There is a difference between our posts and others that we know of. One difference is the shaping, another is in the workmanship, and another is in the style of goods. Nearly all of ours are imported clotha; you can see in that why every third man along the areast masn't a suit like we sold you and why ours look different. It takes more than wood and iron to make the difference between a ferry-boat and a l-day ocean steamer.

Splendid Affair Sunday Night. The Alderbrook Social Club gave an overvainment for its members and their friends at their hall in Alderbrook last Sunday evening. This club was organized at the beginning of the year and has held weekly social meetings from then until last Sunday, which was the last meeting this winter. The club will again begin to hold meetings this fall and continue during the winter. The following officers were elected for the coming term: President, Fred Johnson; vice-president, Miss Annie Amundsen; secretary, Miss Mary

A splendid program was then rendered, after which the debate was disoussed: "Which is the prettiest, Nacity. His opinion is that there is ture or Art." After a lively discussion it was decided that nature was the graph," was then read and loudly applauded. The colored minstrels, composed of Aifred and Harry Inskipp. Chas. McEwan, Fred Amundson, Alfred and Fred Johnson, then kept the audience in continual laughter, with and cigars besides having good music all the their songs and humorous jokes. After this everybody partook of a splendid lunch prepared by the club, and concluding by singing "Home, Sweet Home."
