This paper is in possession of all the telegraph franchises, and is the only paper on the Columbia river that publishes genuine dispatches.

The Weekly Astorian, the third oldest weekly in the state of Oregon, has, next to the Portland Oregonian, the largest weekly circulation in the state.

Handley & Haas are our Portland agents and copies of the Astorian can be had every morning at their stand on First street.

The proprietor of the Astorian here by gives notice that he will not be responsible for any bill on account of that paper, unless the same be contracted through himself, or Mr. James A. Duffy, as business manager.

ASTORIA, OR., OCT. 6, 1894. SAM'L ELMORE, Proprietor.

CHRISTMAS.

Another month and Christmas will be here. The magic word calls to one's mind childish days when for weeks before that eventful day, the one thought was of what old Santa would bring.

There were sad little hearts then, and there are now, hearts that have never been made glad by the generous visits of this strange old fellow from the Arctic.

Here in Astoria we are not in exception to this class, for it would not be a very hard matter to find a number of homes where Christmas will be anything but a happy day.

Not long ago it was the fashion to sneer at "religion in politics," and "God and morality party," was the choicest theme for scoffing before certain audiences.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned has filed her final account, as administratrix of the estate of Charles T. Strom, deceased.

TO THE VOTERS OF THE THIRD WARD. My political opponents have circulated rumors to the effect that if elected I shall oppose the contemplated improvement of the alleyway through blocks 2, 3, and 4, Adair's Astoria.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder World's Fair Highest Medal and Diploma.

To those of our late railroad visitors who were in this section of the country for the first time, nothing was more surprising than the extent and importance of the government work at the mouth of the river.

The spectacle of Mr. Carlisle's helplessness and utter incompetency in the face of the crisis to which the policies of his party have brought the public treasury would be pitiful, if it were not so exasperating and serious.

All the Populists, and some of the Democratic papers charge the banks with pursuing a policy of hoarding gold to "pinch" the treasury into making further loans.

The reader of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages.
