The Astorian guarantees to its sulscribers the largest circulation of any newspaper published on the Columbia river.

Advertising rates can be obtained on application to the business manager. This paper is in possession of all the telegraph franchises, and is the only paper on the Columbia river that publishes genuine dispatches.

The Daily Astorian's circulation is uve times as great as that of the comed circulation of the other daily papers of Astoria. The Weekly Astorian, the third oldest weekly in the state of Oregon, has, next to the Portland Oregonian, the largest weekly circulation in the state.

None were surprised vesterday when they read in the dispatches that Santo had refused to appeal. It is not probable that it would have been granted had he asked.

The whole trial was a typical instance of the French method of enacting justice upon criminals. There were no interruptions and no wordy battles ple fact was elicited that Caesario Santo, prisoner at the bar, had wilfully slain Sadi-Carnot, president of the French Republic. It was also elicited that the prisoner knew what he was about when he did the slaying, and was glad he had done it. With these facts taken the first step in the direction of in the possession of the jury, the trial abolishing himself. closed and the verdict of guilty was brought in.

A POINTER

Many people believe that all black-smithing jobs are alike—that they are nothing but muscle and material mixed. That is true of ordinary jobs. Brains are also used to make a good job. So is conscience. A job made without skill or honesty is no good. Our work is widely known for its quality, durability and economy in the end.
