Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U.S. Gov't Report ROYAL Baking Powder

N. P. IN HIS GRIP. Proof Positive that Hill has Gained Control. ITS EFFECT ON THE WEST. Astoria Will Reap Its Share of Profit Through the Goble Road—O. R. & N. Believed Includad.

A FRIEND IN NEED. Mr. Herman Wise Will Give a Benefit Sale that Should Meet With Hearty Response. As will be seen by an advertisement in this morning's Astorian, Mr. Herman Wise has decided to dispose of goods for the next thirty days at a small per cent above the manufacturer's cost.

REVIVAL NOTES. The evangelists, Holdridge and Dickson, moved to Uppertown yesterday and held service in the old school house at 3 p. m. The house was well filled, and would no doubt have been overflowing had it not rained.

Mr. C. F. Haskell, government engineer, who was drowned on the Upper Columbia river Tuesday, was very favorably known here, where he was stationed several months while engaged in surveys of the lower river.

Mr. Hill was not in the responsible position he now holds—was practically unanimous so far as the European shareholders are concerned.

Mr. Hill is to be placed by the bondholders of the Northern Pacific in charge of the road and to have and to hold it, by the construction of one grand trans-Pacific system, with two lines instead of one—lines to be operated in harmony instead of at dagger's point, as at present.
