summer has not been announced, but it is thought it will remain in vogue on the Topelon by reason of the opposition that has been making such a vigorous pl.ed, and then there was a brief silence, while the Willer and then there was a brief silence, is throught it will remain in vogua on the Topeka by reason of the opposition that has been making such a vigorous fight of lists. The Willapa, the new boat on the route, will enter the excursion trade this summer, and will make a fight to get a good portion of the business. In addition to this, David Morgan, of this city, owner of the steams Chileat, which has taken a route some while the widow wept

"'Hanry, are you happy?' she asked. Tas spirit dit not reply immediately, but it finally said: 'Yes, don't see much difference between this and carth.' "Where are you, Henry, dear?' Another this city, owner of the steams Chilcat, which he took off the Alaska route some months ago, has again placed that boit on the run. He started her north Sai-urday week, and she will make another trip from the Sound, leaving today. The Queen, as usual, will carry excursions during the season, they for the most part being made up of Eastern tourist parties. The Raymond-Whitcomb excur-sion agency has notified the Northern Pacific railcoad that they will bring a pause and then: 'I am in hell!'
