DISHONOR AND DEATH.

Warden Coblenz, of Washington's Penitentiary Suicides.

PENDLETON GROWING BETTER.

Two Gamblers are Arrested and the Balance Taken to the Hills.

Associated Press.

Walla Walla, Dec. 8.—J. H. Coblenz, warden of the state penitentiary, committed suicide this evening in his private office at his residence at the penitentiary, by shooting himself through the head with a .45 Colt's revolver. The past few weeks Coblenz and the board of penitentiary directors have been wrangling among themselves, and last week the directors filed specific charges against Coblenz for malfeasance in office, and at the same time requested Coblenz' resignation. He refused to resign. Charges were sent to Governor McGraw, and Wednesday Coblenz left for the Sound, presumably to see the governor and fix the matter up. In the meantime Gov. McGraw left for Walla Walla, arriving here yesterday, and in company with the directors, went to the penitentiary, where a consultation was had, but no definite action was taken that afternoon. This morning Coblenz telegraphed he would return today, and arrived this afternoon, when he was summoned before the board and an investigation of the charges began. It developed that 136,000 grain bags had been disposed of, with no money to account for the same. At first Coblenz put on a brave front, and made an attempt at denial of the charges, but finally gave in and admitted that everything was not entirely straight. Governor McGraw then handed Coblenz an order discharging him as warden and appointing Deputy Warden Cameron to fill the vacancy, temporarily. Upon the return of the governor and board to the city a warrant was sworn out, charging Coblenz with felonious falsification of state money. This was given Deputy Sheriff Billingsworth to serve. When the deputy went to the warden's office, the warden met him and said: "Guess you have got a warrant for my arrest." The official answered in the affirmative. Coblenz then asked for permission to finish his dinner, which the deputy sheriff granted. Coblenz turned and walked into his private office and closed the door. A moment later a pistol shot was heard, and when the door was opened, Coblenz was found lying on the floor, blood flowing from his head in a stream. He had placed the pistol at his head immediately behind the right ear, and fired, the bullet passing through and coming out behind the other ear. Death was instantaneous. An inquest was held and a verdict of suicide returned by the jury. The suicide occasioned great excitement. The governor expressed sorrow, but says Coblenz can only blame himself. Coblenz leaves a wife and four children. The remains will be sent to Arkansas for burial.

PENDLETON'S MORAL WAVE.

Two Gamblers Arrested and the Balance Fled.

Pendleton, Dec. 8.—A movement against the gamblers was inaugurated by the arrest of two who were connected with faro games. All the others for whom warrants were issued have fled to unknown parts. A new feature of the prosecution is the arrest of J. M. Johnson, who swore out the complaint against the gamblers. Johnson was the person who claimed he was fleeced, but intimidated he played faro. District Attorney Lowrey then caused his arrest on the ground that he took part in a game run contrary to law.

STORM AT SEATTLE.

Seattle, Wash., Dec. 8.—This city was visited by a heavy southwest wind storm which lasted from 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon until 4 this morning. The greatest speed according to the weather bureau report was 39 miles an hour, but fully forty miles on the more exposed portion of the city. No damage was reported except to telegraph lines and windows of residences. Two boats on Lake Washington were blown ashore but not damaged. The long distance telephone went down between Bothell and Marysville. Lake Washington run higher than it has for years.

A CONFESSION.

Chicago, Dec. 8.—John B. Kerney today confessed that he was with Edward Jordan, who murdered A. D. Barns, whose mutilated body was found in a shipping case yesterday. Both Ker-ney and Jordan are under arrest. The motive for the crime is thought to have been a rivalry between Jordan and Barns for the chief janitorship of the Hiawatha building, which position the murdered man held.

BRADSTREET'S REPORT.

Holiday Business Throughout the Country Well On.

New York, Dec. 8.—Bradstreet's Review of Trade says: At the larger eastern cities the retail trade has assumed the characteristics of holiday season. The demand from jobbers is mainly to fill depleted stocks, and the activity is mainly among the retailers. At the South there is a reasonable activity in staple goods. New Orleans and Galveston send unfavorable reports of the movement of merchandise, but at the first named free marketing of crops makes money more plentiful, though the demand for funds is small. Among the Central and Western cities Cleveland and Cincinnati are exceptional in reporting gains in demand in a few lines, and at first named from manufacturers. Merchants and manufacturers are reported anticipating that business will remain well within conservative lines during the winter, with a moderate increase in the spring.

TALKED A BILL TO DEATH.

Washington, Dec. 8.—Less than twenty-five members were present when the house was called to order at noon today. Mallory, Democrat, of Florida, from the committee on interstate commerce, called up the bill to promote the efficiency of revenue cutters. The bill was considered several times last session. It provides for the retirement of officers of the service incapacitated by reason of infirmities, physical or mental disabilities. Clark, of Missouri, deliberately avoided his intention of talking the bill to death. Clark's speech was characteristic, humorous and audacious to a point of sensationalism, and it kept the house in a confusion of laughter, cheers and jeers. The house then resumed the consideration of the railroad pooling bill.

A LONG STRING.

John Wanamaker has said "that a long string of fish is never carried up a sidewalk; that it is just about as important to let folks know you have got something good for them, as it is to have it." Albert Dunbar, Astoria's live young merchant, who commenced business about a year ago on Commercial street, thought as Mr. Wanamaker did, and by systematic advertising and close attention to business, he has succeeded in a short time in building up a retail business that he may be proud of. It will pay the Astorian's readers to observe his announcements.
