KING DEBS AT SPOKANE. He Says That Strikes Are Surely r Failure

Spokane, March 15.-Eugene Debs resident of the American Railway Union, lectured tonight before a big audience at the Auditorium. He declared his conviction that strikes could only result in fallure, and that henceforth the union will work along political lines. "There can be no permanent or satisfactory solution of this railroad question," he said, "until the government takes possession of the railroads, and runs them in the interest of the pople. Our recent experience has demonstrated that defeat is inev itable. Just as soon as a strike is in, augurated, disturbances will occur. Courts will be applied to, injunctions and mandamuses will be issued, leaders will be arrested and thrown into jail and then the strike will be easily broken. I will tell you a strike cannot suc ceed when it is against the United States government."
