PETER LARSENS WIDOW

She Wins Her Damage Case Against P. J. McGowan.

CATHOLIC'S AT SAVANNAH GA.

They Attempt to Prevent a Public Lecture—The Whole Military Force Out.

Associated Press.

San Francisco, Feb. 26.—The United States circuit court of appeals decided two small cases today. Peter W. Larsen was drowned in the Columbia river in May, 1893, through his boat running against a fish trap owned by P. J. McGowan. The United States circuit court of Oregon allowed the widow $3,000 damages, and McGowan appealed. The court of appeals upheld the lower tribunal.

Frank Tracy was seriously injured on the Oregon Short Line and Utah Northern railroad. He was employed as brakeman and while his train was being shunted on a siding he signalled once to slow down and again to stop. Owing to brush that grew along the line the engineer did not see the signal and nearly killed Tracy. The United States circuit court of Oregon gave the latter $4,000 damages and the railroad appealed. The decision of the lower court was affirmed.

RELIGIOUS RIOTS. Catholics of Savannah, Georgia, Cause Great Uneasiness.

Savannah, Ga., Feb. 26.—This has been the most exciting night in the history of Savannah. For hours the city has trembled on the verge of religious riots. The entire white military force with the exception of the artillery has been on duty. There are ten infantry companies and the Georgia Hussars. The mob is estimated from 3,000 to 5,000, the greater part being Catholics, and has challenged their forbearance to the extreme. But for the coolness of Mayor Meyers and the officers commanding the troops, blood might have been shed. Bayonet charges were made several times to clear the streets, but the mob which had gathered about Masonic Temple stubbornly refused to retire. The city has been literally plagarized with notices that ex-Priest Slattery and a wife, described as an ex-nun, would lecture here on Catholicism, members of the Ancient Order of Hibernians at once took steps to prevent their appearance here. Petitions were circulated asking Mayor Meyers to refuse permission to the ex-priest to hold his lecture. When it was presented to the mayor by the committee he handed them a written opinion from the corporation attorney to the effect that he, as mayor, had no power to abridge the rights of speech guaranteed by the constitution of the United States and the state of Georgia. In his opinion, the city attorney said there could be no disorder or trouble if those who were offended by Slattery's remarks would stay away from the lecture. "I can't stop this man from lecturing," said the mayor, who is a Hebrew, "but I can prevent disorder, and I will do so."

Fifteen policemen were stationed inside the hall, and thirty others were massed in front. By 7 o'clock several hundred had collected. By 8 o'clock a howling mob of over 1,000 surrounded Masonic hall. In the hall were an audience of about 400, including a number of ladies. The lecturer had hardly begun before bricks, bats and cobblestones began to rain on the windows. The police had closed all the heavy inside shutters, thus saving the audience from injury, only two or three being injured by falling glass. The rest of the police force was called out, and fifty men were soon in front of the hall. The mob made a rush to secure the entrance, but were driven back by the police. Before 9 o'clock the mob had grown to between 3,000 and 4,000. Window after window in the Masonic Temple was broken. At the close of the lecture when the ex-priest was about to leave the hall with his friends the chief of police stopped them and refused to allow anyone to go down stairs. The military alarm of eleven taps on all fire bells in the city was sent in, but when it sounded, the mob derided it. "Bring on your military!" some of the leaders shouted. "To hell with them; they can't save Slattery." Eleven companies of military were soon on the ground and with fixed bayonets pushed the crowd back. Finally Slattery was escorted to his hotel by the military and a guard left there.

HAWAIIAN CABLE AGAIN. Washington, Feb. 26.—The conference on the diplomatic and consular appropriation bill held a second conference today on the amendment for the Hawaiian cable, and will tomorrow report another disagreement to the previous one. If they are again sent to conference it is understood the senators will recede from the rule as it is not customary for the conferees to follow their instructions literally in more than two conferences where there is a majority on the committee for or against the disputed amendment.

THE SUGAR BOUNTY. That, With the Appropriation Bill, Occupy the Senate's Attention.

Washington, Feb. 26.—The senate has given another day to the sundry civil bill without completing it, and without taking up the vital points concerning financial legislation. The important feature of the day was a short, sharp decisive contest on the sugar bounty question, resulting in the success of the bill advocating the payment of the bounty prematurely cut off by the enactment of the tariff law. The proposed bounty aggregates $5,200,000, but Mitchell gave it as his belief that it would reach $3,000,000. A point of order was made against the amendment but decided not in order, 40 to 13. After that the success of the sugar bounty was secured, although efforts were made to load it down with silver amendments and other propositions. Frye succeeded in carrying an important amendment providing for a retired list for the many aged officers who have done good service and who now stand in the way of promotion.

ANOTHER FINANCIAL POLICY. Bland, Bryan and Others will Spring It Soon.

Washington, Feb. 26.—Routing matters on the floor of the house were overshadowed in interest today by the initiation of a brisk movement to secure a majority of the Democratic members in favor of a financial policy having free silver for its keynote. The declaration is addressed "To the Democrats of the United States," and outlining the financial policy for the Democratic party has been drafted. This paper has been circulated on the Democratic side of the house and is being vigorously discussed with the object of obtaining the consensus of opinion of the silver Democrats upon its expressions. The chief instigators of the movement are Messrs. Bland, Bryan, Sibley and Coffey. Their paper is at present but a tentative expression, they say, and not yet in form for publication since none of its details have been definitely agreed upon.

ARBITRATION BILL PASSED. Washington, Feb. 26.—The house today passed Olney's national arbitration bill. The purpose of the bill is to provide a board of conciliation consisting of the commissioner of labor and the chairman of the interstate commerce commission, whose duty it shall be, when a controversy concerning wages, hours of labor, or conditions of employment arose between the carrier under this act and the employes of such carrier, seriously interrupting or threatening to interrupt the business of said carrier, to put themselves in communication with the parties to such controversy and shall use their best efforts, by mediation and conciliation, to amicably settle the same, and if such efforts should be unsuccessful, should at once endeavor to bring about an arbitration of said controversy by submitting to a board consisting of three persons, one to be chosen by the employes, one by the employer, and these two selecting the third.

JOHN PUTNAM'S DAUGHTER. Washington, Feb. 26.—The president sent to the house a message vetoing a bill to grant a pension to Eunice Putnam, daughter of John Putnam, who served in the late war, on the ground that her mother was already drawing a pension.

FRANCE IS WILLING. To Take American Cattle on Certain Conditions.

Chicago, Feb. 26.—Nelson Morris, who controls the largest part of the export trade in cattle and beef products from this city, said today: "Three months ago I had a proposition from the French minister of agriculture, offering to continue to receive our cattle if the United States would take off the differential duty on sugar. I was asked to bring this matter before the government. I went to Washington, but the government paid no attention whatever. There is no truth whatever in any of this talk about the improper condition of cattle shipped. There has not been one animal rejected in three years by any foreign country on the ground of ill-health."

THE A. P. A. SOCIETY

A Catholic Paper Says they Defeated Dolph.

MULTNOMAH COUNTY'S SHERIFF.

Slapped by Representative McGinn and Retaliates With a Blow Over the Head.

Associated Press.

Portland, Feb. 26.—The Catholic Sentinel, the official organ of the Catholic church in the Northwest, has the following: "The defeat of Senator Dolph for a third term as United States senator, is due directly to the A. P. A. It is no secret that although Dolph was apparently short four votes of the election, there were two votes that would go to him whenever that number should be sufficient to elect. He was in fact, then, within two votes of election. Had Cole and Burke, members of the house from Multnomah county, voted for him as they were pledged to do, both before their nomination and afterward by their entering the party caucus, Mr. Dolph would have been elected. The reason these men violated their ante-election pledges and party caucus obligation is to be found in the fact that they were members of the American Protective Association society, and were opposed to Dolph because he had voted for the government's payments for the education of some Indian children at Catholic contract schools. State Senator H. E. McGinn and Sheriff George C. Sears engaged in an altercation today at the entrance to the Worcester block. Both men happened to meet there and Sears called McGinn a sneak, alluding to his action on a legislative bill which cut off some of Sears' fees. McGinn immediately slapped Sears in the face. Sears then drew a revolver and struck McGinn over the head. At this juncture the bystanders intervened and stopped the row. No arrests were made.

HARD AT WORK. Olympia's Legislature Getting Down to Solid Business.

Olympia, Feb. 26.—After an all-day session the house passed the Morgan railroad bill making the freight rate $3.75 per ton for agricultural products and passenger rates three and one-half cents a mile. The bill also makes 25 per cent reduction on hops, and other livestock, shingles, lumber, logs, coal, hops, fruit, melons, and wool. The bill passed the following bills: Foss—Fixing penalty of imprisonment of five to twenty years for obstructing railroads. Ide—making any state officer trustee or commission of any public institution personally liable for creating a deficiency, incurring liability or expending a greater sum than the legislature appropriates for that institution. Also making it a misdemeanor and subjecting that officer to a fine of $1,000. Mogler—Appropriating $50,000 for the deficiencies of various state institutions and departments in instances where deficiencies were audited by the emergency board.

Ide—To bond the state lands granted for normal schools and appropriating $60,000 for the Cheney school and $40,000 for Whatcom.

Among the new bills introduced was one appropriating $1,200 for professor of chemistry at the state agricultural college to conduct experiments in sugar beet culture; exempting from taxation in the discretion of the council of cities and towns, manufacturing companies, when employing twenty-five employes or more.

Shaw—Apportioning superior judges; Walla Walla, Columbia, Garfield and Astoria jointly, one; Kellogg's bill providing for the purchase by the state of the plant of the state printer, the office of state printer to be abolished and the state printing to come under the control of the printing board.

ANTI-GAMBLING LAW. Helena, Mont., Feb. 26.—Both houses of the legislature have passed stringent anti-gambling laws. Gambling has been a legalized industry, yielding revenue heretofore.

NO SENATOR YET. Boise, Feb. 26.—There were two pairs today and one absent in the joint legislative session. The result of the ball-lot for United States senator was: Shoop, 19; Sweet, 17; Claggett, 14. Judge J. R. McBride, brother of Senator-elect McBride, of Oregon, expresses the conviction that his brother will stand with the silver men.

AN UNCONFIRMED RUMOR. Astoria and Goble Railroad Bonds Said to Have Been Floated.

Portland, Or., Feb. 26.—The Evening Telegram says today that a cablegram from London states that the bonds of the Astoria and Goble road have been floated.

Last evening the Astorian wired to F. R. Strong, Portland attorney for Messrs. Bonner and Hammond, asking him if he could confirm the Telegram's statement. His answer was: "No; nothing known of the matter here."

MARINE INTELLIGENCE. San Francisco, Feb. 26.—Arrived—Astoria, from Coos Bay. Departed—Homer, for Yaquina Bay; Arcata, for Coos Bay.

Washington, Feb. 26.—Friend's amendment to the sundry civil bill, providing for the issue of $100,000,000 in certificates of indebtedness, is about concluded. They will be unable to get the bill through as long as the amendment remains a part of it.

New Orleans, Feb. 26.—At noon today Rex, king of carnival, appeared in a grand parade based upon scenes and incidents from Purgatory's "Chronicles of Fairy Land." There were twenty magnificent tableaux in the procession. The weather is delightful and the streets everywhere were packed with spectators.

Dalton, Ohio, Feb. 26.—Fire broke out this morning in Schultz' wagon plant and spread to the Presbyterian church and adjoining buildings. No water was to be had nearer than three quarters of a mile. The west end of town will apparently be destroyed. Fire companies from Massillon and Wooster are coming by special train.

Madrid, Feb. 26.—At the conclusion of a special meeting of the cabinet last night the minister of war, General Dominguez, announced that the government had authorized the issue of a proclamation by the governor general of Cuba to suppress the armed band of brigands in the provinces of Matanzas and Puer to Principe.

Rochester, N. Y., Feb. 26.—Rochester is in mourning today for Fred Douglass. Just before the funeral train arrived there marched to the train the funeral cortege, including the Douglass League, of Rochester, bearing the league banner draped in mourning. The mayor, members of the common council, and other city officials came in carriages. The funeral party moved to the city hall, where the body lay in state several hours.

Washington, Feb. 26.—The national arbitration bill passed the house without division. Secretary Gresham today received a cablegram from United States Consul Williams at Havana, announcing that martial law had been proclaimed in Cuba. The Spanish minister, Margueta, also received similar advices. According to Minister Margueta's advices, there have been two small outbreaks in Cuba. The first was in the province of Matanzas, in the south, where fifteen men armed themselves and undertook to start a rebellion. The other was in the province of Cuba, where twenty-seven rebels were routed by the government troops and six were taken prisoners. The minister has no apprehension of a general uprising.

The amendment for the payment of a sugar bounty was declared in order today, in the senate, and on a yeas and nays vote the result was 49 to 16, which practically carries it.
