BOGUS SALMON LABELS.

We had occasion to speak in a local way some days ago of the tricky work done by certain Alaska packers, commission men and jobbers in the matter of falsely labelled salmon, and incidentally to warn these men that their method of swindling the public by such contemptible and petty fraud was being carefully watched, and would be exposed at the first opportunity.

There are today in the New York market nearly a dozen brands of so-called Columbia River salmon offered at all sorts of prices, no one of which contains an ounce of true Columbia River Chinook salmon, but fish packed on the Sacramento, or in Alaska. These brands are scattered through the smaller groceries, among "cutters" and the department stores, and extensively advertised at cut prices as compared with the price of genuine spring packed Columbia River salmon.

Every intelligent dealer knows that Columbia River salmon offered in New York at less than $1.50 to $1.75 for tall tins, and $1.75 to $1.90 for flat tins, must be other than represented. Standard Columbia River salmon at $1.20 may be steel-heads, dog-fish, or fall caught salmon, but it is not Chinook salmon packed in the spring, when the fish are firm in texture and in their highest condition.

But there is a remedy against this trickery, which, if the retail merchants choose to resort to it, will speedily prevent the fraud from being successful. It is to deal with no commission broker, however plausible or loud-mouthed he may be in his protestations, who has the slightest taint of dishonesty or smart dealing about him. There are firms, many of them too, who are pleased to say, who are thoroughly honorable and whose integrity will not allow them to handle falsely labelled brands of salmon under any circumstances.

There is a fast growing sentiment in the trade against the work of the sharks of whom we have spoken, and if every grocer, once bitten by their manipulations, will give publicity to the facts, the occupation of these commission men will be gone forever. The hearty support of every honest man in the trade should be given to this suppression of an evil that if not stamped out is capable of doing untold harm to the industry.

If Alaska or British Columbia salmon approximates the Columbia river fish in quality, it is robbing both kinds of their due to glaze them on a Columbia river label. If it doesn't (and of course this is the fact) the falsification is an offense akin to theft. Let us have fair play in branding, and no understand work with labels.

It is probably more to the interest of the United States that a fair treaty of peace should be signed between China and Japan than any other nation in the world. The prospect for an enormously increased trade with us on the part of both nations when peace shall be permanently re-established is attracting much attention on the Atlantic coast. There never was a better time to begin some systematic plan of advertising the advantages of Astoria's location as the port from which to control this trade than the present. With the completion of the Gobai road no place on the coast can begin to compete with Astoria in that respect, and the attention of Eastern capitalists should be brought to the fact without delay.

Frank G. Carpenter's last Oriental letter shows that Eastern manufacturers and merchants are determined not to be behind-hand in taking advantage of the opening of the great markets of Japan and China to our trade. There are certain provisions of the treaty of peace proposed by Japan which, if adopted, will have a great effect in promoting foreign trade with China. We ought to get much the larger share of this trade. Of course it must all go by way of the Pacific coast, and Astoria can become the port from which most of it will be shipped, by the proper effort on the part of our business men and property owners.

OBITUARY NOTICE.

H. E. Turley, who died at his home on Lewis and Clark in Clatsop County, Oregon, on the 24th day of April, 1895, was born in Manchester, England, on the 15th day of September, 1814. In 1854 he went with his parents to Kane County, Illinois, and settled in the town of Elgin. He afterwards moved with his parents to Cambridge, Mo., where he lived until after the breaking out of the war. While on a visit East in the year 1863 he enlisted in Co. C, Third N. J. Cavalry Corps, Army of the Shenandoah, and served in that company until the close of the war and was mustered out in Washington, D. C. In the year 1875 he came to this country and settled on the Lewis and Clark where he was married to a daughter of A. H. Hale, an old pioneer, and where he lived until the time of his death. He leaves a widow and four children to mourn his untimely death. He was a kind, affectionate, and faithful husband and father; a good and obliging neighbor, and an honest and upright man. He leaves many sincere and warm-hearted friends to mourn his loss. He has joined the Grand Army of the Dead, and for us who bore the musket with him, and fought for Freedom, the celestial bugler will soon ring out his requiem, and we, too, shall join our comrades, who have gone just a short time before us. He sleeps quietly in the beautiful cemetery near (Trangers' Hall on Young's River. There he rests in peace.

A HOP, SKIP AND JUMP.

An athletic caper of this sort would scarcely be considered indecorous in one, even of mature age and sedate habits, impelled thereto by excess of joy on recovering from his indigestion through the instrumentality of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, foremost among remedies for dyspepsia, biliousness, constipation, a trio of evils usually found in conjunction with each other. As the stomach recovers its tone, and the gastric juices are secreted in healthful plenty through the agency of this superb restorative, nerve tranquility, appetite and sleep return, the body gains in sustenance and the mind close in vigor. For the prevention and cure of malarious, rheumatic and kidney trouble, the Bitters is a most direct and thoroughgoing medicinal agent. Its effects are speedily felt and comprehensive.

THIS DISCOVERY SAVED HIS LIFE.

Mr. G. Caillouette, Druggist, Beaverville, Ill., says: "To Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken with La Grippe and tried all the physicians for miles around, but of no avail, and was given up and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store I sent for a bottle, and began to use it, and from the first dose began to get better, and after using three bottles was up and about again. It is worth its weight in gold. We won't keep store or house without it." Get a trial bottle free at Chas. Rogers' Drug Store, Odd Fellows' building.

Scott's Emulsion

will cure a stubborn cough when all the ordinary cough remedies have failed. Try it for yourself. We are putting up a fifty-cent size chiefly for that purpose. A cough is usually the telltale of a weakened physical condition. Correct that condition by the use of a proper remedy and the cough will soon disappear. Scott's Emulsion of Cod-liver Oil and Hypophosphites acts in two ways. It nourishes, strengthens and builds up the system, at the same time allays the irritation and heals the inflammation. It gives immediate relief at night from the choking sensation so often accompanying a cold.

Don't be persuaded to take a substitute! Scott & Bowne, N. Y. All Druggists. 50c and $1.

LOOK OUT FOR COLD WEATHER

But ride inside the Electric Lighted and Steam Heated Vestibule Apartment Car trains of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railway, and you will be as warm, comfortable, and cheerful as in your own library or boudoir. To travel between Chicago, St. Paul or Minneapolis, or between Chicago and Omaha, in those luxuriously appointed trains, is a supreme satisfaction; and as the somewhat ancient advertisement used to read, "for further particulars see small bills." Small bills (and large ones too) will be accepted for passage and sleeping car tickets. All coupon ticket agents on the coast sell tickets via the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railway, or address C. J. Eddy, General Agent, Portland, Or.

FOUND THEM THE BEST.

This is to certify that I have used Krause's Headache Capsules periodically for a year, and have very much pleasure in stating that they have always proved very beneficial and have relieved me in from ten to fifteen minutes. I have been a sufferer from headache for many years, and have never found anything to do me as much good as Krause's Headache Capsules. Yours truly, LOUIS HERMAN, 231 Poplar St., Wichita, Kan.
