TODAY'S WEATHER.

Portland, July 31.—For Washington, Oregon and Idaho, fair weather, warmer.

YESTERDAY'S WEATHER.

Local weather for the twenty-four hours ending at 5 p. m. yesterday, furnished by the United States Department of Agriculture weather bureau.

AROUND TOWN.

Water rates are due today. 'JEFFS' The Only Restaurant.

The Potter had a good-sized passenger list for Clatsop's resorts yesterday.

The steamer Elmore arrive in yesterday from Tillamook with a large cargo of produce for Portland and Astoria merchants.

The Ocean Wave had another good crowd for North Beach yesterday, most of them being families down for the summer.

The purse for the fish boat race during the regatta has been increased to $50, and will probably reach double that sum before the event takes place.

There is nothing more pleasant for a noon or evening lunch these warm days than a 25 cent box of C. B. Smith's ice cream, made from the pure cream.

S. H. Willett is about the busiest contractor in the city. He has so much work on hand, he says, that he has found it necessary to send to Portland for extra men.

The launch being built by Captain Tom Bell at Seaside, to run from that place to Nasel Landing, is nearly completed, and will be ready for service in about two weeks.

The steamer Telephone arrived down yesterday with an unusually large crowd of passengers, enroute to the Clatsop resorts. They were well supplied with camping utensils, and are probably at the beach to remain until the season is over.

A large party of Astorians will go down to Elk Creek and Cannon Beach the coming week. Among them will be F. W. Newell and family and the Misses Youm, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Warren, Miss Lidenberger and Mrs. Page, Frank Spittle, R. W. Gibson and H. T. Findlay. This delightful part of the beach is growing in popular favor every year.

The Astorian's bulletin board yesterday was surrounded by a cosmopolitan crowd, the Oriental war news being of great interest to everyone. Several Japs who were made known the contents of the dispatches, stood on the edge of the sidewalk and grinned excitedly at the Chinamen who flocked around the bulletin and listened to the interpretation of a white man who read the news aloud.

At the meeting of Viking Lodge, of Good Templars on Tuesday evening, the following officers were elected for the ensuing term: P. C. T. C. A. Hanson; Chief Templar, W. A. Mooers; Vice Templar, Miss Wetterling; Chaplain, F. W. Irvin; Secretary, F. E. Hodges; Financial Secretary, P. Gimr; Marshal, Albert Kinney; Superintendent of Juvenile Temple, Mrs. McCormack; Guard, F. Wilkinson; Sentinel, M. V. Herton. Treasurer, G. Indergard.

Several days ago an item appeared in the Astorian relative to the total absence of railings on the gang-planks of the small local steamers, and pointing out the inconvenience and dangers to which the passengers are subjected to on that account. Now, the owners of the steamer Electric wish it understood that they have a gang-plank with railing attachment, that it would be impossible to fall from, and if there is any doubt the public are respectfully invited to call and see for themselves.

The body of Lip Ying, the Chinese woman who died Monday morning at her home on Bond street, was taken to undertaker Poh's rooms yesterday and prepared for shipment to Portland, where the funeral will take place. A number of the deceased woman's friends followed the remains to the steamer Telephone. There was the usual amount of paper throwing to drive the evil one away, and several of the woman gave way to their grief and cried bitterly when they saw the coffin carried out of sight on the steamer. Lip Ying's husband died about six months ago in Portland.

Mr. Quintrell, the carpenter, leaves this morning on the Mansfield for Destruction Island, where he will superintend the erection of an addition to the light station buildings at that place. He is accompanied by a force of men, including carpenters, bricklayers, and plumbers. Mr. Fastabend has the contract for the work, which will take about four weeks to finish.

The steamer Ilwaco went aground at Sand Island yesterday afternoon, and remained there until the tide floated her off at 9 o'clock last evening. She arrived in the city at 9:30 p. m. There were quite a number of passengers aboard bound for Portland, intending to make connection with the seven o'clock steamer. They took matters good naturedly, however, when they saw they were destined to wait over in this city for the night.

The fishermen who were hauled in by Deputy Weeks on Sunday morning for illegal fishing were before Justice Abercrombie yesterday morning. Harry Woods, the trap man, was discharged on account of insufficient evidence. Lawrence Hansen, Ole B. Olsen, and N. Sperma, gillnet men, were each fined $50, which was paid. The cases of the two boat pullers, Antone Stensted and Adolph Hansen, were continued to be heard by Judge McBride at the next session of the circuit court.

The girls at Gearhart Park are complaining bitterly of the report that has been circulated that there are two men to every girl at the Park. The result has been to flood this pleasant resort with girls, and the few men who are there have to go on duty in regular relays, this system having been inaugurated at the commencement of the present week. At sunrise on Monday the beach was as likely as at ordinary noon, and the girls are determined to keep this up till the report has been proved untrue.

Gus Bynon, of the Cathlamet Gazette, accompanied by a party of friends, arrived back yesterday from a trip over the Cowlitz country, where they have been for a few days' outing. They report plenty of game and fish, and say that the people living in that section of the country are enjoying good times in spite of the gloomy condition of the rest of the world. One thing is lacking however, and that is better roads, enabling them to do business with the lower river instead of being compelled to go in a round-about way to Portland. They are hard at work opening up a thoroughfare over the divide to Cathlamet, and when completed, it will bring a great deal of new trade into Astoria.

The first eleven of the Astoria Football Club are now in hard practice for their big game against Fort Canby on Friday evening, and every effort will be made by the local team to give their opponents a hard and exciting game. The home boys will meet the famous Canby cracker with far more confidence than they have yet had, and it is a well known fact, that their style of playing has very greatly improved since the beginning of the season. There will be the usual full team practice again this evening at the point. The names of the players in both teams with full particulars will appear tomorrow. It is generally acknowledged that the low rate of admission to the grounds and car fares which will come into force on Friday is a wise move on the part of the directors.

A delightful party was given by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rogers last evening at their home in honor of their nephews, Harry and Edwin Whitefield, of Minnesota, and an extremely pleasant evening was spent by those present. Mr. and Mrs. Rogers were assisted in receiving their guests by Mrs. W. A. Stine and Mrs. McKenzie. Among the guests were the Misses Van Beneshoten, Olga Heilborn, Agnes Stockton, Alice Woods, Zetta Smith, Mira Youm, Beale Arndt, Laura Heilborn, Nellie Fletcher, Alma Heilborn, Ida Youm, Louise Tallent, Nellie Sherman, Hutton, Edith Conn, Nellie Nickerson, Pearl Holden, Mamie Gilbert, Marie Ford, Sadie Crang, Messrs. O. Prael, L. Hoves A. H. Elmore, M. S. Warren, R. G. Prael, R. E. Carruthers, C. E. Bain, Frank Spittle, W. A. Sherman, E. G. Rogers, H. Mansell, Chas. R. Higgins, C. H. Callender, Ed. Whitefield, Harry Whitefield, Miss Nora Nickerson, and Mr. V. Boelling.

Contractor Houston yesterday won a bet in a way that many a younger man would hesitate before attempting. Workmen are busy putting a new roof on the custom house, and in making the changes the flag rope became detached from the pole. The janitor was much worried as to how he was to replace the line, when the contractor suggested that he should climb the pole and put it back. This the janitor said could not be accomplished, and offered $25 bet Mr. Houston $5 that he could not skin up the frail flagstaff. The genial contractor is not as young as he used to be, by any means, but was not going to be called down by Mr. Janitor, so accepted the wager. Rolling up his sleeves he grasped the pole and winding his legs about it quickly drew himself up a full arm's length, repeating the action until he reached the very top much to the amazement of the janitor, who stood by looking on in wonderment. The latter gentleman is now poorer by five hard dollars, but a much wiser man.

GIVEN UP ALL HOPE. Ezema, Turning to Blood Poison. Treated by Specialists Seven Months without One Particle of Success. BODY RUNNING SORES. Condition Terrible. Life a Burden. FRIED CUTICURA. In Three Days Attends to Business. Cure Permanent.

In the spring of 1891 I took that dreadful skin disease, Ezema, which turned into blood poisoning. I consulted the best known specialists in this city. They treated me for seven months but I never derived a particle of good from any of them. They had given it up as a hopeless cure. I was covered with sores from head to foot. I had running sores all over me, some of them as large as a box of your CUTICURA. It cost me hundreds of dollars with those so-called specialists. My condition was terrible. Life was almost a burden to me. I could not eat, drink, or sleep. I was unable to walk and had given myself up as dead. I tried all medicines imaginable, until a friend who had got relief advised me to try CUTICURA. I sent out and got them, and when I took the first dose of your CUTICURA. I felt a little better; with three boxes of your most valuable CUTICURA and one bottle of CUTICURA RESOLVER I was a new man. In three days I was up and about, and feeling better to my business, and it is the CUTICURA and CUTICURA RESOLVER that saved me from the jaws of death. I will never again be troubled to see if it had been driven out of my system, and I can say I have never had any trouble since. DR. F. BRIGHT, 225 Penn. Ave., Pittsburgh, Pa.
