They Lack Life

There are twines sold to fishermen on the Columbia river that stand in the same relationship to Marshall's Twine as a wooden image does to the human being—they lack strength—life—evenness—and lasting qualities. Don't fool yourself into the belief that other twines besides Marshall's will do "just as well." They won't. They cannot.

THE OFFICERS NAMED

The President Officially Nominates Olney and Harmon.

INCOMPETENCY IS ALLEGED

To Be the Cause of the Colima Wreck—The Washunaw Safe—Roseate Trade Reports.

Washington, June 7.—The president this afternoon announced the following cabinet appointments: Secretary of state, Richard Olney, of Massachusetts; attorney general, Judson Harmon, of Cincinnati, Ohio.

Mr. Harmon has been for a long time judge of the common pleas court and is a man about 50 years of age, one of the most conspicuous lawyers in the West, and upon the retirement of ex-Governor Hoadley from his Cincinnati firm, upon his removal to New York, Harmon took his place at the head of the firm of Harmon, Colstone, Goldsmith and Hoadley, the last named being a son of ex-Governor Hoadley, of Ohio.

DUN'S WEEKLY.

New York, June 7.—Dun & Co.'s weekly Review of Trade will say:

The trend of business is rising, even as it was falling two years ago, with surprising rapidity. The gain has gone so far and so fast in some branches that the more conservative fear it may not be maintained. But the period of dullness which comes in each market after an unusual rise brings as yet nothing like a corresponding decline. Industries gain much, halt or fall back a little, and then gain once more. The demand for consumption is steadily increasing as the employment and wages of the people increase. The demand for money increases, one bank reporting 29 per cent larger in discounts for the country, and another 23 per cent more commercial loans than a year ago, and all but two report some gain. The serious question remains whether the crop will be good enough to sustain the large business. Reports are better by far than the estimates recently current. Wheat rose 2 cents, fell back 2 cents, with realizing, and has risen again three cents with a western estimate of a crop of 80,000,000 bushels smaller than last year.

The failures for the week were 196 in the United States against 216 last year, and 35 in Canada against 40 last year.

BRADSTREET'S REPORT.

New York, June 7.—Bradstreet's will say tomorrow: The speculative spirit which seemed to dominate both the commercial and financial circles until within a week or ten days past, is still less conspicuous in all lines. The demand for staple goods, in a number of instances, is smaller, notably at Boston, Pittsburg, Chicago, and Kansas City, particularly in dry goods, the demand for which in first and second hands, has declined, as is customary at this period. While business throughout the country may be designated as quieter, the tone of staples continues strong, and confidence in a good demand, when the fall season opens, remains unabated. The feature of the week, as heretofore, is the continued long list of advances in prices, notably those for iron and steel, and the upward movement of bank clearings. Statistics show a decrease of over 17,000,000 bushels in the available stock of wheat in the United States and Canada, during May. Heavier shipments of wheat to Europe, with the increasing available stocks there, made dealers have confidence in the permanency of a higher range of prices for wheat.

AVERAGE CROP OF HOPS.

San Francisco, June 7.—J. C. Bauer, one of the oldest hop dealers in the city, has just returned from a trip that took in all the Pacific Coast states and British Columbia. He says that in the hop growing regions of Oregon and Washington, the crop looks well, barring some mould in the Washington yards.

"The price is so low," said Mr. Bauer, "that in a great many yards hops will not be picked at all this year. There was a big crop in Europe last year, and ever since the price has been low all over the world.

"The price now is from 3 to 5 cents for medium, and for choice, 7 to 8 cents. Choice hops are not plenty in the market. England takes 50,000 bales every year from us and the East about the same. The coast consumption of hops is about 8,000 bales. An average crop for Oregon, Washington and California, with all the yards producing, would be about 150,000 bales. I think there will be that much this year, unless something happens to the crop. I think there will be a better price for the new crop."

ALLOWED TO CARRY THEM.

San Francisco, June 7.—The executive committee of the Fourth of July celebration committee has, in answer to a communication, informed the local society of the Ancient Order of Hibernians that it may carry in the procession the flag known as the green flag of Ireland, if made into the form of a banner, suspended from cross poles and lettered as a banner of a fraternal order, with cut conflicting with the resolution that no flags other than the stars and stripes will be allowed to be carried.

CHINA THANKFUL TO THE U. S.

Washington, June 7.—The Chinese minister here, in company with acting Secretary Uhl, accompanied by his secretary of the legation and interpreter, waited in person on the president today and presented to him a letter from the Emperor of China thanking him in graceful terms for the kindly offices exercised by the United States in behalf of the restoration of peace between China and Japan.

INCOMPETENCY ALLEGED.

San Francisco, June 7.—Gustav Rowan, one of the survivors of the Colima, has sent a communication to the Call, in which he says:

"I want to make a statement now, if you will allow me to do so. You can find out that what I say is true if you will see the other men picked up. Some of them will not dare to tell the truth, as they have been promised money to keep still. The Colima was lost because she was badly handled, by officers without capacity and bad men, when the gale struck us. When I saw that the ship was going to sink I went after life-preservers and commenced to give them out to the passengers, but the steward told me to let them alone and ordered me forward. I was saved because I got a life preserver, and if others had been allowed to get them too, many would have been saved with me."

THE OFFICERS' STORY.

San Francisco, June 7.—The United States inspectors of boilers and hulls commenced an official examination into the Colima disaster today. Third Officer Hansen said that he had superintended the stowing of the cargo and that the work had been well done and that the cargo had not shifted. If the Colima had not been a good boat he thought she would not have weathered the storm as long as she did. He believes the wreck was entirely due to the violence of the storm.

TWO DECLINED TO GO.

Salt Lake, June 7.—A special to the Herald from Butte, Mont., says:

The Butte Chamber of Commerce invitation to Senators Carter and Mantle and Congressman Hartman to represent Montana at the Memphis silver convention has been accepted only by Mr. Hartman. Carter did not reply to the invitation, and Mantle returned to Butte today. He says his private business will detain him at home all summer.

THE WASHUNAW SAFE.

San Francisco, June 7.—The Johnson-Locke Mercantile Company, consignees of the "Washunaw," from New York for San Francisco, laden with steel rails for the San Francisco and San Joaquin Valley Railroad, reported disabled at the Straits of Magellan, state that a cablegram has been received from Capt. Holmes, of the Washunaw, announcing her safe arrival at Coronel, Chili.

CHANGE IN TIME.

Portland, Or., June 7.—It is said that the Southern Pacific will, in the near future put on another local train between this city and Salem, making three trains daily. It is probable that the extra local will leave here about 5 p. m., and that the overland train will be put two hours later, in order to connect with the Northern Pacific, which arrives at 8:20.

WON THE MEDAL.

Rochester, N. Y., June 7.—E. C. Schenck won the gold medal offered by the Post Express for the best time made by the Chicago-New York relay riders between Rochester and New York. Schenck covered his relay of seven miles in 23:10, averaging 3 minutes 4-5 semonds per mile.

CALIFORNIA WINS.

Champaigne, Ill., June 7.—In the dual athletic contest today between the University of California and the University of Illinois, the former won, 65 to 43.

HE CANNOT ATTEND.

Boise, Idaho, June 7.—On account of urgent private business Senator Shoup says he will not be able to attend the silver convention at Memphis.

THE THREE EXECUTED.

San Quentin, Cal., June 7.—Patrick Collins, Amelio Garcia, and Anthony Azoff, all murderers, were hanged in the state prison today.

THE MANCHESTER CUP.

Manchester, England, June 7.—Florizel, II, owned by the Prince of Wales, won the Manchester cup today against a large field, which included M. F. Dwyer's Banquet II.

THE TALK OF THE DAY.

The postoffice in India not only collects and delivers letters, parcels and other articles, but acts to a certain extent as a banker to the general public, sells quinine and salt, pays military pensions, and collects the revenue accruing to the government from land and other sources. But to the fertile brain of one of the oldest officers in the department is due the latest development in the work of the postoffice. The Punjab postoffice has come forward as an elementary teacher. It not only collects letters and delivers them, but teaches boys in elementary schools how to write them and address the covers.

Ready wit is one of the essentials to desk-room at the capital, and in this connection I might relate an anecdote concerning a gentleman who is in Atlanta today. I refrain from giving his name, taking for granted that he has seen the error of his ways since he passed out from the elevating influences of the city editor.

In the early days our friend was on the local staff of a Cincinnati paper. He was detailed to report a revival meeting, and was busily engaged in taking notes when one of the sisters approached him and suggested that he should go up in front and take a seat on the anxious bench.

"Madam," he replied, "you see, I am sent here by my paper. I am busy, and I really cannot spare the time."

"But, brother," urged the good lady, "do you not remember the story of the fishermen of Galilee, how they left their nets and all else to follow the Master?"

"I know the story," replied the unregenerate knight of the quill, "but there is a great difference, my dear madam, Those fishermen were not working for John R. McLean."—Atlanta Journal.

A lawyer in Australia was defending a young man whose record was malodorous. Ignoring the record, however, the lawyer proceeded to draw a harrowing picture of two gray-haired parents in England looking anxiously for the return of their prodigal son to spend the next Christmas with them, and he asked: "Had they the hearts to deprive the old couple of this happiness?" The jury, however, being heartless men, found the prisoner guilty. Before passing sentence the judge called for the prisoner's jail record, after examining which he blandly remarked that the "prisoner had some five previous convictions against him, but he was glad to say that Mr. ——'s eloquent appeal would not remain unanswered, for he would commit the prisoner to Maitland (New South Wales) jail, where his aged parents at the present moment were serving sentences respectively, so that father, mother and son would be able to spend the ensuing Christmas season under one roof."

IMPROVED CONDITION

Weekly Salmon Report Shows An Upward Tendency.

THE HATCHET IS BURIED

Discount Troubles Are Over—Chinooks Magnificent, But Blue-Backs Are Scarce.

Astoria, Ore., 10 p. m., 7th June, 1895.—Today we are glad to be able to report that the forward shipments of Columbia river salmon to all large centres have reached their normal condition. No traces now remain of tardiness in orders, and demands are coming in at such a rate that canners are taxed to get goods ready for shipment on time. During the last seven days 35 carloads, containing 14,000 cases, have been dispatched to various eastern points, and in the coming week shipments will run thirty to forty per cent higher. The principal feature to report since our last statement, has been the rapid closing up of all old stocks in New York, Chicago, Baltimore, Philadelphia, and St. Louis, and it is doubtful if these five cities now hold between them a thousand cases of last year's first class goods. This state of affairs has caused a big rush of peremptory demands on the jobbers and through them on the packers, who are doing their utmost to meet the call. It has had the effect also, very noticeable everywhere, of stiffening prices, more particularly for flat cans. We quote today as follows:—Columbia River standard brands, straight chinooks, $1.35 to $1.42½ for talls and $1.52½ to $1.75½ for flats. Ovals have shown signs of climbing higher in two or three quarters and now run from $1.55½ to $1.95½, sales of these goods averaging over the $1.90 mark. Keys on all goods 5 cents to 7½ cents extra. Ovals for foreign shipment are quoted at $2.05 to $2.10, less 5 per cent. Our correspondents' reports from all quarters show a dearth of new goods everywhere. New York will probably receive this year more Columbia River salmon than she has has accepted for some seasons. The demand in Chicago is steady, with inclinations among big buyers to take goods at firm and advancing prices. During the past week the Alaska Packers' Association has placed a considerable quantity of goods for foreign shipment at from 90 cents to 92½ cents per dozen. The Sacramento river packers have felt the increasing foreign sales and nearly 4,000 cases had been shipped to Europe up to Wednesday from California. It is rumored today that the Alaska Packers' association is opening a big market in Australia for cheap trash, at cut prices, and some trial shipments have already gone forward to that country from San Francisco. On the Fraser river, packing will be begun before our next report, and everything points to a slack year. The absence of bluebacks in the Columbia is an indicator in this direction. Fraser river packers will soon be in the middle of a fight with foreign jobbers, which may develop some interesting situations before they get through. There seems to be a tendency to distrust on both sides concerning the fluctuations in the price of the British Columbia product. Operations in this city for the past week have been steady. The run of chinooks since Saturday has averaged fifteen fish to the boat, and while the catch has not been extraordinary for this time of year, it has been uniformly good, and has closed the first week's continuous run since the season opened. Bluebacks are very slack, and many of the canners are beginning to doubt their ability to fill orders for this class of goods if the present state of affairs keeps up. The blueback run is now two weeks overdue, and to put it plainly has been to date a flat failure. At the Cascades and The Dalles very little is doing. Several of the wheels are still out of the water, and those that are fishing find no bluebacks to pack. The steelhead run is due in a few weeks and these fish are already appearing, seemingly pointing to a good catch as the season advances. The Chinooks this year are magnificent, and are unusually fat. The average weight at present is fully 25½ pounds, and several of them are scaling 60 pounds. From this time to the 20th of the month the largest fish of the season, will appear. The middle river canneries are all doing fairly well and prospects there have brightened somewhat during the past seven days. With excellent receipts at this end of the season the total pack will not be able to reach last year's figures, and everything points to the correctness of our deduction that the Columbia will be 50,000 cases short for 1895. Yesterday active work was started by the cannerymen, combined for the purpose, in the erection of a large salmon hatchery on the Upper Clackamas river, which runs into the Columbia. This movement on the part of the packers has met with universal approval all over Oregon, and is bound in the next three or four years to have a perceptible effect on the size of the annual pack. The discount trouble has ceased entirely and canners unite in stating to us that the hatchet has been buried. If any of the packers are giving the 1½ per cent cash terms they are discreetly silent on the subject, while the majority are contented with a well earned victory and don't fail to say so.

STATE NEWS.

There is a general impression that all the good land of the Siletz reservation was allotted to the Indians, but the Toledo Leader says that there are hundreds of acres of as good land as Oregon rain ever fell on that is unallotted to the Indians. If any one expects to go and get an improved farm that some Indian has been living on for years, they will be sadly fooled. But if they want good land that will be a regular garden spot when improved, then they can find it.

A shipment of forty boxes of butter from the Ainenester creamery in Mendocino county for Japan was made last week. Each box was hermetically sealed, and it is thought will reach its destination in good condition. Another market for our dairymen to dispose of their surplus product in.

Mr. L. B. Kidder yesterday sold his wool clip through the Eustace warehouse to Mr. Geo. T. Davis, representing Jos. Rosmand of Boston. The amount of the clip was 10,000 pounds and the price paid was 7½ cents per pound.—Baker City Democrat.

ALPHABET MAXIMS.

Attend carefully to details of your business.
Be prompt in all things.
Consider well, then decide positively.
Dare to do right, fear to do wrong.
Endure trials patiently.
Fight life's battles bravely, manfully.
Go not into the society of the vicious.
Hold integrity sacred.
Injure not another's reputation or business.
Join hands only with the virtuous.
Keep your mind from evil thoughts.
Lie not for any consideration.
Make few acquaintances.
Never try to appear what you are not.
Observe good manners.
Pay your debts promptly.
Question not the veracity of a friend.
Respect the counsel of your parents.
Sacrifice money rather than principle.
Touch not, taste not, handle not intoxicating drinks.
Use your leisure time for improvement.
Venture not upon the threshold of wrong.
Watch carefully your own passions.
Xtend to everyone a kindly salutation.
Yield not to discouragement.
Zealously labor for the right—
And success is certain—Baron Rothschild.

OCCULTISM.

Drowsy, drowsy, hear the bees,
With their lullaby!
See the nodding maple trees
Blinking at the sky!
Soft there falls a sleepy spell
That must conquer soon.
Let's give up—we may as well—
Hypnotized by June.
Something subtle in the air
Makes her presence known,
As a dreamland earth is fair
Where her sight is shown.
Let the clover incense rise,
Through the mystic tune,
While we smile and shut our eyes,
Hypnotized by June.
—Washington Star.

MIRTH AND MERRIMENT.

He (sympathetically)—You have a bad cold. She (huskily)—I have. I am so hoarse that if you attempted to kiss me I couldn't even scream!

Old Bache—That's a handsome pair of slippers you're wearing, Harry. Harry—They ought to be; I'm sure they cost enough. My wife made them, and then coaxed me out of the price of a sealskin.

Agitated young bridegroom (immediately after the ceremony)—Serena, shall—shall I—shall we—shall we kiss? Self-possessed bride (it being her third experience)—It is my usual custom, William.

A young woman married a man who told her he was an "architect's assistant." She became disconsolate upon discovering next day that he assisted the architect by carrying bricks up a ladder on a hod.

The New Woman—I should like to look at some neckties. New Assistant—The necktie department is farther back. This is the toilet department. I can show you some mustache invigorators, though.

Missionary (out west)—Did you ever forgive an enemy? Bad man—Wunst. Missionary—I am glad to hear that. What moved your inner soul to prefer peace to strife? Bad man—I didn't have no gun.

"There, my love," said the young husband, as he placed a bundle on the table, "I've bought you a pair of sleeves." "Oh, you darling!" exclaimed the delighted wife. "I'm so happy! Anything will do for a dress."

A Chicago paper says "there is nothing rare about a well-cooked day in June." It might be a good thing for some of the Chicago people to try the salubrious June weather of Oregon.
