They Lack Life

There are twins sold to fishermen on the Columbia river that stand in the same relationship to Marshall's Twins as the wooden image does to the human being—they lack strength—life —evenness—and lasting qualities. Don't fool yourself into the belief that other twins besides Marshall's will do "just as well." They won't. They cannot.

ASTORIA'S RAILROAD

Is Assured—Chairman Wingate Returns from the Line.

NOBLE EXAMPLES SHOWN.

People Say "We Are With You Boys" —Chairman Kinney Heats
From Parsons.

Of all the hard working committees on the railroad, the out of town right of way committee, Messrs. Wingate, Perguson and Stuart are deserving of special mention, as theirs has been a particularly hard duty to perform. Chairman Wingate, of this committee, has dropped, for the time being, all of his private business and has devoted all of his time and energies to forwarding the interests of the community in securing the railroad. To his sound judgment and open and straightforward methods of business is largely due the success of this part of the work.

They returned Sunday from the district near Ranier, and Mr. Wingate reports that while they met with some opposition at first, because of false reports circulated, yet as soon as the people understood that the citizens of Astoria would have to pay out of their own pockets for the right of way, if it was not donated, and that they had already done so much for the enterprise, and that this people's railroad, built by the people, for the benefit of the people, and that a big railroad company, which could give its check for thousands, was not buying the right of way, the people said, "boys, we are with you."

While at the present time it is a hardship upon all, and a very hard matter with some, yet it is thoroughly realized that the future prosperity, enhancement of values and creation of markets for all produce and natural resources, now dormant, will repay rich and poor ten fold, and is in fact the only salvation for Astoria and the Columbia Valley people.

Among the noteworthy incidents during the work of the committee is the filing of the deed of J. L. Morgan. The Morgan family are hard working, honest people, who can ill afford any expense or loss at the present time, yet in a noble manner of self-sacrifice for the good of all, out of their comparatively little, they freely gave their deed to the right of way across their ranch. They have done what a number of their richer neighbors have not yet done, and their good example might well be followed by others.

Dr. Kinney, the mind-reading judge of human nature, chairman of the general committee, is surely the right man in the right place. In the face of almost insurmountable difficulties he has held the committee together for two years, and will surely bring the matters to a successful issue, backed as he is by the undivided support and enthusiastic work of the other members of the "twenty-one." The doctor also reports further good work in the subsidy, and the city right of way matters under Chairman Welch, and a bright prospect that all difficulties will soon be overcome. A prominent citizen, in an interview last night, said that "there must be no failure now, and that there could be no doubt but that all who have not already done so, would soon respond to the call and prove themselves loyal to their city and state. Only a little more is necessary to insure the making of a large and prosperous city out of Astoria.
Shall it not be said that her citizens were equal to the occasion?"

"The eyes of the United States are upon us, and they will see an era of unprecedented prosperity inaugurated in Oregon."
The following are the names of the stalwarts who have sent in their right of way deeds since the last list was published, outside of the city limits, and who have been added to the rapidly growing Roll of Honor:
Jas. Quinn and wife,
J. F. Timmony,
Northwest Timber Company,
Jos. Smith,
Dean Blanchard,
City of Ranier,
G. F. Mook,
Jno. Stockingers,
Mrs. E. B. Creigh,
Chas. Mayger,
F. Turnham,
A. Madden,
Jas. Flak,
W. W. Elliott,
Jas. Dixon,
W. B. Colvin,
W. J. Ross,
J. L. Morgan,
West Estate,
Nicolas Stanovitch,
L. Falangus.

Twenty-two deeds added to the list and Chairman Wingate says not more than 15 per cent remain outstanding, and he anticipates that they will come in at once, and that the committee will wind up its work in about ten days, he hopes, without a law suit.
Everywhere the committee was well received and royally entertained, which not a little mitigated the hardships of the trip. They will return tomorrow to finish the work so well prosecuted.
Word has also been received that the Corbett and Kamm deeds will be furnished in a few days.

At the meeting of the general committee yesterday Dr. Kinney was appointed a committee of one to investigate the purported difficulty with the O. R. and N. Co.

Late yesterday afternoon Chairman Kinney sent the following letter to the Astorian:

"To the Editor: I have just received a letter, under date of April 26th, from my friend Wm. C. Parsons, of Big Bug, Arizona.

"He expresses his desire to not stand in the way of the railroad project, which he is anxious to see pushed to a successful termination, and says that he is perfectly willing to grant a free right of way across his property provided it can be arranged to protect his interests at Bueby's Hole.

"I have known Mr. Parsons all of a lifetime, and have felt it in my bones that whenever he knew that we had a man interested with money enough to build the road, he would be one of us. I know that he has had a long acquaintance with Mr. Hammond, and will not only throw a stone in his way, but will contribute his mite to the success of the enterprise.

"With Mr. Parsons on our side we have but a single owner of right of way in Clatsop county to sue for condemnation, and with that person I am corresponding and hope within the next week the last shadow of obstruction will have disappeared. Yours Truly, ALFRED KINNEY,
Chairman."

The foregoing shows what energy and hard work, combined with tact and good judgment, can accomplish in the handling of large enterprises in the face of diverse interests and misapprehensions.
Victory seems imminent and let all honor rest where honor is due.

LOOKED INTO A GUN.

Charles Bain Encounters a Couple of Highwaymen Early Sunday Morning.

About 2 o'clock Sunday morning Charles Bain entered his room in the old Case residence and walking directly to the stand on which stood the lamp, proceeded to light it. He had scarcely done this when his attention was attracted by a slight noise at his back, and turning around reached out and grasped the handle to a closet door and pulled it open. He was hardly prepared for the surprise that followed, for instead of seeing an innocent rat scamper away into the darkness, he looked straight into the glittering barrel of a revolver, held in the hand of a man who wore a mask over his face. Another man, also masked, stood beside the first mentioned, and in his hand was a murderous looking gun, that looked equally as ugly as the one nearest his head. The usual "throw up your hands" came from the robbers, and Mr. Bain did not hesitate to comply with their command. While one went through Mr. Bain's pockets the other kept a gun on him. When they came to the watch at the special request of the owner, it was not molested. They secured $12 in cash and after advising Mr. Bain to keep quiet for a few hours, they took their departure down the back stairs and out of the kitchen window, the way in which they gained entrance.

After the two hold-ups had gone Mr. Bain searched the bureau drawer for his revolver, and found that it had been stolen. A shot gun in the closet had been rendered useless by the removal of the cartridges. He did not arouse the household, but tried to make the best of it by going to bed and trying to forget all about it. The thieves gained an entrance by going through the kitchen window, and thence into the dining room, where they ignored a lot of silver ware that was in plain view. They passed into the sitting room and up stairs, finally bringing up in Mr. Bain's room. In the next room to Mr. Bain's, the door of which was unlocked, Charles McDonald lay, snoring as if nothing unusual was taking place, but they did not molest him.

The only description Mr. Bain could give of the robbers was that one was long and the other short, and that both wore engineer's overalls, masks hiding their faces from view. Shortly after the hour of this robbery, someone tried to gain an entrance to the residence of Mr. Fred Newell. He heard the noise and frightened them away, and by the glare of a neighboring electric light saw that they were dressed as described by Mr. Bain, and wore masks. The police have been unable to find any trace of the burglars, though a careful search has been made.

ernment Has no Valid Claim—Fair Wills Ruling.

Associated Press.

New York, May 6.—A special cablegram to the World from Tegucigalpa, Honduras, today says: Fighting has begun in Granada, Nicaragua. Disorder is reported from Leon also. Word comes from there that the followers of Ortes, Zeruia and Machorro have united to make war on Zelaya. Honduras troops concentrated at Cape Gracias will remain there as its is feared the threatened outbreak on the Mosquito reservation may extend there. Troops at Amalpa will be distributed along the coast. General Bonillo will take 4,000 men and go to President Zelaya's aid if requested. The evacuation of Corinto and the sailing of the British ships is announced.

SUPREME COURT SESSION.

Is Held to Reconsider the Income Tax Decision.

Washington, May 6.—There was a full bench in the supreme court today the first time since Justice Jackson left for the South last fall. W. D. Guthrie, one of the attorneys for Appellants Hyde and Pollock in the income tax, was recognised by the court to begin the argument for reconsideration of these cases.
Before Guthrie began the chief justice stated that the court had decided to permit the counsel to go into all the questions involved. Mr. Choate and Attorney General Olney, after consultation, announced that five hours each side would be sufficient, and this time was granted.

MRS. STANFORD REPLIES.

San Francisco, May 6.—Mrs. Jane L. Stanford has filed in the United States circuit court a demurrer to the suit brought by the government against the Stanford estate to recover $15,000,000 advanced by the United States for the construction of the Central Pacific railroad. The demurrer sets forth that the only obligation or liability ever created by the government in favor of the United States against the Central Pacific and Western Pacific railroads was on bonds guaranteed by the government which it is claimed do not constitute a debt against either of the companies or a right to demand payment from them, because of the bonds falling of redemption. The de-murrer continues that the only relief open to the government in the construction of the corporations. It is further conceded that no valid claim was ever presented to Leland Stanford during his life, or to his widow since his death. This, it is claimed, vitiates any claim the United States might have had.

THE FAIR WILLS.

San Francisco, May 6.—In the fight for the fair millions the "big four" executors of the first will, which so mysteriously disappeared from the county clerk's office will have a decided advantage. Judge Slack today ruled that the stolen will must be disposed of before the later will, produced by Mrs. Nettie Craven, can be considered. The first will filed, therefore, will be the first contested. This is considered a matter of great importance to the proponents as the tactics of the Fair children will be to evade the forfeiture clause under the first will by supporting the second, the provisions of which are more to their liking. The decision giving priority to the proving of the first will filed will be an unexpected blow to the children who expected that the Craven will would take precedence because of its later date. The petition for probate of the first will be heard on Wednesday.

HAWAIIAN MATTERS.

San Francisco, May 6, advises per steamer Gaelic, Honolulu, April 29.—Minister Hatch has received a communication from Secretary Gresham, through United States Minister Willis, in regard to naturalized Hawaiians applying for the protection of the United States. The communication deals entirely with the case of J. F. Bowler, who called upon the United States to interfere in his behalf. Bowler was convicted of the charge of misprision of treason in connection with the recent rebellion. Mr. Gresham states that the United States government cannot interfere, and in giving his reasons calls attention to the fact that Bowler has taken the oath of allegiance required for becoming a naturalized citizen of Hawaii.

Evidence is at hand that shows British influence is at work in Honolulu. The natives are in a state of expectancy and word has been passed quietly among them that within a short span of time restoration would be a fact. In that event Katulani is to be made Queen.

MONTERRAT AND KEWENAW.

Seattle, May 6.—The Sitka Alaskan, of April 27th, brought down by the steamer Topeka which arrived today, says: The schooner Maud entered Yakutat April 15th with about 250 skins. Captain McKel-said that in Rose Harbor, Queen Charlotte Island, the Indians had a large skin bearing the name "Monerrat" nailed on one of their houses, and in the house was found a smaller one bearing the name "Kenowa." This is the first news ever received of the steam colliers, the Monerrat and Kewenaw, which were lost last winter while en route from Nainaimo to San Francisco with coal.

GIVEN A REST.

San Francisco, May 6.—Theodore Dur-rant will spend several quiet weeks in the county jail before he is placed on trial for his life for the murder of Blanche Lamont and Minnie Williams. The police will not hurry him to trial, desiring to give him abundant time to prepare for his defense. The case therefore will not be called until July.

Threatening letters have been received by the school girls who identified Durant as Blanche Lamont's escort from school on the day of her disappearance. The girls have been warned that if they testify against Durant again they will receive physical violence.

WARSHIPS GATHERING.

Chee Foo, May 6.—The warships of several powers are fast assembling here. The situation is regarded as ominous. Already eight Russian warships, including three torpedo boats, are here, and more are expected. In addition, one British, one French, and one American, and two German warships have arrived. The ratifications of the treaty will be exchanged here next Wednesday. It is reported that Li Hung Chang has been degraded.

WILL ARREST THE GOVERNOR.

Topeka, Kan., May 6.—Governor Morrill is to be arrested on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses. This is a statement of Waters & Waters, the attorneys preparing the papers, which will be signed by Warden Chase, of the state penitentiary. The charge is made that Governor Morrill drew money from the state to pay for the services of his private secretary a month before the governor was inaugurated.

THEY HOOTED BURNS.

London, May 6.—John Burns, a member of parliament and labor leader, in the course of a speech at the Labor Day demonstration, Hyde Park, was greeted with groans and cries "why don't you support Kier Hardie?" "Traitor!" etc. Burns said "If you don't hear me I will go home." This was followed by cries "Go home; you are no workman!"

TO SLAUGHTER HORSES.

Portland, May 6.—Articles of incorporation of the Oregon Packing and Fertilizer Company were filed today. The incorporators are S. Kinsman, of Heppner, M. Sichel, and Ben Selling, of this city. The company purposes to engage in buying and slaughtering horses and preparing flesh for food and making fertilizer of the refuse.

SUPREME COURT DECISION.

Washington, May 6.—In the case of the Corporation of Catholic Bishops of Nevada, Washington Territory, versus John T. Gibbons, R. T. Yearman and the United States, the decision of the United States court for the district of Washington was affirmed today by the supreme court.

BIG BUFFALO FIRE.

Buffalo, May 6.—A fire early today destroyed M. Strauss & Co.'s tannery, the postal station, A. Grobman's coal yard and barns, several freight cars, two dwellings, a number of horses and a large amount of stock in East Buffalo. The loss is estimated at a quarter of a million, with $125,000 insurance.

JAPAN WILL LET GO.

Paris, May 6.—The Japanese minister here has informed the minister of foreign affairs that deferring to the friendly advice of France, Russia and Germany, Japan has renounced its claim to a permanent possession of the Lao Tung peninsula, including Port Arthur.

THE STORY CONFIRMED.

Port Townsend, May 6.—The steamer City of Topeka, from Alaska, arrived this afternoon, confirming the report that the sealing schooner C. G. White, of San Francisco, and seventeen men, including the captain, were lost in the storm of April 21, near Kodiak.
