

YESTERDAY'S RACES

They are Started off in Excellent Style.

THE LIFE SAVING DRILL

The Sloops and Schooners Make a Pretty Sight on Their Long Winding Course.

Yesterday was the first day of the yachting carnival, and to say the least it was a big success.

Thousands of people lined the waterfront, standing on boxes, barrels, and anything that would raise them into a position where a good view of the racing course could be had.

The Manzanita was the flag boat, and went to anchor off Flavel's dock at 9:30 a. m.

No. 9. 2:30 p. m.—Swimming race (100 yards) off O. R. and N. dock. Entries, H. Twilight, Thos. Rawlings, Nace Grant. Prize, silver cup.

No. 10. 3 p. m.—Life Saving Drill by Fort Canby crew (Rescue drill).

No. 11. 3:30 p. m.—By request, Life Saving drill of yesterday repeated.

No. 12. 4 p. m.—Hose race, Commercial street.

The Point Adams Life Saving drill was an interesting feature of the day.

The officers of the Monterey were entertained at the Irving Club last night.

The jolly tars on board the Monterey danced to the music of the Fourteenth Infantry band.

The Monterey will be open to visitors from 1:30 to 5 p. m., including Sunday, during her stay in port.

The Manzanita and Columbine race was one of the interesting features of the day. It was a pretty race from start to finish.

In the sloop race the Pearl came in winner and in the schooner race the Grace gets the prize. The time was not obtainable.

At 4:30 British Vice-Consul P. L. Cherry paid his respects to the captain of the Monterey, and was received with the customary salute.

Postmaster Wise did a nice thing yesterday in sending the Monterey's mail to the steamer directly after listing go anchor in the stream.

The steamer Telephone will give an excursion to Seaside tomorrow morning. Tickets for the round trip, $1. Everybody should take in this picnic.

The Foresters gave a grand regatta ball at Fisher's Hall last night. A large crowd was in attendance. They danced until a late hour, and all in all it proved one of the most enjoyable occasions of the season.

The life saving crews will give an exhibition drill again this afternoon. A line will be thrown across the Manzanita by the Canby crew, and a buoy sent from shore. The Point Adams crew will repeat their drill of yesterday.

In the sloop race Mand K. went over the line first, closely followed by the Pearl, and Mayflower. All three rounded the first buoy nearly together, but on the long stretch across to the North Shore cannery, the Pearl got a heavy lead which she kept throughout. It was a pretty race.

On the Manzanita yesterday Captain Gregory entertained his guests in a royal manner. Stutta's band was aboard and furnished excellent music for the occasion. Many of the younger members of the party danced in the place on deck cleared for the purpose. Of course everyone on the vessel wore the Manzanita's colors.

The schooner race was probably the finest and prettiest contested race of the day. The entries were A. Booth Packing Co's "Grace," George & Barker's "Active," and S. Elmore's "Frank Sanborn." At the report of the gun, the Sanborn jumped off with the lead, the Grace second, and the Active some distance behind. On rounding the buoy at Booth's the Sanborn and Grace were abreast, and started on a rattling good tack over to McGowan's. To the surprise of everybody, the boat everybody thought "was not in it," came up like a second Vigilant and took the lead. From this point to the end of the race the Sanborn and Active jockeyed each other and allowed the Grace to make her own way. Rounding the stake boat at McGowan's the Grace led by over two minutes, and increased this lead in the run over to Fort Stevens by fully three minutes more, and eventually won by eleven minutes, the Active and Sanborn coming in together, the Sanborn slightly ahead. Booth's boat was handled in an exceptionally good manner, and although about equal to the Active in reaching and tacking, is far their superior before the wind. Next Monday they race again with probably the additional boats "Brimson Hunter" and "Kinney," and we look for the Grace to again romp home an easy winner.

Up on deck they were busy washing down and getting ready to receive visitors on the morrow.

Following is the list of officers on the Monterey. It will be noticed that
