

FOR MEN MUST WORK

The Many Uncomplaining But Weary Toilers.

They Go Without Rest to Make Sure of Happiness for Others.

Overwrought Nerves Work Half Fed and Cry Out With Pain.

For eight out of every ten who take a vacation, there remains behind some hard working, uncomplaining toiler who is only too happy if he can provide a rest and a change for those dear to him.

And it is lucky if in many cases this self-denial does not get to be regarded as a duty, and the thought of a rest for one's self a thing impossible.

The number of such overwrought men who simply toll right on without so much as a two weeks' respite during the year is surprisingly large.

Grateful wives and children should see, then, that these cheerful and unselfish fathers and brothers do not work themselves to death. Signs of falling strength and nervous weakness, that none detect so quick as they, should be promptly and firmly combated.

A thorough feeding of worn-out nervous tissues by Paine's celery compound soon does away with every form of nervous debility and exhaustion.

In every city in this country there are homes that have escaped sickness and misfortune because some prudent member has known the value of Paine's celery compound for strengthening nerves and brain, purifying the blood, and building up the vigor of the tired body.

CLIPPINGS.

Captain Peterson, of the schooner Fanny Duard, says the Seattle Telegraph, came over from Port Blakely Saturday on purpose to see Captain Hunter, of the steamship Umattila, who made rather a cutting remark to a Telegraph reporter concerning the schooner, Captain Peterson, it will be remembered, gave the Telegram the first news of the foundering of a ship off Cape Fatery, which everybody now concedes was the coal ship Ivanhoe.

The Columbia River pack this year, says the San Francisco Grocer and Country Merchant, was not large and the low prices at which the Alaska catch was put on the market, caused a large demand for home use.

A very encouraging feature of the wheat situation is to be found in the use of this article for stock feed. Estimates of the influence of this fact have been very much out of plumb, but notwithstanding this there is good reason to believe that a large percentage of lower grade wheat will be disposed of in this way.

other stock, 682 out of 812 reported similar use of wheat by neighbors and 682 out of 859 reported corn husking disappointing. By way of a summary it may be said that of the number responding to inquiries, 81 per cent in Indiana, 75 in Illinois, 64 in Iowa, and all in Kansas, Nebraska, and Oklahoma, fed wheat. It is much to be hoped that this practice will contribute materially to the solution of the vexed problem of overproduction, the most potent agency in the present depression.

NOVEMBER SCRIBNER.

Scribner's Magazine for November is replete with good things. The seasonable article from the trenchant pen of Julien Ralph, "Election Night in a Newspaper Office," in its graphic and clear-cut style, is like a series of pictures flashed upon the sheet.
