A TURKISH MOUNT HOLYOKE. Work of an American College for Giris at Constantinople.

At a time when our interest in Turkey is awakened anew by the cruel oppression of the Armenians it is satisfactory to know that we have slient forces at work there which must in the near future contribute powerfully to the social regeneration of that country. One of these forces is the Americar. College for girls at Constantinople, tarted and sustained by the woman's board of missions. The college was ince porated in 1800 under the laws of Max achusetts, and is entitled to confer all honors and degrees conferred by the college or university of Massachusetts. The management of the college is vested in a board of trustees residing in Massachusetts, the trustees being members of the woman's board The ollege is situated upon the heights of S-utari, with beautiful grounds over looking the Bosphorus and Marmora

The course of study embraces the usual college curriculum such as is offered in the best American colleges. with rather less attention to the physical sciences and mathematics, and more to language, history, and music. are those of ancient and modern Greek, Latin, French, German, English, ancient and modern Armenian, and ancient and modern Bulgarian. The number of girls enrolled the last year as shown by the calendar, was 173, including the preparatory department, They represent nine different nationalities, the larger number coming from the Armenians, 90, Bulgarians, 24, and Greeks, 23. This shows an increase of 26 over the preceding year. It stands at the flead of all schools or colleges for girls in Constantinople or Turkey, both foreign and native, and its popularity is very great throughout the whole country. Already more than 100 of its alumnae are exerting the infuence of a higher Christian education woman's board has reason to be services. proud of having built up on Turkish LOOK OUT FOR COLD WEATHER, soil an institution that is actually doand Bulgarian.-The Outlook.
