THERE

Are going to be a lot of well-dressed men in the city this spring-of course we haven't made all their clothes-bu we think if you ask every third man you meet where he got his suit-and o course he will say (that is, if it's tailo made) MoDonald's. He may not tel you how much he saved, but you ca just jot it down that it was worth saving-by the way-he may have o one of our $15 suits and you'll think It cost $50-but of course you're judg ing by what you usually pay others.

great shame that such a stumbling block stands in the way of the consummation of Astoria's long-cherished scheme to put herself on a parity with the rest of the world and it can hardly be credited that a gentleman of Mr. Young's intelligence and business shrewdness will ultimately stand out against a proposition so manifestly to his own benefit as well as that of the community at large. Mr. Wingate, of the right of way committee, did not get away yesterday, but will return to Ranter this morning, if nothing further prevents, to finish the work in that district. It is expected that when he returns to Astora again, that as a result of his keen foresight, winning ways and great tact, he will bring back the balance of the right of way deeds in his "inside pocket." Chairman Welch, of the inside gation listened to Evangelists Holdridge and Dickson. The song service was thoroughly inspiring and was participated in very heartily by the audience. Mr. Holdridge opened his part of the service by having the congregation repeat with some very appropriate comments. Before commencing his discourse the evangelist requested all who have not been accustomed to listen to sermons to prepare themselves to be good listeners. He then read from Matt. 7, "Enter ye into the straight gate, etc." From this scripture the Evangelist drew the thought that every man must make a trip whether he will or no. There are only two roads and the termini are heaven and hell. Upon the two courses of life, the evangelist spoke some very plain and practical rules, and showed in an earnest nanner and by clear and logical reasoning that the only safe and sure course is the "narrow way" which he enforced by the word of Jesus. "Come unto me all e that labor and are heavy laden and
