

Suits to-measure, $35

The only way to fit a man is to first find out just what kind of a man you have to fit—that's just what we do take your measure exact—and cut the suit for you—and it will fit, or we'll keep 'em.

CHAS. McDONALD, The Tailor, 523 Commercial Street.

Few Men Would Ask For a Finer Dinner

than those we serve. We're trying in every way to make them the most enjoyable in town. All the "good things" of the season—cooked by our excellent cook—in the most delicious style. Perfect service.

The Palace Restaurant

That House You Intend to Build Can be built just to suit your pocket-book by

G. G. PALMBERG, and you will find him at his shop at 473 Fourth Street.

Sterling Silver!

Never has there been such a stock of sterling silver as that now on display at our store. Half the town does not realize the imminence of this assortment.

EXSTROM, the Jeweler.

ASTORIA MATTRESS FACTORY

Manufacturers of every description of Lounges, Mattresses, etc.

REPAIRING IN ALL ITS BRANCHES

When the tide sets one way there is always a cause for it. Women don't come here to buy roast steaks, and all other kinds of meat simply because it's Christensen & Co's.

"THE RESORT"

Daily, Why? Because they can at any time, day or night, call for a sandwich here and get it.

Grosbauer & Brach.

Dalgity Iron Works

General Machinist and Boiler Works. All kinds of Cannery, Ship, Steamboat and Engine Work of any Description.

A Poor Cigar

W. F. SCHIEBE never made. Don't expect to make, either. But make this—a-a-l-i-b-e-c-a-t-i-o-n of the 22-karat sort has accompanied every purchase of one of the cigars made by him.

ROSS HIGGINS & CO. Grocers, and Butchers

White Kid Slippers! White Kid Oxfords! White Canvas Oxfords!

JOHN HAHN & CO.

The U. S. Gov't Reports show Raw Hacking Powder superior to all others.

WHAT ABOUT OUR SHOES?

Don't they wear out around the sole? Don't they need a patch on the heel? We will make them good as new.

S. A. GIMBRE, Sole Agent for the Celebrated Almighty Dollar Cigar.

PONGEE SILKS

Twenty-five cents per yard.

ALBERT DUNBAR.

Try Smith's ice cream.

Fresh strawberries at Smith's today.

Sweet cream at Smith's 20 cents pint.

T. E. Schultz, fresco and scenic artist.

The Palace Barber Shop is now giving one of their two-bit shaves for 15 cents.

Our milk is guaranteed strictly pure and fresh from the cow daily.

The Palace Bath House encourages folks to bathe by having everything first class.

Smith's ice cream is unequalled. Ice cream soda a specialty.

Will spend the summer in Astoria, one of Portland's most artistic dressmakers.

If you want a bicycle repaired or a lock fixed, or any other first-class work done, call on C. H. Orkwith.

What cows received first premium at the World's Fair for producing the richest milk?

The greatest accessory to good looks, is a smooth, soft skin.

No better milk was ever brought to Astoria than is furnished for five cents a quart by Beth & Wilson.

Arrived—Mrs. Zwemer, trances medium, can be consulted on all affairs of life.

Mr. C. C. Crosby, who thinks there is nothing new under the sun.

Mr. M. C. Crosby, formerly manager of the Hotel Portland.

Mothers raising their babes on the bottle will have fast, strong and healthy babies.

Business men of Astoria visiting Portland have for years been accustomed to take their mid-day lunch at the "Gem."

What is the use of having a "humane form divine" unless you care for it and drape it and clothe it so as to make it a source of joy to yourself and a pride to your friends?

Divine services will be held in the Norwegian Evangelical Lutheran Church.

Thursday night M. O'Donnell, one of Hawthorn's fishermen.

The young ladies of Bethania Church will give a basket social in the basement of the church Saturday evening.

Mr. W. T. Beveridge has taken possession of Harry Hamblet's cigar store.

Captain H. B. Parker yesterday received a lot of the finest halibut and flounders that have come to this market.

The ladies of the Swedish Lutheran Church of Upper Astoria will give a strawberry social this Saturday evening.

All those who want to celebrate the Fourth are given to understand that the committee will be pleased to have them attend the meeting tonight in Judge Gray's office.

Sheriff Hare, who went to Knappa Thursday on a telegraphic request.

The following were among the passengers for Portland last evening on the Oregon Railway: John Leary and wife, Geo. Hamilton, Mrs. A. J. Taylor and daughter, Mrs. Uri Seelye and daughter, H. Montgomery, J. M. Curney and wife, Mrs. E. A. Seelye, Mrs. P. S. Malcolm, Mrs. T. Reed, L. B. Seelye, C. R.

FOARD & STOKES CO.

Crockery, Glass and Plated Ware, White Sewing Machines, Hardware, Boat and Fishermen's Supplies, Paints and Oils, Ship Chandlery, Teas, Coffees and Groceries, California Wines, Medicinally Pure Liquors.

North Pacific Brewery

JOHN KOPP, Prop

Bohemian Lager Beer

And XX PORTER.

DEALERS IN

Crockery, Glass and Plated Ware, White Sewing Machines, Hardware, Boat and Fishermen's Supplies, Paints and Oils, Ship Chandlery, Teas, Coffees and Groceries, California Wines, Medicinally Pure Liquors.

Sole Agents for the Celebrated Almighty Dollar Cigar.

YESTERDAY'S WEATHER

Local weather for the twenty-four hours ending at 8 p. m. yesterday, furnished by the United States department of agriculture weather bureau:

Maximum temperature, 74 degrees. Minimum temperature, 46 degrees. Precipitation, none.

Total precipitation from September 1st, 1894, to date, 72.70 inches.

Excess of precipitation from September 1st, 1894, to date, 4.11 inches.

AROUND TOWN

Monday is the last day in which to pay your water rates.

The Mormon scrapers have not yet put in an appearance.

No business was transacted yesterday in Judge Osburn's court.

Minograph for sale, Oregon Trading Co., 600 Commercial street.

Obesity baits for ladies and gentlemen at Charles Rogers' drug store.

Lost—A tennis pin with initials T. T. Friend please leave at this office.

Horace Timey went to Portland last night on a few days' business trip.

A new and elegant line of perfumes just received, call and see them at Charles Rogers'.

Contracts will be let at 2 o'clock this afternoon for the improvement of Irving avenue.

Mr. J. A. Duffy adorns his new position with all of his accustomed gear of manner.

WANTED—A dining room girl. Good wages, at Casino restaurant, 684 Commercial street.

Capt. Staple's young son, Clifford, who has been sick for some time, is again able to be around.

Anna L. Nyquist yesterday filed final proofs in her homestead claim No. 10155 in the county court.

Judge Abercrombie yesterday looked somewhat lonesome in his office—not a case was presented.

Mr. J. Greenbaum says that the general conditions of trade are improving—looks for better times this season.

The Nob Hill ball grounds were being rolled and put in order yesterday. The boys will soon have a fine practice ground.

At the Swedish Lutheran church there will be services tomorrow morning at 10:30 in English; vespers at 8 p. m. in Swedish.

A pencil, big as a log, was yesterday presented to the secretary of the A. & G. T. Y. with which to keep his records, if he has any to keep.

Engineer Adams of the waterworks has his house now in readiness for the reception of his family, who will shortly arrive from the east.

Mr. M. C. Crosby, who thinks there is nothing new under the sun, is of the opinion that 1895 will see the return of prosperity all along the lines.

W. H. Barnore, formerly manager of the Hotel Portland, was in the city yesterday. Mr. Barnore is negotiating for the management of the hotel at Gearhart park.

The City Street Railway Co. will receive by the steamer Signal on her next trip, a large lot of railroad iron which will be used in the repairs of the car track.

Mr. Martin Ford thinks that during the summer he will make a trip to the Nehalem, and while there inform himself somewhat on the much mooted Cross road law question.

It is rumored that a certain party is running a fish trap on the Clatskanie for the purpose of catching trout and that he is fairly depopulating that stream of these speckled beauties.

Max Mayer, the enterprising manager of the cigar department of the Blumensack Drug Co., Portland, was doing his usual amount of rustling yesterday amongst his Astoria friends.

The change of base in Christensen & Co's market at the corner of Bond and 9th streets, has about been accomplished and soon business at the old stand may be done without climbing a ladder.

Divine services will be held in the Norwegian Evangelical Lutheran Church of Upper Astoria, on the hill up from the Columbia campus, tomorrow at 11 o'clock a. m. by Rev. Tonnason. All cordially invited.

Thursday night M. O'Donnell, one of Hawthorn's fishermen, lost his net between the bell buoy and the black buoy No. 8. The net contained 285 fathoms and the corkers bore the marks of Eagle Cliff and Hawthorn.

The young ladies of Bethania Church will give a basket social in the basement of the church Saturday evening at 8 o'clock. Refreshments will be served. Good music all promised. Admittance free. All are welcome.

Mr. W. T. Beveridge has taken possession of Harry Hamblet's cigar store and will hereafter conduct the business. Mr. Beveridge says that he is most favorably impressed with Astoria and proposes to cater to its best people.

Captain H. B. Parker yesterday received a lot of the finest halibut and flounders that have come to this market this season. The fish were in prime condition and made one's mouth water to see them. The Columbia river is all there.

Mrs. E. M. Chabot, Miss Kate Chabot, Sam G. Clark, R. S. Knight and W. O. Wilkinson of Oakland, Cal., were in the city yesterday, stopping at the Occident. They are interested in the raising of cranberries and were here in the interests of that commodity.

The ladies of the Swedish Lutheran Church of Upper Astoria will give a strawberry social this Saturday evening at 8 o'clock. Admittance will be 25 cents for adults and for children 15 cents. A cordial invitation is extended to all. A short program will be given.

All those who want to celebrate the Fourth are given to understand that the committee will be pleased to have them attend the meeting tonight in Judge Gray's office. The committee also say that they hope everybody will turn out and help make the matter a success.

Sheriff Hare, who went to Knappa Thursday on a telegraphic request, wired his office that the man he was chasing had disappeared in the woods and that he would not return until today. It is not known who the criminal is or what the offense, but Mr. Hare will be apt to get there just the same.

The following were among the passengers for Portland last evening on the Oregon Railway: John Leary and wife, Geo. Hamilton, Mrs. A. J. Taylor and daughter, Mrs. Uri Seelye and daughter, H. Montgomery, J. M. Curney and wife, Mrs. E. A. Seelye, Mrs. P. S. Malcolm, Mrs. T. Reed, L. B. Seelye, C. R.

Bernard, wife and son, Mrs. Scott, Miss Sears, H. Bell, R. C. P. Ashbury, C. H. McLellan, W. H. Barnore, W. A. Fraser, Mrs. E. A. Taylor, H. D. Thing, C. Morris, Geo. Smith, Fred Brown, J. H. White, F. Gunn, M. Meyer, G. S. Corgard, S. Jones, J. W. Cacey, J. T. Merrill, F. O. Allen, H. Gray, C. Nelson.

Thirty piles were yesterday driven to the roadway on Bond street in front of Brach's place by Clinton & Sons, the contractors. Mr. Brach says that he will have his place connected with the street today and will then be in first-class shape for business.

The following deeds were filed in the recorder's office yesterday: S. J. Hunter to J. M. Bell, conveying a half interest in four lots in Block 43 addition to C. Fulton et al. to O. J. Peterson, quit claim to two lots in Young's addition, lot in Shively's addition, and land in section 36, township 8, N. E.

Mr. Ross, of Ross, Higgins & Co., was yesterday busy engaged the entire forenoon with drummers, and when a newspaper man put in his appearance in the afternoon he was almost ready to show him the door. Finally he unbended enough to say that there was nothing of a startling nature in town.

The many friends of Miss Nellie Sherman were glad to know that she has been much benefited by the treatment she is receiving at the Children's Hospital, under Dr. Sherman, in San Francisco. She has gained three inches in height and is much better in every way. Miss Sherman will return in July.

The following were among the passengers for Portland on the Potter last evening: A. Scherneckau, H. Lang, Miss L. Tallant, F. Johnson, M. B. Ross, H. J. Fanning, W. E. Jenkins, C. L. Houston, Miss Dellman, E. Puresh, H. M. Westervelt, N. W. Tallant, G. Mastago, Mrs. Ferchen, J. O. Hawthorn, H. M. Cooper, C. T. Cross, Miss Helborn.

Services at the Congregational church—Reception of members and communion in the morning. Children's Day will be observed in the evening with appropriate music and exercises. The rite of baptism will be administered at the Baptist church. The Sunday school meets at 12:35 and the Christian Endeavor at 7 P. m.

Contractor Clinton, who is now at work on the improvement of Bond street, while at work yesterday near 4th street, fell over in a fainting fit and nearly dropped off the roadway. He was carried to the hospital and after some time he was speedily restored to consciousness. He was all right again in the afternoon. The Astorian has made arrangements to hold the annual of the Multnomah races in Portland this afternoon.

At the Baptist church there will be a service at 11 a. m. Subject, "Sunday School and Bible." The evening discourse at 8 o'clock will be the second in the course of "Lessons from the Lives of Biblical Characters," in connection with the evening service. Let any who may desire to be baptized at that time consult the pastor not later than 10 o'clock. Communion at 12:35 and Y. P. B. U. at 7 p. m. Prayer meeting at 8 p. m. on Wednesday evening.

A man riding a wheel on Bond street at the intersection of 9th yesterday evening almost met with a severe accident. There was a strip of rotten plank in the roadway, and as he was riding, his wheel struck it, his weight, letting his wheel partially through, but the speed at which he was going enabled him to pick himself out without dismounting. He was, however, unable to ride to his home, and he was taken to the hospital, where he was speedily restored to consciousness. He was all right again in the afternoon. The Astorian has made arrangements to hold the annual of the Multnomah races in Portland this afternoon.

At the Baptist church there will be a service at 11 a. m. Subject, "Sunday School and Bible." The evening discourse at 8 o'clock will be the second in the course of "Lessons from the Lives of Biblical Characters," in connection with the evening service. Let any who may desire to be baptized at that time consult the pastor not later than 10 o'clock. Communion at 12:35 and Y. P. B. U. at 7 p. m. Prayer meeting at 8 p. m. on Wednesday evening.

A man riding a wheel on Bond street at the intersection of 9th yesterday evening almost met with a severe accident. There was a strip of rotten plank in the roadway, and as he was riding, his wheel struck it, his weight, letting his wheel partially through, but the speed at which he was going enabled him to pick himself out without dismounting. He was, however, unable to ride to his home, and he was taken to the hospital, where he was speedily restored to consciousness. He was all right again in the afternoon. The Astorian has made arrangements to hold the annual of the Multnomah races in Portland this afternoon.

At the Baptist church there will be a service at 11 a. m. Subject, "Sunday School and Bible." The evening discourse at 8 o'clock will be the second in the course of "Lessons from the Lives of Biblical Characters," in connection with the evening service. Let any who may desire to be baptized at that time consult the pastor not later than 10 o'clock. Communion at 12:35 and Y. P. B. U. at 7 p. m. Prayer meeting at 8 p. m. on Wednesday evening.

A man riding a wheel on Bond street at the intersection of 9th yesterday evening almost met with a severe accident. There was a strip of rotten plank in the roadway, and as he was riding, his wheel struck it, his weight, letting his wheel partially through, but the speed at which he was going enabled him to pick himself out without dismounting. He was, however, unable to ride to his home, and he was taken to the hospital, where he was speedily restored to consciousness. He was all right again in the afternoon. The Astorian has made arrangements to hold the annual of the Multnomah races in Portland this afternoon.

At the Baptist church there will be a service at 11 a. m. Subject, "Sunday School and Bible." The evening discourse at 8 o'clock will be the second in the course of "Lessons from the Lives of Biblical Characters," in connection with the evening service. Let any who may desire to be baptized at that time consult the pastor not later than 10 o'clock. Communion at 12:35 and Y. P. B. U. at 7 p. m. Prayer meeting at 8 p. m. on Wednesday evening.

A man riding a wheel on Bond street at the intersection of 9th yesterday evening almost met with a severe accident. There was a strip of rotten plank in the roadway, and as he was riding, his wheel struck it, his weight, letting his wheel partially through, but the speed at which he was going enabled him to pick himself out without dismounting. He was, however, unable to ride to his home, and he was taken to the hospital, where he was speedily restored to consciousness. He was all right again in the afternoon. The Astorian has made arrangements to hold the annual of the Multnomah races in Portland this afternoon.

At the Baptist church there will be a service at 11 a. m. Subject, "Sunday School and Bible." The evening discourse at 8 o'clock will be the second in the course of "Lessons from the Lives of Biblical Characters," in connection with the evening service. Let any who may desire to be baptized at that time consult the pastor not later than 10 o'clock. Communion at 12:35 and Y. P. B. U. at 7 p. m. Prayer meeting at 8 p. m. on Wednesday evening.

A man riding a wheel on Bond street at the intersection of 9th yesterday evening almost met with a severe accident. There was a strip of rotten plank in the roadway, and as he was riding, his wheel struck it, his weight, letting his wheel partially through, but the speed at which he was going enabled him to pick himself out without dismounting. He was, however, unable to ride to his home, and he was taken to the hospital, where he was speedily restored to consciousness. He was all right again in the afternoon. The Astorian has made arrangements to hold the annual of the Multnomah races in Portland this afternoon.

At the Baptist church there will be a service at 11 a. m. Subject, "Sunday School and Bible." The evening discourse at 8 o'clock will be the second in the course of "Lessons from the Lives of Biblical Characters," in connection with the evening service. Let any who may desire to be baptized at that time consult the pastor not later than 10 o'clock. Communion at 12:35 and Y. P. B. U. at 7 p. m. Prayer meeting at 8 p. m. on Wednesday evening.

A man riding a wheel on Bond street at the intersection of 9th yesterday evening almost met with a severe accident. There was a strip of rotten plank in the roadway, and as he was riding, his wheel struck it, his weight, letting his wheel partially through, but the speed at which he was going enabled him to pick himself out without dismounting. He was, however, unable to ride to his home, and he was taken to the hospital, where he was speedily restored to consciousness. He was all right again in the afternoon. The Astorian has made arrangements to hold the annual of the Multnomah races in Portland this afternoon.

At the Baptist church there will be a service at 11 a. m. Subject, "Sunday School and Bible." The evening discourse at 8 o'clock will be the second in the course of "Lessons from the Lives of Biblical Characters," in connection with the evening service. Let any who may desire to be baptized at that time consult the pastor not later than 10 o'clock. Communion at 12:35 and Y. P. B. U. at 7 p. m. Prayer meeting at 8 p. m. on Wednesday evening.

A man riding a wheel on Bond street at the intersection of 9th yesterday evening almost met with a severe accident. There was a strip of rotten plank in the roadway, and as he was riding, his wheel struck it, his weight, letting his wheel partially through, but the speed at which he was going enabled him to pick himself out without dismounting. He was, however, unable to ride to his home, and he was taken to the hospital, where he was speedily restored to consciousness. He was all right again in the afternoon. The Astorian has made arrangements to hold the annual of the Multnomah races in Portland this afternoon.

At the Baptist church there will be a service at 11 a. m. Subject, "Sunday School and Bible." The evening discourse at 8 o'clock will be the second in the course of "Lessons from the Lives of Biblical Characters," in connection with the evening service. Let any who may desire to be baptized at that time consult the pastor not later than 10 o'clock. Communion at 12:35 and Y. P. B. U. at 7 p. m. Prayer meeting at 8 p. m. on Wednesday evening.

A man riding a wheel on Bond street at the intersection of 9th yesterday evening almost met with a severe accident. There was a strip of rotten plank in the roadway, and as he was riding, his wheel struck it, his weight, letting his wheel partially through, but the speed at which he was going enabled him to pick himself out without dismounting. He was, however, unable to ride to his home, and he was taken to the hospital, where he was speedily restored to consciousness. He was all right again in the afternoon. The Astorian has made arrangements to hold the annual of the Multnomah races in Portland this afternoon.

At the Baptist church there will be a service at 11 a. m. Subject, "Sunday School and Bible." The evening discourse at 8 o'clock will be the second in the course of "Lessons from the Lives of Biblical Characters," in connection with the evening service. Let any who may desire to be baptized at that time consult the pastor not later than 10 o'clock. Communion at 12:35 and Y. P. B. U. at 7 p. m. Prayer meeting at 8 p. m. on Wednesday evening.

A man riding a wheel on Bond street at the intersection of 9th yesterday evening almost met with a severe accident. There was a strip of rotten plank in the roadway, and as he was riding, his wheel struck it, his weight, letting his wheel partially through, but the speed at which he was going enabled him to pick himself out without dismounting. He was, however, unable to ride to his home, and he was taken to the hospital, where he was speedily restored to consciousness. He was all right again in the afternoon. The Astorian has made arrangements to hold the annual of the Multnomah races in Portland this afternoon.

At the Baptist church there will be a service at 11 a. m. Subject, "Sunday School and Bible." The evening discourse at 8 o'clock will be the second in the course of "Lessons from the Lives of Biblical Characters," in connection with the evening service. Let any who may desire to be baptized at that time consult the pastor not later than 10 o'clock. Communion at 12:35 and Y. P. B. U. at 7 p. m. Prayer meeting at 8 p. m. on Wednesday evening.

A man riding a wheel on Bond street at the intersection of 9th yesterday evening almost met with a severe accident. There was a strip of rotten plank in the roadway, and as he was riding, his wheel struck it, his weight, letting his wheel partially through, but the speed at which he was going enabled him to pick himself out without dismounting. He was, however, unable to ride to his home, and he was taken to the hospital, where he was speedily restored to consciousness. He was all right again in the afternoon. The Astorian has made arrangements to hold the annual of the Multnomah races in Portland this afternoon.

At the Baptist church there will be a service at 11 a. m. Subject, "Sunday School and Bible." The evening discourse at 8 o'clock will be the second in the course of "Lessons from the Lives of Biblical Characters," in connection with the evening service. Let any who may desire to be baptized at that time consult the pastor not later than 10 o'clock. Communion at 12:35 and Y. P. B. U. at 7 p. m. Prayer meeting at 8 p. m. on Wednesday evening.

A man riding a wheel on Bond street at the intersection of 9th yesterday evening almost met with a severe accident. There was a strip of rotten plank in the roadway, and as he was riding, his wheel struck it, his weight, letting his wheel partially through, but the speed at which he was going enabled him to pick himself out without dismounting. He was, however, unable to ride to his home, and he was taken to the hospital, where he was speedily restored to consciousness. He was all right again in the afternoon. The Astorian has made arrangements to hold the annual of the Multnomah races in Portland this afternoon.

At the Baptist church there will be a service at 11 a. m. Subject, "Sunday School and Bible." The evening discourse at 8 o'clock will be the second in the course of "Lessons from the Lives of Biblical Characters," in connection with the evening service. Let any who may desire to be baptized at that time consult the pastor not later than 10 o'clock. Communion at 12:35 and Y. P. B. U. at 7 p. m. Prayer meeting at 8 p. m. on Wednesday evening.

A man riding a wheel on Bond street at the intersection of 9th yesterday evening almost met with a severe accident. There was a strip of rotten plank in the roadway, and as he was riding, his wheel struck it, his weight, letting his wheel partially through, but the speed at which he was going enabled him to pick himself out without dismounting. He was, however, unable to ride to his home, and he was taken to the hospital, where he was speedily restored to consciousness. He was all right again in the afternoon. The Astorian has made arrangements to hold the annual of the Multnomah races in Portland this afternoon.

At the Baptist church there will be a service at 11 a. m. Subject, "Sunday School and Bible." The evening discourse at 8 o'clock will be the second in the course of "Lessons from the Lives of Biblical Characters," in connection with the evening service. Let any who may desire to be baptized at that time consult the pastor not later than 10 o'clock. Communion at 12:35 and Y. P. B. U. at 7 p. m. Prayer meeting at 8 p. m. on Wednesday evening.

A man riding a wheel on Bond street at the intersection of 9th yesterday evening almost met with a severe accident. There was a strip of rotten plank in the roadway, and as he was riding, his wheel struck it, his weight, letting his wheel partially through, but the speed at which he was going enabled him to pick himself out without dismounting. He was, however, unable to ride to his home, and he was taken to the hospital, where he was speedily restored to consciousness. He was all right again in the afternoon. The Astorian has made arrangements to hold the annual of the Multnomah races in Portland this afternoon.

At the Baptist church there will be a service at 11 a. m. Subject, "Sunday School and Bible." The evening discourse at 8 o'clock will be the second in the course of "Lessons from the Lives of Biblical Characters," in connection with the evening service. Let any who may desire to be baptized at that time consult the pastor not later than 10 o'clock. Communion at 12:35 and Y. P. B. U. at 7 p. m. Prayer meeting at 8 p. m. on Wednesday evening.

A man riding a wheel on Bond street at the intersection of 9th yesterday evening almost met with a severe accident. There was a strip of rotten plank in the roadway, and as he was riding, his wheel struck it, his weight, letting his wheel partially through, but the speed at which he was going enabled him to pick himself out without dismounting. He was, however, unable to ride to his home, and he was taken to the hospital, where he was speedily restored to consciousness. He was all right again in the afternoon. The Astorian has made arrangements to hold the annual of the Multnomah races in Portland this afternoon.

At the Baptist church there will be a service at 11 a. m. Subject, "Sunday School and Bible." The evening discourse at 8 o'clock will be the second in the course of "Lessons from the Lives of Biblical Characters," in connection with the evening service. Let any who may desire to be baptized at that time consult the pastor not later than 10 o'clock. Communion at 12:35 and Y. P. B. U. at 7 p. m. Prayer meeting at 8 p. m. on Wednesday evening.

A man riding a wheel on Bond street at the intersection of 9th yesterday evening almost met with a severe accident. There was a strip of rotten plank in the roadway, and as he was riding, his wheel struck it, his weight, letting his wheel partially through, but the speed at which he was going enabled him to pick himself out without dismounting. He was, however, unable to ride to his home, and he was taken to the hospital, where he was speedily restored to consciousness. He was all right again in the afternoon. The Astorian has made arrangements to hold the annual of the Multnomah races in Portland this afternoon.

At the Baptist church there will be a service at 11 a. m. Subject, "Sunday School and Bible." The evening discourse at 8 o'clock will be the second in the course of "Lessons from the Lives of Biblical Characters," in connection with the evening service. Let any who may desire to be baptized at that time consult the pastor not later than 10 o'clock. Communion at 12:35 and Y. P. B. U. at 7 p. m. Prayer meeting at 8 p. m. on Wednesday evening.

A man riding a wheel on Bond street at the intersection of 9th yesterday evening almost met with a severe accident. There was a strip of rotten plank in the roadway, and as he was riding, his wheel struck it, his weight, letting his wheel partially through, but the speed at which he was going enabled him to pick himself out without dismounting. He was, however, unable to ride to his home, and he was taken to the hospital, where he was speedily