At the close of business last night the county tax receipts were $10,656.26 Sheriff Hare has his books in such shape that each evening he can tell exactly the amount of taxes paid in.

Judgment was affirmed yesterday by the supreme court in the cases of Chas W. Shively appellant vs. Sylvester Pennoyer, et. al., respondent; the Astoria Exchange Co., respondent, vs. Chas. W. Shively, appellant. A slight blaze, caused by sparks from the smoke stack alighting on the Scow Bay Wood Yard shed, caused some excitement in that vicinity early vesterday morning. The damage was but slight before the fire was extinguished Dr. J. A. Fulton was yesterday re

Prof. Miller has met with gratifying encouragement from the business men of Astoria, and on Saturday will make his balloon ascension and parachute drop. He is one of the best aeria artists in the country and has made hundreds of successful trips into the clouds.

The members and friends of the Norwegian Lutheran Church of Uppertown are building the pastor a residence alongside of the church. T. Knutson is doing the work and he has the lumber towed down from the Klaskanine in rafts. The building when finished will be one and one-half stories tr height.

Griffin & Reed have a new style rule: that is bound to revolutionize that industry. It is a combined ruler and counting machine, and with but the slightest manipulation one is able to figure up the most difficult column of figures ever written and in a remarkably short space of time. Its cheapness will guarantee a ready sale.

Mesdames Kimberly and Warren, of Portland, have opened a confectionery shop directly opposite the Astorian office on Commercial street. In Portland they have a candy factory, and their stock will be kept fresh and well suppiled. It is altogether probable that the factory will be removed to Astoria this summer. Their windows evidence that the business is in the hands of those who thoroughly understand it.

Yesterday afternoon W. H. Bancroft, superintendent of the mountain division of the Union Pacific, and wife; Mrs T. M. Schumaker, wife of the genera' agent of the Union Pacific at Sar Francisco, and Walter Anderson, connected with the Union Pacific at Omaha, arrived on the Potter and spent the remainder of the day in company with Agent Louisberry, looking over the city. They returned to Portland last alght on the Potter.

Contractor Lebeck is well started with his work on 37th and Duane streets. A large force of men are at work and it will not be long before a decided showing will be made. The improvements will necessitate the moving back of several residences in that vicinity. Mr. Peterson, whose pretty place has been the admiration of everyone who passed that way, will not only be compelled to move his house back.

The new whaleback Everett, now in San Francisco, has accommodation for about twenty-five passengers. She is splendidly lighted with electricity, and her different compartments are all modern and very commodious. Her machinery will drive her at the rate of fifteen miles an hour when light and in jail, stating that he has been an exloaded. This speed she has already attained. The City of Everett is considerably larger than the Wetmore, and her cabin compartments are differently arranged. It is believed that she will be a more seaworthy vessel than the one just named. Capt. Christensen sald before he started he believed that in a storm she would be in comparative safety while other colliers would be in great danger. It is expected that the Everett will make the return trip from San Francisco in about ten days.

Oscar Lindross was given his freedom yesterday after serving several months in the county jail. He was bound over by the police judge on November $ last on a charge of larceny from the person.
