The Astorian guarantees to its subscribers the largest circulation of any newspaper published on the Columbia river.

Advertising rates can be obtained on application to the business manager.

This paper is in possession of all the telegraph franchises, and is the only paper on the Columbia river that publishes genuine dispatches.

The Daily Astorian's circulation is five times as great as that of the combined circulation of the other daily papers of Astoria.

The Weekly Astorian, the third oldest weekly in the state of Oregon, has, next to the Portland Oregonian, the largest weekly circulation in the state.

Subscribers to the Astorian are requested to notify this office, without loss of time, immediately they fail to receive their daily paper, or when they do not get it at the usual hour.

THE ONE CHANCE LEFT.

Only three months hence the people will elect another congress. The struggle over the tariff has been so prolonged and doubtful that the effect of various measures upon the congressional election has been but little discussed.

It will be observed that while the more noisy free traders are shouting for the house bill not a single one of them expects any such bill to be passed.

It seems that the senate conferees are about to press the button and let the November voters do the rest.

It is said that Mr. Corbett's impressions of England have not been gathered in a scrap book.

PIREMEN'S ELECTION. An election will be held on Monday, August 13th, 1894, at the house of Rescue Engine Company, for the purpose of electing one chief engineer and two assistants.

EXTENDED SYMPATHY. "Do unto others as you would have others do unto you," is sympathetically shown in the following lines, the presumption being that sympathy is born, or akin to pain or sorrow.

PROVEN A BOON. Gentlemen—I have always recommended Krause's Headache Capsules wherever I have had a chance.

PORTLAND UNIVERSITY. 1. Location beautiful, healthful, and free from all places of temptation.

2. Best instruction given in College, Preparatory, Normal, and Business courses; also in Theology, Music and Art.

3. Board in West Hall, Club Houses, or private families, $100 to $200 per year for Board and Tuition.

4. Fall term opens September 18. Catalogues free. Address, C. C. STRATTON, D. D., President.

Do you intend getting a pair of shoes for the boy? Don't let habit or persuasion lead you elsewhere before you see what can be done here.

The trade clock indicates that the buyer's hour has come to obtain a watch from our stock at a price that will surprise you.

Don't go to Portland to buy your tickets for the "Old Country" and the East when you can get them for the same price at the Union Pacific office in this city.

We are out gunning for the man who says he can't get his watch repaired without sending it to San Francisco.

stoppage of agitation would unquestionably bring about a swift and very general improvement in business.

The plague continues in China, notwithstanding the intelligent methods adopted by that ingenious people to arrest its progress.

According to yesterday's dispatches the emperor of China has not taken the yellow jacket away from Li Hung Chang.

The up-to-date results of the tariff wrangle are the indefinite postponement of Mr. Cleveland's summer vacation.

It seems that the senate conferees are about to press the button and let the November voters do the rest.
