THE KEYSTONE OF THE ARCH

in the edifice of health is vigor, which in the edifice of health is vigor, which means not merely muscular energy, but an active discharge of the various functions, such as indigestion, secretion of the blle, the action of the bowels, the curculation of the blood. Nothing more actively and thoroughly contribules to the united performance of these functions than the renowned tonic and regulator, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. The result of its use is a speedy gain in strength, together with the agreeable consciousness that the tenure of life is being strengthened—that one is laying up a store of vitality against the unavoidable draughts which old age makes upon the system. The fortiage makes upon the system. The forti-fying influence of the Bitters constitute it a reliable safeguard against malaria, rheumatism and kidney trouble. Appe-tite and sleep improve through its use, and it protects the system from the effects of cold and damp.
