CUTICURA REMEDIES, there was little sleep for any one. In five weeks it was completely cured. He was nine weeks old February 1, and you ought to see his skin now smooth, even, and a beautiful pink and white color. He is as healthy as can be. The CUTICURA REMEDIES has given him tone, vigor and strength. I enclose his portrait. W. M. A. GARDNER, 183 E. 12th St., New York.

CUTICURA WORKS WONDERS. From the age of two months my baby suffered from the eczema on her face and body. Doctored without avail. Used CUTICURA REMEDIES, found them in every respect satisfactory. The child has now a beautiful skin and is cured. We cheerfully recommend the same to all mothers. Miss J. ROTHENBERG, 102 First Ave., N. Y.
