

You Meet Men

Every day wearing suits made by McDonald's tailor. No doubt you have observed a slight diversion in the style, make and quality of these suits.

CHAS. McDONALD, The Tailor, 243 Commercial Street.

PUT ME ON THE LIST

"If your regular patrons," said a new customer on Wednesday, "it is a good idea to have been here."

What We Wish Is a Plain Talk With Astoria People.

Does municipal patriotism pay? What say you, reader? How many of us think of this when we come to spending money?

Suppose that we all traded away from home. How long would it be before Astoria would be deserted?

We hold it to be the part of wisdom, the part of duty, for every resident of Astoria to buy in Astoria, and to buy Astoria made goods, whenever he can be served as well as he can be abroad.

"CUTTER'S Whiskey."

There are lots of places on the Pacific coast that buy Cutter whiskey just to say that they buy it, but do they always hand it over the bar to their customers?

Oh, no! Not all of them. But there's one place where you can always depend on obtaining the celebrated Cutter whiskey, just as pure as when it left the distillery, and that place is at

GROSHAUER & BRACH'S "RESORT."

No matter whether it's Mr. Bonner or Millionaire Mr. Hammond, or the poor man who works on the street who comes into the "Resort," and asks for "The best of the coast," they would each and every one get from the same bottle, and at the same price. Isn't that fair? And is it any wonder that we are the popular place?

YESTERDAY'S WEATHER.

Local weather for the twenty-four hours ending at 5 p. m. yesterday, furnished by the United States Department of Agriculture, weather Bureau.

SELIG WILL ENJOIN. He Notifies the Board of Delegates of the Fire Department to that Effect.

At the meeting of the board of delegates of the Astoria Fire Department held last night, a notice was served on the board by Delegate Selig stating that an injunction would be asked from the circuit court restraining R. M. Stewart from acting as a first assistant chief of the department, while C. H. Stockton, the duly qualified officer, is acting in that capacity.

The board claims that C. H. Stockton, who was chosen at the department election last August, did not qualify, and according to Mr. Selig, they afterward elected R. M. Stewart against his (Selig's) protest.

The chair appointed a committee composed of B. K. Worsley, P. M. Green, and B. L. Ward to take steps towards an endeavor to make the present volunteer department a paid department.
