The Weekly Astorian, the third oldest weekly in the state of Oregon, has next to the Portland Oregonian, the largest weekly circulation in the state.

Handley & Haas are our Portland agents and copies of the Astorian can be had every morning at their stand on First street.

The proprietor of the Astorian hereby gives notice that he will not be responsible for any bill on account of that paper, unless the same be contracted through himself, or Mr. James A. Duffy, as business manager.

Astoria, Or., Oct. 6, 1894. SAM'L ELMORE, Proprietor.

OUR SALEM FRIEND.

The Salem Independent has always shown a warm interest in Astoria's endeavors to secure a railroad, and has never failed to give it a favorable mention.

The prospects for a railroad from Astoria to some transcontinental connection are much brighter. They have fruited almost into a certainty.

There are a good many native Mis-sourians living in Astoria, and strange to say, they are all Republicans. One can pick them out of a crowd at any time just now, since the news has been confirmed that the old state has thrown off the shackles of Democracy.

Adolph Sutro, the mayor-elect of San Francisco, will be able to play his cards with a high hand now. We venture to predict that Mr. Sutro will make a good mayor.

With a railroad building in the spring and $300,000 being expended on new waterworks, there is no reason why Astoria will not be a pretty good place for one to live in.

It is quite possible that Mr. Boney, of Pacific county, Wash., has, ere this, shed copious tears in looking over the Checks That Pass in the Night.

New York seems about to charge Chicago with postponing her criminal executions in order to swell that registration list.

It fills us with an interesting surprise to learn the Chinese Emperor is aggrieved at the way the war is going.

TEACHERS' EXAMINATION. The regular quarterly examination of applicants for county or state teachers' certificates will be held at Court street school house, beginning at 1 o'clock p. m., Wednesday, November 14, 1894.

Unless it is the dispatch that the Chinese tried to purchase the British naval fleet in Chinese waters, nothing so funny has been reported as the following from the Chicago Grocer: "One of the effects of the prolonged contest between China and Japan is that an increased demand for American flour has been created."

the color showed in William's glass. He is over-doing the joy and France the sorrow about the death of the Czar.

The Cathlamet Gazette, to say the least, is inconsistent. In an editorial column it makes the statement that Hon. J. G. Megier run behind his ticket in every precinct in the whole district, except Brookfield, while on the same page in another column it publishes the returns which show that in many precincts he ran far ahead of his ticket.

Today the subsidy contract committee will make a report on the proposition submitted by Messrs. Stanton and associates. It is hoped that the matter will be decided upon without any prejudice in favor of other railroad promoters who are said to be on their way hither.

But one or two deeds to the pipe-line right-of-way are wanted before the work will commence on clearing away the trees and brush along the route surveyed. The sooner the deeds are all in the sooner will the people have the use of the thousands of dollars lying idle in the banks.

There is no ordinance in this city authorizing the chief of the fire department to enter places of amusement and remain during the performance without paying his way the same as other people.
