When the tide sets one way there is always a cause for it.

Women don't come here to buy roasts steaks, and all other kinds of meat simply because it's Christensen & Co.'s.

Of course there are a few, a very few, who buy out of compliment, or from ignorance, but the great mass of housekeepers buy where they can get the best and for that reason we supply the majority of the families in Astoria for they know by experience that me have only the best.

He left up the river last night on the steamer Balley Gatzert.

The steamer Astorian returned from up the river yesterday and brought with her the remainder of the committee who had not already arrived. Mr. Wingate says that he considers the trip a remarkably successful one, and with a little more skirmishing the total of deeds will be far ahead of what the old right of way committee secured. The surveyors have run the entire line through the city and the inside right of way committee will start at once soliciting for deeds.

What are you and I doing to enable us to reap a benefit from the construction of the Goble and Astoria railroad? If we simply sit down and wait for the railroad to help us, we shall be disappointed.
