Philadelphia, March 23.—If Secretary Gresham does his duty more than apology will be required.

Cleveland Plain Dealer: The idea of the American flag being fired on and Congressman Boutelle not in session!

New York Sun: All our available war ships should be concentrated where the treatment of the Alliance shows them to be imperatively needed.

New York Post: If the newspapers make so much of this affair, with their headlines, wood cuts, exploding shells and rattling thunder, we tremble to think what Senator Lodge will say about it when it comes his turn.

Kansas City Times: It is gratifying to know that these insolent and ignorant Spaniards are to be taught a lesson in manners as well as morals as the result of the incident.

Indianapolis News: The facts in this case may show that the Spanish officer was guilty of an act for which there is no excuse.

New York World: If the facts are as reported, there can be no doubt about the law of the case.

Denver Republican: Concerning the law of the case there is little doubt that Secretary Gresham is right in taking the position that in time of peace a vessel cannot legally be interfered with by a foreign power.

Detroit Free Press: As the matter now stands an insult has been offered to the American flag, and an attempt has been made to exercise upon the high seas authority which no independent power concedes.

Have already substituted the new bonds for the old ones, a number of others have notified Comptroller Eckels of their intention to do so, and it is probable that a good part of the bonds which remain in the United States will ultimately find their way into the vaults of the treasury as security for bank circulation.

An Ohio editor who has returned lately from his third visit to Cuba, reports that the people seem to be a great deal poorer than he found them in 1887 and again in 1878.

Most people cannot afford to experiment. They want immediate relief. That's why they use One Minute Cough Cure. Chas. Rogers.

What is the use of having a "humane form divine" unless you care for it and drape it and clothe it so as to make it a source of joy to yourself and a pride to your friends?

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gundersen, of Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife."

Having the needed merit to more than make good all the advertising claimed for them, the following four remedies have reached a phenomenal sale.
