Are going to be a lot of well-dressed men in the city this spring-of course we maven't made all their clothes-but we think if you ask every third man you meet where he got his suit-and o course he will say (that is, if it's tailo made) MoDomaid's. He may not tel you how much he saved, but you can just jot it down that it was worth saving-by the way-he may have on one of our $15 suits and you'll think it cost $50-but of course you're judg ing by what you usually pay others.

One great basis principle of the Pal-ace Restaurant is mutual dependence. To theive and grow, each dish must be botter than any one else's. Our aim is to reach the only roomy trade place, the top. No lower idea can be per-mitted. And when the top, our top, is reached by any other restaurant, we will juit the top.

Yesterday a certain real estate deal-er placed a card in front of his place of business announcing that he had a cottage for rent. He was almost im-mediately besieged by applicants for the vacant house, and long after the sign was taken down people were call-ing on him wanting to lease the place.

Last evening at the home of his pa-rents on 9th street, Master Jack, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Allen, gave a party to a number of his juvenile friends and playmates. Various games were indulged in by the little people until about 10:30, when they dispersed after having spent a most pleasant evening. There is scarcely a city of its size in the country that has so few shade trees lining its streets as has Astoria. George L. the summer. Mr. A. B. Hammond has ordered his engineers to stop any further work pending orders. This simply means that Mr. Hammond is disappointed that maitters are going so slowly, and as he expressed it, is unwilling to incur as he expressed R, is unwhing to incur any further expense until the deeds are all in. He made a business contract for the construction of the road which he is willing and anxious to carry out, although he would make more money to wait a year. But Mr. Hammond is in earnest, and his other large business interest, to which this is but a drop interests, to which this is but a drop in the bucket, will not permit of much waste of time on his part. One man who had refused the offer of the comparties will make it the invite needs. This fact will make it especially im-portant for the people of Clatsop to awaken to the rivalry of their neigh-boring resorts on the Washington side, and join together in a united effort to turn the tide of beach travel to the automating chaose along Chairs and mittee for damages begged to have his deed accepted. It is realized that Mr. Hammond will not pay any money for right of way and that the citizens have no amount of funds to spend therefor, and that the benefits accruing from the building of the road will re-imburse the donors a hundred fold, and that unless the right of way is given the road will be lost. summering places along Clatsop and Cannon beaches. Last year's travel was an object lesson that the proprietors of the summer resorts on this side can well profit by.

In an interview with a member of the subsidy committee, the gentleman, in reply to the question as to what was meant by the statements of some pro-ple that the railroad project was a ple that the railroad project was a mere real estate fake to sell property, replied that the sconer Oregon people understood that a bona fide contract had been executed by the committee of Astorians with Mr. Hammond for the construction of the road, and that Mr. Hammond was ready to go ahead with the work, the better it would be for all. The road can be built, bu' only by carrying out the contract of the part of the people. No one denies but everyone should understand that Hammond, or anyone else, will build Seal Lye.
