FOUND THEM THE BEST.

This is to certify that I have used Krause's Headache Capsules periodically for over a year, and have very much pleasure in stating that they have always proved very beneficial and have relieved me in from ten to fifteen minutes. I have been a sufferer from headache for many years, and have never found anything to do me as much good as Krause's Headache Capsules. Yours Truly, LOUIS HERMAN, 231 Poplar St., Wichita, Kan. MIGHTY IS TRUTH.

And it will prevail. Against unhand competition and spurious imitation the genuine efficacy of the great national tonic, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, always has and always will prevail. The public recognize it everywhere as the chief preventative of malaria, and a reliable specific for dyspepsia, constipation, nervousness, rheumatism, kidney trouble, biliousness, and loss of appetite. Efforts made by reliable dealers to compete with it by indirect means have and will continue to fall upon the heads, and it may be added, the pockets of those making them. Through the length and breadth of the American continent it is the acknowledged household remedy, reliable and prompt. It relies upon facts, upon public experience, and upon the emphatic commendation of the medical fraternity.

Why is it that Bond, between Twelfth and Thirteenth streets is fenced in from public use?

There are a great many people who are put to much inconvenience in not being able to drive over that portion of the road. As it is now in order to go one block, vehicles are driven three. Aside from being a public inconvenience, it is one of the most unsightly places in the city.

If a silver-tongued and persuasive diplomat was wanted as Minister to Russia, it would seem that the president appointed the wrong Breckinridge.

In the court circles of St. Petersburg and the solemnities of Moscow, the distinguished Kentuckian would be a glittering and glorious success. The Breckinridges actually appointed is an Arkansas farmer, a studious and quiet business gentleman, who voted to stop buying silver, and was beaten in his party for re-election.

A POINTER

Many people believe that all blacksmithing jobs are alike—that they are nothing but muscle and material mixed. That is true of ordinary jobs. Brains are also used to make a good job. So is conscience. A job made without skill or honesty is no good. Our work is widely known for its quality, durability and economy in the end. G. A. Stinson & Co.
