"Chinook," in the Cathlamet Gazette, says Monday's storm made sad havoc among the fishermen of Baker's Bay. Boats came ashore and were smashed into kindling wood. The sloop Mayflower went ashore on Chinook beach. She had her center-board smashed and her rigging badly damaged by the drift logs. She was hove off again at high tide on the 7th. Ole Peterson lost a fine scow with a house on her. He had just purchased the scow at Astoria for $150. She is a otal loss. He also lost two skiffs."

The agitation for more local yachts with which to compete against all com-ers at the regatta is still a much discussed question among the various boat-builders in town, all of whom seem will-ing to be a little patriotic in the matter. Any one of them is willing to build a yacht of any designated size, on the condition that she must beat anything of her inches that can be brought against her on the coast, or no sale. The sale price may be placed at a fair figure, suffi-

The Victoria scaling schooner Maud S., which arrived at Takutat on April 15 with 250 skins, brought several pleces of deck fittings easily recognized as having belonged to one or the other of the lost vessels. Captain McKiel had obtained them at Rose Harbor, Queen Charlotte, where, Captain McKiel had obtained them at Rose Harbor. the Keweenaw had also been picked up and used to decorate one of the smaller native houses. At Cross Sound Captain McKlei also found several pieces of finished woodwork, evidently from some wrecked vessel of large size. Ross harbor, at which point some of the relic wreckage has come ashore, is situated at the extreme northeast corner of Graham Island, the last of the Queen Charlotte group; it was here, on Rose spit, that the Dominion steamer Quadra came to grief two years ago, and as no steamers grief two years ago, and as no steamers have made calls there for a year or more, there being no commercial interests to cater to, it is quite possible that much additional information concerning the wreck of the two colliers has for months been in the possession of the Indians there, who however have been unable, even if desirous, to communicate it to the outside world.

The Blight That Comes to Ss Many Women Explained --- A Way Shown

By Which it Can Be AVoided.

No woman in America has given greater No woman in America has given greater attention to the ailments and sufferings of women than Mary Lowe Dickinson, the popular writer and magazine contributor. She has frequently uttered words of warning and advice to women, but never with so impressive an effect as in a recent address when she said:

"Reason's whole pleasure, all the joys of sense.

Live in three words, health, peace and competence."

So says the poet. Competence counts for little one is sick, and peace is disturbed when health is upset, so that the poet rightly places health first. To have good health you must have pure blood. From the blood the system receives all its material growth and repair. The best blood purifier is Dr. Price's Golden Medical Discovery, which is world famed and sold everywhere. It is a govereign remedy for all diseases due to impoverished or impure blood, as consumption, bronchitis, weak lungs, scrofula, old sores, skin diseases, and kindred allments.

Delicate diseases of either sex, however induced, promptly, thoroughly and permanently cured. Send ten cents in stamps for large illustreated treatise, sens securely sealed in plain envelope. Address, World's Dispensary Medical Association for the material products.

Warning and sidvice to women, but never with so impressive an effect as in a recent address, when she said:

"Without health the beautiful woman causes to be beautiful, and education and training are of little avail if she has to pass her life a helpless victim of sickness and weakness. We do not know half the truth about this, for three-fourths of the sufferings, there are a doenn who drag their own troubles dumbly and bravely into their graves. Sickness is a blight that no woman should permit to come over her if she can by any possibility cure it or keep it away. How to secure health is, indeed, one of the first problems for this generation. Give us health! is the cry from all the world of women. Give us a system that will spare us the morbid brooding of discontent, the hysterical tantrum, the nervous collapse, the look of gloom from the wells of our eyes."

Every woman must admit the truth of these words. They are spoken straight from the heart. There are thousands upon thousands of women who sufof gloom from the wells of our eyes."

Every woman must admit the truth of these words. They are spoken straight from the heart. There are thousands upon thousands of women who feel sick at certain periods, tired out, and who suffer from weaknesses that doctors seem unable to relieve, and the saddest par of it all is that they might be happy, joyous, flush with health, and attractive to family and friends if they only knew and acted upon the secret of happiness. Most women are saithy and attractive because they preserve the organs that make they preserve the organs that make health. It is true comparatively few know how this is done, but many have ascertained it, and have relied as upan a true friend on that grandest, greatest, and most reliable aid to woman in her fritical periods, Warner's Safe Cure. Every doctor knows this truth, and hun-Every doctor knows this truth, and hundreds of the most prominent and reliable ladies in America have proven its value in their own experiences, and are not only alive, but strong, healthy and happy today.
