A REPUBLICAN HOUSE

Probably the Senate Will Also Fall in Line.

MISSOURI HAS A GREAT SURPRISE.

The Entire State Ticket is Republican by 10,000.

TENNESSEE STILL DOUBTFUL.

Hill Gets a Small Majority in New York City But Loses the State By Over 150,000.

Associated Press.

Washington, Nov. 7.—Reports received to 9 o'clock tonight indicate the next senate will have 40 Democrats, 41 Republicans, and 6 Populists, while the attitude of the successor of Senator Harris, of Tennessee, is still in doubt. In this classification Senators Stewart and Jones, of Nevada, who were elected by the Republicans, but who have announced their separation from that party, and Gov. Tillman, who will be doubtless elected by the so-called independent Democrats of the South Carolina legislature, are put in the Populist column. Tillman will probably vote with the Democrats on organization, and Stewart and Jones, of Nevada, and Peffer, with the Republicans. This would throw the balance of power in the hands of the Populists.

A SUMMING UP.

Washington, Nov. 7.—The loss of Kansas, New Jersey and South Carolina reduces the present Democratic total in the senate from 44 to 41. The present Republican strength in the senate of 23 promises to be increased by the senators from New Jersey, Kansas, Montana, Washington, and Wyoming. The last three are vacancies. The Republicans are likely to lose Nebraska. This makes a gain of five and a loss of 1, or a gain of four, raising the Republican to a total of 42. The Populists now have three senators. The returns indicate one for them in South Carolina and Nebraska, making their total five. Senators Jones and Stewart, of Nevada, have of late affiliated with the Populists, so their strength may be increased, and the Republicans decreased, by two. The estimate of the next senate by Chairman Babcock gives the Republicans 44, out of 88 senators. He counts upon Peffer's co-operation to organize.

THE HOUSE CERTAINLY REPUBLICAN.

Washington, Nov. 7.—When Chairman Babcock, of the Republican congressional committee left the Republican headquarters tonight he said the reports received during the day give the Republicans 230 out of the 356 members of the house beyond peradventure, while there was a possibility of securing 27 additional members. If those claims are realized, it will give the Republicans 257 members, or a majority of 99.

A REPUBLICAN ESTIMATE.

Washington, Nov. 7.—The Republican congressional committee has given out an estimate claiming that in the house of the Fifty-fourth Congress the Republicans will have a majority of the delegations of thirty states, the Democrats twelve, and the Populists one, with Maryland divided evenly, giving the Republicans more than two-thirds of a majority by states, should the next presidential election be thrown into the house.

FAULKNER GIVES UP.

Washington, Nov. 7.—Senator Faulkner, chairman of the Democratic congressional committee, concedes the house to the Republicans by 65 to 70 plurality. The senate will not be Republican, he says, unless that party carries Tennessee, which is still uncertain, or unless Peffer votes with the Republicans.

WASHINGTON, D. C.

Washington, Nov. 7.—Chairman Babcock, of the Republican congressional committee, claims the Republicans will organize the next United States senate. His information is that the Tennessee legislature will send a Republican to succeed Harris.

NORTH CAROLINA.

Washington, Nov. 7.—North Carolina has undoubtedly elected a Republican legislature.

DELAWARE.

Wilmington, Nov. 7.—Delaware complete gives the Republican majority 1109. The Republicans elect the governor and congressmen. The legislature will stand eighteen Republicans, twelve Democrats. This insures a Republican successor to Senator Higgins.

NEW YORK.

New York, Nov. 7.—Bartlett, Democrat is elected to congress from the Seventh district, instead of Fort, Republican, as previously reported. The completion of the congressional delegation from New York state, according to nearly complete returns, is thirty Republicans and four Democrats. The Republicans gain fifteen.

IN WALL STREET.

Republican Success Gives Stocks a Strong Tone.

New York, Nov. 7.—Speculation on the stock exchange this morning was marked by a very strong tone, and there was good buying throughout the entire list. It was very evident that Wall street was satisfied by the election and believes that Republican success will be followed by a revival of trade and general business improvement throughout the country.

The significance of the result from a speculative point of view, and what makes it certain as the street reads the situation, that for the present no tariff tinkering will be induced with its disturbing influences of the community, and the downfall of the Populists in the West checks the growth of agitation which had already become powerful enough to be hurtful to business in the street by reason of attacking the stability of the monetary system and tending toward inflation.

FOR GREATER NEW YORK.

New York, Nov. 7.—The returns from all except a few missing election districts show an apparent plurality in New York city for the consolidation of greater New York of over 34,000 in the city.

NEW YORK'S CORRECTED VOTE.

New York, Nov. 7.—The total corrected vote for governor outside of Sullivan county, was 1,208,259, of which Morton received 667,485; Hill, 514,164; Wheeler, 24,511. Morton's plurality, 153,346; Morton's majority, 126,233.

HILL IN NEW YORK.

New York, Nov. 7.—The revised total vote for governor in New York city give Hill a plurality of 2,907.

COLORADO.

Denver, Nov. 7.—Returns come in slowly, according to the latest estimate the Republican state ticket has a plurality of 29,000. Shafroth, Republican, is elected to congress from the First district, and probably Bowen, Republican, in the Second. The legislature is 54 Republicans, 43 Democrats and Populists, and three doubtful.

GOVERNOR WAITE'S OPINION.

He Believes Wall Street Bought the Result.

Denver, Nov. 7.—Governor Waite conceded the defeat of his party early today. "To my mind," said he, "it proves conclusively that the money power has dominated this election from beginning to end, and that the Democratic party is most responsible, from the fact that they vote the Republican ticket instead of their own. I made up my mind several years ago that there was only one way to rescue the country from the conditions now existing, and for which the money power is responsible, and that was to fight them tooth and nail. I believe the influence of Wall street must be removed from Congress.

"The result in Colorado can be accounted for from the fact that the Democratic party have almost to a man voted for the Republican ticket. It proves to me that there is absolutely no difference in the financial policy of the Democratic and Republican parties in Colorado, as the Democrats undoubtedly voted the Republican ticket on account of orders received from Washington."

When asked if he thought the Populist party would ever again regain power, the Governor said: "I believe it will, but it may not be for some time." The governor said the women's influence in the cities where it is the greatest, was exerted against him. The women, he said, must be educated to think for themselves, and not be controlled by the money power as the men are.

ILLINOIS.

Chicago, Nov. 7.—Returns today show continued gains for the Republicans on the state ticket, headed by Wullif for state treasurer. Indications were for a Republican plurality of 108,000.

Every man on the Republican county ticket is elected by pluralities ranging from 14,000 to 25,000. The state legislature will be Republican, insuring a Republican successor to Cullom. The surprising Republican gains indicate each of the seven congressional districts in the city Republican, with the possible exception of Congressman Mc-

Gann's district. Some of the Democratic managers concede his defeat today.

GREAT REPUBLICAN VICTORY

Chicago, Nov. 7.—Chairman Tanner says the Republicans have a plurality in Illinois of over 125,000. They have elected nineteen congressmen out of twenty-two, with two remaining still in doubt.

INDIANA.

Indianapolis, Nov. 7.—Partial returns indicate the state Republican by at least 50,000. The Republican state committee says it will not be surprised if the plurality reaches 70,000. The Republicans have elected eleven, and possibly all of the thirteen members of congress. The Democrats still have hopes that S. M. Stockalger in the Third, and W. Shotman in the Fourth districts are elected. The legislature is Republican in both branches.

GENERAL HARRISON'S VIEWS.

The Most Extraordinary Political Revolution Ever Witnessed.

Indianapolis, Nov. 7.—In response to a request by an Associated Press reporter for the expression of his views regarding the results of yesterday's election, Harrison said:

"It was the most extraordinary political revolution the country has ever witnessed. Wherever there was a free ballot vote of confidence given in 1892 to the Democratic party, if one was given it has been recalled, and a vote of utter and final repudiation substituted. The incoherence of the Democratic party was revealed the moment power was given to it to deal with national affairs. The insincerity of its platform was exposed when 'Be it enacted' took the place of 'Be it resolved.' A vast majority of our people believe in a protective tariff, but never so many and so strongly as now. They differ as to rates and schedules, but not as to principle. They believe in reciprocity as the best method of getting foreign markets. They believe in a progressive and American foreign policy. Workingmen voted their prejudices in 1892; this year they voted their patriotism and love of home.

WASHINGTON.

Tacoma, Nov. 7.—Secretary Cowan, of the Republican state central committee, now claims 79 members of the next legislature out of a total of 117, giving a majority on a joint ballot of 23. The Republican state ticket is elected by so large a majority that the counts have ceased.

WASHINGTON GIVES THE USUAL MAJORITY.

Seattle, Nov. 7.—Returns for one-fourth of the entire state of Washington show the following results for congressmen: Doolittle, Republican, 5,725; Hyde, 4,564. Houston, Democrat, 2,462; Caton, 2,530. Adams, Populist, 4,969; VanPatton, 4,730. The Republican plurality in the state will probably be about 15,000. Dunbar and Gordon, Republicans, for supreme judges, are elected by about the same pluralities as the congressmen. The legislature is Republican in both branches, and on joint ballot the Republicans will have at least twenty-five majority, insuring the election of a Republican United States senator now existing.

WASHINGTON'S LEGISLATURE.

Seattle, Nov. 7.—The Post-Intelligencer makes the composition of the next legislature as follows: Senate—Republicans, 26; Democrats, 8. House—Republicans, 87; Democrats, 13; Populists, 8. Republican majority on joint ballot, 54.

OHIO.

Cleveland, Nov. 7.—The latest advices from the state indicate the Republicans have elected candidates for congress in every district except the third, where Sorg, Democrat, has been elected, and the Fourth, where the result is still in doubt. The Republicans will have 19, and possibly 20 members in the next congress from Ohio. Tom L. Johnson, Democrat, is defeated by Theodore E. Buxton, Republican, who has a plurality of 4,662.

GOV. MCKINLEY PLEASED.

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 7.—Gov. McKinley was in his office early, considering that he was out almost all of last night. Being asked what he thought about the situation, he proferred not to talk. He would only say: "The sweeping Republican victories indicated at this hour are impressive. They need no interpretation. They express better than words, the revised and deliberate judgment of the people upon public questions involved in the political contest now closed."

Cincinnati, Nov. 7.—Returns indicate that the Republican plurality for secretary of state will exceed 150,000. The present Ohio delegation in congress consists of 11 Democrats and 10 Republicans. The newly elected delegation consists of 19 Republicans and two Democrats, P. F. Borg and P. C. Layton, Democrats, are elected by pluralities less than 100.

THEY DIDN'T LIKE IT

For Upholding the Law, an Officer is Snowed Under.

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 7.—Sheriff Cook, of Washington Court House, who prevented the mob from hanging the negro who confessed to rape and was sent to prison for 20 years, was defeated at the election by 1,650. He was a Republican and had 1,900 votes in his favor to start with.

DEMOCRATS DID NOT COME OUT.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Nov. 7.—While Republicans' plurality in Ohio is a double M, their plurality of last year, the total vote for the Republican ticket falls several thousand short of the vote for McKinley, showing a result due to the Democrats' vote not coming out.

KANSAS.

Topeka, Nov. 7.—Chairman Briedenthal still claims the state for the Populists, and five of eight congressmen. Attorney General Tittle, however, concedes Kansas to the Republicans. The Republican state committee says all the returns received show Republican gains.

Topeka, Nov. 7.—Chairman Briedenthal, of the Populist state central committee, at noon today said: "We are beaten. I feel as if I had been through a threshing machine." He conceded the Republicans had carried the entire state and every one of the eight congressional districts, with a possible chance for the Populists in the Seventh (Simpson's) and Sixth (Baker's) districts. The Republican state central committee says that Morrill will carry Kansas by a 2,500 plurality. The Republicans have elected 89 members of the legislature out of 125, and the suffrage amendment is probably beaten.

KANSAS IS REPUBLICAN.

Topeka, Nov. 7.—The Republicans have carried Kansas by a plurality of possibly 10,000, and will have a slight majority over all. The legislature is Republican by 45 majority on joint ballot.

NEBRASKA.

Omaha, Nov. 7.—Only a third of the state has been heard from. The figures received indicate the election of Holcomb, Populist-Democrat, for governor, by a small plurality. The Republicans have probably elected five of the six congressmen, with the result in the Sixth still in doubt. Outside the governor the Republican state ticket is elected, and the legislature is probably Republican on a joint ballot.

HOLCOMB IN NEBRASKA.

Omaha, Nov. 7.—The Republican state committee concedes Holcomb, fusionist, is elected governor by 2,000.

RHODE ISLAND.

Boston, Nov. 7.—Rhode Island elects both Republican congressmen by over 3,000 majority. A telegram from Hartford reports the Republican state ticket and four Republican congressmen chosen in Connecticut.

MINNESOTA.

Minneapolis, Nov. 7.—The Republicans have swept Hennepin county, giving Nelson for governor, 6,000 plurality, and electing Loren Fletcher to congress by 7,000 and Robert Pratt mayor of Minneapolis by 5,000, and winning the county and city tickets. Minnesota elects six Republican congressmen, with the result in the Third district still in doubt. The legislature will be heavily Republican, sending a Republican senator to succeed Washburn.
