

YESTERDAY'S WEATHER.

Local weather for the twenty-four hours ending at 5 p. m. yesterday, furnished by the United States Department of Agriculture, weather bureau. Maximum temperature, 70 degrees. Minimum temperature, 60 degrees. Precipitation, .01 inch. Total precipitation from September 1st, 1893, to date, 58.51 inches. Excess of precipitation from September, 1893, to date, 26.97 inches.

AROUND TOWN.

'JEFF'S' The Only Restaurant. Unfermented wine for church purposes, at Rogers' drugstore. The Central Restaurant will be kept open day and night during the regatta. Rev. Appel will conduct services at the Baptist church tonight at 8 o'clock. Randal Reed, who is staying at Gearhart, cut his foot badly with an axe last week. Those ladies who gambled on the races yesterday might be appropriately called tiger lilies. Two hundred and eighty people attended the Episcopal excursion on the Telephone last night. Agent Borzhoff, of the O. R. and N., has booked forty passengers for Finland during the past three days. To explain so often why he cut off his chin whiskers, Brother Crosby has now gone to raising a chin beard. The Monterey was open to visitors from 1:30 to 5:30 this afternoon and was visited by hundreds of people. D. W. Hutchinson, who has been employed at Cutting's cannery, has resigned his position and left for Vancouver. Chris Johnson leaves today for Nehalem to take charge of the Nehalem Packing company. He will return about the middle of November. The ladies of Viking Lodge of Good Templars will have ice cream, cake, and lemonade on sale at Rescue Hall during the regatta. Call and see them. A baseball match will be played today at the Smith's Point grounds, between the "Sea Views" and Astorians. Admission, 25 cents. A good game is guaranteed. By the impressions made by the lady visitors on some of the crew of the Columbine, she will soon be compelled to take a cruise for the land of orange blossoms. One of the Monterey's crew may have been to Africa, but it is doubtful if he convinced several of our citizens that it is true that a camel can go forty days without a drink. When the mortar was fired at the life saving drill, it rebounded to a distance of thirty feet. The crowd did not move away a moment too soon, several narrowly escaping the flying gun. The Delmonico Restaurant was one of the best decorated places of business in the city, and the cook claims he is going to give a chicken dinner today that will excel the decorations. The Baker City Democrat says that "some person stepped upon one of Gov. Pennoyer's corns and immediately asked his pardon, whereupon the governor drew one from his pocket, already signed."

For a delicious plate of ice cream, made from the pure cream, go to C. B. Smith, the confectioner and ice cream dealer. Ice cream soda a specialty. Private parlors for ladies. 483 Commercial street. The new pump ordered by the water commission to assist the flow into the reservoir, and which will be stationed at the street railway power house, will be in on the steamer which is due this morning. It will be attached at once. Visitors wishing to carry home a keepsake from Astoria or Seaside should call at Niemi's Jewelry store and select a piece of the fine china he has in stock decorated with scenery about Tillamook Rock, Gearhart Park and Seaside. Rumors that a murder had been committed at Cathlamet were circulating thick and fast yesterday, but were so conflicting that it is impossible to tell whether there is any truth in the story or not. An effort to verify the statements proved futile. A pretty little Portland widow, who her fair sisters say is looking out for No. 2, was among the regatta spectators yesterday, much to the consternation of the numerous summer girls, as somehow the members of the stern-or sex answered to her beck and call. Stutz's Theatre. An excellent house and last performance of "American Born." Tonight, by special request, "The Danites." Monday night, last and only performance of "Forgiven, or the Gambler's Wife." Company larger and more powerful than ever. Monday night last day of regatta and all prizes given away at Stutz's Theatre. One of Portland's dry goods clerks was fairly swelling with the sensation he caused among the fair sex on the docks watching the regatta. But he killed the prevailing impression that he was of the leisure class by fishing out a pair of scissors from his vest pocket and clipping the raw edges off his cuffs. Yesterday it was stated in the Astorian extra that British Vice-Consul P. L. Cherry was received aboard the Monterey with the customary salute. It was a mistake, as the salute was given upon the visit of Swedish Vice-Consul Arthur Wilson. Mr. Cherry visited the Monterey, but at his personal request to Captain Kempf, no salute was fired. According to the first page of the Albany Democrat, "there is a German painter who works in the country near that city and every day for the past two months he has come to Albany and after purchasing a ticket for Portland, gets beastly drunk. He is put in jail every afternoon, but he is out and purchasing more tickets the next day only to get drunk again. Can't some one ring down the L. F. on this fellow?" Fred Leinenweber is here looking after the interests of the Leinenweber estate. It is understood that Mrs. Mrs. Leinenweber will improve and make use of her property here, and some important developments may be looked for next year. Fred has just returned from Heidelberg, Germany, where he took a three years' course in a medical college.—Tillamook Headlight. The failure of the corn crop in Kansas and Nebraska has been heard of by a number of the visitors to the regatta, and the way they crowded the bar at the Occident yesterday necessitated the employment of an extra barkeep. He is a good one, too, and the way he can take the extract of the golden, glorious corn and surround it with springs of mint, goes to show that even over the bar "nature must give place to art."

A. A. Kinney, a fireman on the Monterey, is a brave man. Yesterday during the Point Adams drill, a little boy near the Iwaoo's slip, fell into the water and would certainly have drowned had it not been for the coolness and bravery of Mr. Kinney, who jumped into the water and rescued the child. He was very modest about the whole affair, when approached on the subject, simply stating that he had only done his duty. The Astoria Football Club showed their appreciation by ordering engraved a handsome gold medal which will be presented before the Monterey leaves port. PERSONAL MENTION. E. A. Noyes, of Portland, is in the city visiting friends. C. R. Thomson and family left yesterday to finish their vacation at Seaside. Judge Stevenson, wife and daughter, of Portland, are in the city during the regatta. Peter Shladstad leaves for Florence, Oregon, tomorrow, to take charge of a salmon cannery at that point. J. H. Murphy and wife, of Portland, are in the city until after the regatta. Mr. Murphy is here to relieve Manager Overbeck during the recess. HO FOR SEASIDE. The steamer Telephone will carry passengers to the Young's bay bridge this morning where an excursion train will leave for Seaside. The Fourteenth Infantry band will accompany the excursion. Grand free dancing in Gilbert's Park at Seaside. Round trip tickets on sale at the Telephone dock. Boat leaves at 8:20 a. m. CHALLENGE. I hereby challenge the sloops Maud K. and Mayflower to race my sloop, Pearl, over the 12 1/2 knot course run on Saturday, race to be within two weeks' time, regatta rules, and for a purse of from $500 to $1000 a side. Z. TABELL. CHURCH DECORATIONS. Under the skillful hands of Miss Lulu Rice, the M. E. Church will present at attractive and beautiful interior, appropriate to the interesting services of this church today. The fact that Mrs. Crosby has charge of the musical department insures its success. ALL FREE.
