Castoria destroys Worms and allays feverishness. Castoria prevents vomiting Sour Curd, cures Diarrhoea and Wind Colic. Castoria relieves teething troubles, cures constipation and flatulency. Castoria.

"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."

Dr. G. C. OSGOOD,
Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other harmful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."

Dr. J. F. KAZANSON,
Conway, Ark.

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."

H. A. ASCHER, M. D.,
111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."

RE-DEDICATION OF THE NORWEGIAN AND DANISH M. E. CHURCH.

The work of re-building the Norwegian and Danish Methodist church in this city has been completed, and the building was opened for divine services last Sunday. The Sunday school gathered at 10 o'clock in the morning in the lecture room with an attendance of 64. At 11 o'clock Rev. Aug. Peterson, of Portland, preached a telling sermon on the elements necessary to a strong and vigorous church. At 2 o'clock in the afternoon there was a union service at which most of the pastors of the city were present. Rev. M. Nelson, of Portland, presiding elder of the Oregon District, was in charge of the meeting. The services opened with a beautiful selection by the choir of the First M. E. Church, after which the congregation No. 204 in the Gospel Hymns. Rev. McCormack read the scripture lesson, from Hasgal, 23 chapter, after which Mr. Trumbull, pastor of the Baptist church, offered prayer. Rev. Dr. Bushong, of the First M. E. church then preached an instructive and powerful sermon on the vision recorded in the 1st chapter of the book of the prophet, Ezekiel, choosing for his text the 20th verse, that chapter: "Whithersoever the Spirit was to go, they went." The preacher was at his best and the large congregation that filled the church was thrilled by the inspiring and earnest expounding of the spirit's power and character represented in the vision. At the close of the sermon a male quartet rendered an appropriate selection, after which Dr. Bushong, in his inimitable way, appealed to the congregation to assist in the paying for the repairs and recited a generous response. The church was re-dedicated to the service of Almighty God. After another song by the choir, the congregation was dismissed with the benediction by Rev. Hunter, of Portland. Everybody went away happy and delighted. At the evening service the presiding elder preached to an attentive congregation.

The Rev. H. O. Nordvig, the pastor of the church, and this faithful band of workers, are to be highly congratulated in the successful consummation of this enterprise. The church has been made very convenient and attractive.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH.

"Hold the pattern of sound words which thou hast heard from me. That good thing which was committed unto thee, guard through the Holy Spirit, that it dwell in us." 2 Tim. 1, 13-14. Men's hearts are just what they were two thousand years ago and need the same remedy. The age wants nothing new. The teachings of Christ conceal within them the germ of infinite development, reserved for future ages to unfold. It is this which distinguishes Christ from all other teachers. Advance as men may they can never overtake him. Their task is to bring forth the treasures that lie concealed in him. What is wanted is plain, distinct unfolding teaching concerning "the pattern of sound words." The same work needs to be done for each succeeding generation. And for this purpose we need "the sound words" or improve on Christ's methods? What extensive good has been done, except by the old-fashioned doctrine of Christianity? I invite you to name a single instance. But the text is good advice for another reason. You have a law in business not to leave a good thing until you see your way clear to something better. If not Christianity, what is the alternative? Wise men are not content with negatives, they want something positive, practical. Peter said, "To whom shall we go? Going away is easy enough, and yet not so easy as it seems, because it is going. What we want, then, is not change, except for the better. Christianity can point to its fruits. And what it has done for other cities it can do for us. Christianity is a winning cause. The banner under which I ask you to serve, will yet be blazoned with victory. We shall go to our graves, fellow Christians, but we shall go as warriors have gone who have lived long enough to know that their bravery was not in vain. I invoke for you the spirit of Christianity. From the marketplace in the East I presume her to the west. I invoke her presence throughout all our streets, in your homes, and in your hearts.

VERY QUEER INDEED.

Daily, nay, hourly experiences, are the sensations of the dyspeptic, nervous invalid. Ask him, and he will tell you that it is well-nigh impossible to describe them. Palpitations of the heart suggest—erroneously—that the organ is agitated, buzzing in the ears, a queer, metallic taste in the mouth, and tingling along the edges of the tongue, restlessness, broken slumber at night, inability to sleep during the day, which disappears when the recumbent posture is assumed, frequent uneasiness of the stomach between and after meals when digestion ought to have performed its office. These are a few of the indices of the complaint speedily removable by the use of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which also cures and prevents chills and fever, biliousness, constipation, rheumatism, neuralgia, and kidney trouble.

Take a dose of DeWitt's Little Early Risers just for the good they will do you. These little pills are good for indigestion. Good for headache, good for liver complaint, good for constipation. They are good. Chas. Rogers.
