Clatsop City, Or., Nov. 2. Editor Astorian:--

The following is a portion of the "Clatsop School Times," edited and published by Parker West, which was read before the Columbia Literary Society of Clatsop School.

Editorial-In our first issue of this new venture in the journalistic field, we have no apologies to offer, for it has been said that an apology is simply egotism turned wrong side out, and we do not wish to have our egotism examined on the inside. We do not know whether we have come to stay or not, so do not ask us. Time will tell; go ask him.

FINAL ACCOUNT.

start a Library.—Here is an idea it may be well to consider: As Clatsop winters will not permit us to be much out of the school room, we might start a circulating library. Each one could bring some book to school and exchange with his neighbor—of course having it understood that the borrowed property is to have the best care.

Personal.—Mr. Josish West returned.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned has filed her final account, as administratrix of the estate of Charles T. Strom, deceased, in the county court of the State of Oregon for Clatsop county, and the time for hearing thereon, by said court, set for Monday, December 3d, A, D. 1894, at the hour of objections thereto, will then and there appear, and show cause if any why the same shall not be allowed, and the administratrix discharged.
