OSCAR'S SUN HAS SET

He is the Most Disgraced Man in London.

HIS PLAYS ARE TABOOED.

They Will be Excluded From the First-class Theatres and His Name Dropped.

Associated Press. London, April 6.—(Special cable London letter copyright 1895 by Associated Press)—Naturally the Wilde disclosures continue to be the absorbing topic of conversation at the clubs, etc.

On Thursday last, the second day of the trial, in place of the usual numbers of placards which all the news boys display, the placard of the St James Gazette was, "The only paper in London with no details of the Wilde case."

Edward M. Carson, Q. C. M. P., who so ably and relentlessly conducted the case for the Marquis of Queensbury, was a classmate of Oscar Wilde at Trinity College, Dublin. Presiding Judge, Justice Collins, is an Irishman. Wilde has been making immense sums of money lately out of his plays and books.

George Alexander, proprietor and manager of the St. James theatre, stated last night that if it were not for the fact that stopping Wilde's play would throw 120 people out of employment, he would at once stop it. Therefore, unless the theatre-going public manifests its displeasure of the author by refusing to witness his works, the play at the St. James will be continued as usual.

Another of Wilde's plays, now running at the Haymarket theatre, will after this week be transferred to the Criterion. The author's name in both cases will be omitted from the bills and advertisements in the future.

SPOKANE BANKER DEAD. New York, April 6.—Anthony M. Cannon, 60 years old, the well known banker of Spokane, Washington, was found dead in his room at Stuyvesant today. The coroner found he died from natural causes. He was president of the Spokane Falls National Bank.

PROMINENT PASTOR DEAD. Rev. William McEwan Passes Away at Portland on Friday Evening.

Died—At Portland, April 6th, 1895, of mumps, Rev. William McEwan. The Reverend William L. McEwan, rector of St. Mark's Church, Portland died Friday evening after a brief illness.

His many friends here were unaware of his illness until the news came of his death. He was a son of Mr. Robert S. McEwan, a former resident of Clatsop, a pioneer of this state, and in fact, of the Coast.

The Rev. Mr. McEwan was born in California but came to Oregon in his childhood, receiving his early training in this city. After graduating at the Berkeley Divinity School at Middletown, Conn., he was ordained deacon by Bishop Williams, and after he was ordained priest spent all of his ministerial life in Oregon and Washington. He has had charge of the parishes at Walla Walla, Pendleton, The Dalles, and for the past five years has been rector of St. Mark's, Portland, and chaplain to Bishop Scott Academy.

He has acted as secretary of the Diocesan convention of the Episcopal church in Oregon, and has held many other positions of responsibility in prominent committees, many of which he occupied at the time of his death, and all of which he served effectively and faithfully.

His genial, wide-souled affability and warm-hearted sincerity won him a host of friends everywhere he went. He was a faithful and devoted pastor and a friend worth having, and many in every walk of life will mourn a personal friend. His place will be difficult to fill. A wife and three children survive him. His desire was rather to wear out than to rust out, and his longing is satisfied for he did literally die in the harness, "fighting manfully."

AN EXPLANATION. Seattle, April 5, 1895. Editor Astorian:—

Allow me to say a few words in answer to an item published in your paper of April 4, regarding the cost bill in the case of the State vs. Chas. Willard, as being one of the many unnecessary cases forced upon the county yearly, as the whole affair proved to be a petty quarrel. In the first place the complaint was sent in by me, and not by E. M. Grimes, as stated. I never had a petty quarrel nor any kind of a quarrel with Willard, neither do I intend to have. I do not think I should be made to suffer or bear his abuses for any trouble he and Grimes may have had in years past. Must we sit still and say nothing while our lives are being threatened, abusive language hurled at us, and rifles flourished while attending to our own affairs. This case was first referred to the district attorney, and then left with the justice of the peace, and told if there was not enough to have him bound over not to do any thing about it, as Grimes is a taxpayer and Willard is not, and did not wish to put the county to any expense. Your paper also stated that the case should have been settled here, I am aware of that now, as it would be better for all parties concerned.

The county will always have such cases as long as they are determined from the courts at this one was. I wonder if Constable Oberg (whose fees I see amounted to $140) charged of the county for his extra expense of having to stay here over night and hiring a team to take his prisoner to St. Paul on Sunday morning all on account of settling his prisoner at liberty after arresting him Saturday morning, and he could not be found when the train left.

ANNIE M. GRIMES. REDUCED RATES UP THE RIVER. Commencing today, April 9th, the O. R. and N. Co. will reduce the passenger rates between Astoria and Portland to $1.25 one way, and $2.00 round trip.
