RIOT AND BLOODSHED

The Brooklyn Strikers Fire on the Police.

FIVE OFFICERS ARE WOUNDED.

The Militia Fire Two Volleys at the Strikers Without Effect. Strikers Gain a Point.

Associated Press.

Brooklyn, Jan. 21.—Violence and bloodshed constitutes the record of the eighth day of the electric street car operatives' strike. Three militiamen are in the hospitals with broken heads and two men suffered at the hands of riotous men and women, while the third was the victim of his own carelessness, having fallen out of a second-story window. A score or more of policemen are suffering from bullet wounds or contusions of head and body, disabling them for the time being. To what extent the strikers have suffered cannot be conjectured. If they escaped punishment it was not the fault of the militiamen, who, in accordance with orders, fired as directly at their assailants as the dense fog which completely hid objects at 30 yards' distance would permit. The strike is not ended, and order is not restored.

Seven thousand national guardsmen and 1,500 or 1,600 policemen have not today been strong enough to make traffic on the street railways in Brooklyn practical. A car started from Rydewood station of the Brooklyn Heights Company at 5 o'clock and was assaulted with volleys of stones and bricks before it proceeded far. A soldier was struck on the head with a stone and disabled. The officer in command ordered his men to shoot, and two volleys were fired towards the windows and house tops from which the missiles had been mostly hurled. The soldiers' aim was bad, however, and rendered uncertain by the fog. The policemen also, did some shooting at this point, but with what effect is as uncertain as in the case of the militiamen. It is asserted by the militia officers that they only fired the volley when the violence of the mob rendered it necessary.

On the same line a car started an hour after and was met by rioters at Gates and Stuyvesant avenues. The police escorting it essayed to drive off the rioters, and while doing so were fired upon from a house. Five policemen were wounded.

A MORNING REPORT. It Looked Like Trouble Early in the Day.

Brooklyn, Jan. 21.—There is an indication of serious work today in connection with the street railway strike. The total number of troops now under arms in Brooklyn is eight thousand. The refusal of the companies to promise reinstatement to strikers where they indicated a willingness to declare the fight off, has made many hitherto peacefully disposed, desperate and ready to participate in acts of violence. Acts of violence in the supposed interests of the strikers have been almost continuous in one part or another of the city during the last 48 hours. During last night the trolley wires were cut in all directions, those who performed the work escaping detection. Early in the morning the mob blocked the Seventh avenue line from Twelfth to Twentieth streets, moving off from one place as the militia or police approached, and congregating a short distance away a few moments later, thus avoiding a collision with the representatives of the law, while effectually stopping traffic for more than an hour. About 8 o'clock a mob numbering a thousand or more, stoned a Summer avenue car near Broadway and Flushing avenue. An ambulance call indicates that some one has been injured. The Officials of the Broadway, Queens County and Suburban road say they will run cars today. Forty-eight patrolmen are off duty today on a sick leave, most of it caused by over-exertion.

GUYED BY THE MOB.

Strikers in Brooklyn Throw Stones at the Militia.

Brooklyn, Jan. 21.—As Captain Louis Wendell's battery was proceeding up Broadway to Halsey, under escort, a mob of one thousand men gazed and jeered the militia, and a few stones were thrown. The crowd was so great that the soldiers with fixed bayonets charged on the mob and dispersed it. It is reported that quite a number of men were trampled under foot and some slightly wounded with bayonets. There will be a meeting this afternoon, when the board of arbitration and a committee of the strikers will discuss the situation. The men now hold out only on one point, that if the Walla Walla, Jan. 21.—About noon today at the penitentiary, convict Fred Hoyt killed convict Geo. Reif, by striking him in the head with an axe. The men were at work excavating pits in the brickyard, about 40 feet apart. Hoyt picked up an axe lying on the embankment, and deliberately walked to the pit where Reif was working, and without warning hit him. The latter tried to throw off the blow with his arm, which was badly cut. Hoyt again struck Reif twice on top and side of the head, killing him. The coroner's jury found a verdict charging Hoyt with deliberate murder.

LAND OF FLOWERS AND SUNSHINE. A Terrible Avalanche Near Dunsmuir, California.

Dunsmuir, Cal., Jan. 21.—The snow storm of yesterday continued until this evening and changed to rain. About noon a big avalanche of snow came down from the high mountain, and buried the railroad tracks sixty feet deep under snow, trees, brush and rocks. It started three miles up the canyon, where the snow is 40 to 50 feet deep, and carried down everything in its path and crashed into the river and away up the other bank, and dammed the river until it ran dry below. The material will have to be shoveled out, and much of it loaded on flat cars and carried away. About 100 men are at work on it tonight, and a special has started out from Red Bluff to pick up all the section men and hurry them to the scene. The track cannot be cleared before tomorrow night. Superintendent Cooley says there is more snow now on the road above Slasons than there was in the blockade five years ago. It is 8 to ten feet deep here, and 15 to 25 at Haak Butte summit.

Judge Sanborn Appoints Different Receivers for a Portion of the Union Pacific.

St. Louis, Jan. 21.—In the United States circuit court today, Judge Sanborn today rendered a decision in the Union Pacific case on the application for a separate receiver for a portion of the system covered by the first mortgage. The decision in effect grants the application. The receivers are the same as those now in charge of the entire system. The decision simply re-constitutes the old main line from the rest of the system, only as far as accounts are concerned, so that the property covered by the first mortgage shall be within easy reach of the mortgagees.

PERKINS VS. DEYOUNG.

The Chronicle's Editor Claims a Victory After the First Ballot.

Sacramento, Jan. 21.—The California legislature will vote separately tomorrow for United States senator. The most prominent candidates are Perkins, the present incumbent, and M. H. DeYoung, proprietor of the San Francisco Chronicle. Congressman Bowers and Jacob Neff have been mentioned as possible candidates. Senator Perkins goes into the contest with 45 out of 51 Republicans on joint ballot pledged to vote for him. It will take 61 votes to elect. DeYoung and his supporters concede Perkins 45 votes on the first ballot, but say that after the first effort, Perkins' strength will fall away and most of his votes will go to DeYoung.

WANT A LEXOW IN SAN FRANCISCO.

San Francisco, Jan. 21.—The civic federation was formally organized today, with T. J. Truman president. Resolutions were adopted addressed to the senate and assembly calling attention to the evils and abuses existing in San Francisco, and to the necessity of a strong committee to investigate and take measures to correct them. The resolution was adopted creating a board of counsel as advisory to the executive committee, composed of ministers, priests and rabbis of the city.

A Landslide at Marshville—More Trouble for the Pacific Insurance Union.

Associated Press.

Pendleton, Or., Jan. 21.—Chas. S. Jackson, receiver of the National Bank of Pendleton, has received authority from the comptroller of the currency to declare a dividend of five per cent on proved claims of the closed bank. The bank suspended May 15th, 1894. C. S. Jackson, editor of the East Oregonian, and C. C. Hendricks, a bank property owner here, created excitement today by a personal encounter. Hendricks procured a loaded gun and sought Jackson. They met in front of the postoffice, when Hendricks referred to an editorial appearing in the East Oregonian which appeared Saturday, and which said that Hendricks, who favored voting no tax for school purposes, was owner of bawdy houses and collected rent to a large amount. An altercation ensued and Hendricks called Jackson a liar and other epithets were applied. Jackson slapped Hendricks and the latter used the same. A large crowd collected and the marshal appeared and arrested Hendricks, who was taken before the recorder and fined twenty dollars.
